The Leader in Me Stephen R. Covey, 2012-12-11 Children in today's world are inundated with information about who to be what to do and how to live But what if there was a way to teach children how to manage priorities focus on goals and be a positive influence on the world around them The Leader in Me is that programme It's based on a hugely successful initiative carried out at the A B Combs Elementary School in North Carolina To hear the parents of A B Combs talk about the school is to be amazed In 1999 the school debuted a programme that taught The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People to a pilot group of students The parents reported an incredible change in their children who blossomed under the programme By the end of the following year the average end of grade scores had leapt from 84 to 94 This book will launch the message onto a much larger platform Stephen R Covey takes the 7 Habits that have already changed the lives of millions of people and shows how children can use them as they develop Those habits begin with the end in mind put first things first think win win seek to understand and then to be understood synergize and sharpen the saw are critical skills to learn at a young age and bring incredible results proving that it's never too early to teach someone how to live well

A School of Our Own Samuel Levin, Susan Engel, 2008-10-01 The remarkable true story of the high school junior who started his own school and earned acclaim nationwide will make you laugh cry and cheer John Merrow author of The Influence of Teachers Samuel Levin a teenager who had already achieved international fame for creating Project Sprout the first farm to school lunch program in the United States was frustrated with his own education and saw disaffection among his peers In response he lobbied for and created a new school based on a few simple ideas about what kids need from their high school experience The school succeeded beyond anyone's wildest expectations and went on to be featured on NPR and in Newsweek and the Washington Post Since its beginnings in 2010 the Independent Project serves as a national model for inspiring student engagement In creating his school Samuel collaborated with Susan Engel the noted developmental psychologist educator and author and Samuel's mother A School of Our Own is their account of their life changing year in education a book that combines poignant stories educational theory and practical how to advice for building new more engaging educational environments for our children
