Running Again In Hollywood Cemetery:

Running Again in Hollywood Cemetery Ron Smith, 2019-11 Poetry Running Again in Hollywood Cemetery Ron Smith, 1988-01-01 Difficult Run James Osterhaus, 2025-04-30 James Osterhaus draws readers into the simple life of Joe Thompson who is struggling to know what happened to him twenty years before during the Civil War When he tries to remember the shadows descend and cloud out his memories The story opens with a dream that has terrified him since the war some unnamed battlefield where he is crawling through the smoking underbrush trying not to get shot After his wife has finally had enough of his abuse she kicks him out of their house along Difficult Run and he moves to Alexandria where a kindly uncle takes him in He then begins his quest to find out just what happened to himself and his three friends As he is drawn into the jaws of the terrible conflict the more disturbing the revelations become He has a talisman actually half a carving of an oak tree that he carries everywhere around his neck on a chain But he can't remember where it came from or what it symbolizes It seems to have some strange power over him He interviews several generals and a few veterans to get some perspective on the war and jog his memory Finally he learns the awful truth of what had happened and how he was responsible At last he comes to peace on the banks of Difficult Run when he is able to fashion two tombstones for his brother and his girlfriend after he has learned of their fate and the role he played in their lives and deaths Don't Leave Hungry James Smith, 2009-02 This substantial anthology charts the development of this influential journal decade by decade making clear that although it has close ties to a particular region it has consistently maintained a national scope publishing poets from all over the United States SPR's goal has been to celebrate the poem above all so although there are poems by major poets here there are many gems by less famous perhaps even obscure writers too Here are 183 poems by nearly as many poets from A R Ammons Kathryn Stripling Byer James Dickey Mark Doty Claudia Emerson David Ignatow and Carolyn Kizer to Ted Kooser Maxine Kumin Denise Levertov Howard Nemerov Sharon Olds Linda Pastan and Charles Wright Ravishing DisUnities Agha Shahid Ali, 2000-11-03 A star studded anthology infuses English poetry with the rigor and wit of a foreign form In recent years the ghazal pronounced ghuzzle a traditional Arabic form of poetry has become popular among contemporary English language poets But like the haiku before it the ghazal has been widely misunderstood and thus most English ghazals have been far from the mark in both letter and spirit This anthology brings together ghazals by a rich gathering of 107 poets including Diane Ackerman John Hollander W S Merwin William Matthews Paul Muldoon Ellen Bryant Voigt and many others As this dazzling collection shows the intricate and self reflexive ghazal brings the writer a unique set of challenges and opportunities Agha Shahid Ali's lively introduction gives a brief history of the ghazal and instructions on how to compose one in English An elegant afterword by Sarah Suleri Goodyear elucidates the larger issues of cultural translation and authenticity inherent in writing in a borrowed form Moon Road Ron Smith, 2007-10-01 From poems of memory and family through its extraordinary voyaging sequences Via Appia and To Ithaca Ron Smith's Moon Road embodies the experiences and some of the more elusive lessons of marriage fatherhood teaching sports and travel Domestic poems give way to poems of pilgrimage and witness to poems of literary homage and metaphysical questioning A mind nurtured in the mid twentieth century Deep South drifts north and west and finally abroad and sometimes into visionary mysterious pasts With skeptical reverence the poems hunger for and dramatize a search for immanence and transcendence Many poems examine the fear of meaninglessness the griefs of separation and alienation and the limits as well as the powers of language
