Nautical Books Alan Obin,1999 A Threshold Crossed Omar Shakir,2021 The widely held assumption that the Israeli occupation of Palestinian territory is a temporary situation and that the peace process will soon bring an end to Israeli abuses has obscured the reality on the ground today of Israel's entrenched discriminatory rule over Palestinians A single authority the Israeli government rules primarily over the area between the Jordan River and Mediterranean Sea populated by two groups of roughly equal size methodologically privileging Jewish Israelis while repressing Palestinians most severely in the Occupied Palestinian Territory OPT made up of the West Bank including East Jerusalem and Gaza Drawing on years of human rights documentation case studies and a review of government planning documents statements by officials and other sources this report examines Israel's treatment of Palestinians and evaluates whether particular Israeli policies and practices in certain areas amount to the crimes against humanity of apartheid and persecution Page 4 of cover

United States Naval Institute Proceedings ,1998 Mass Starvation Alex de Waal,2017-12-08 The world almost conquered famine Until the 1980s this scourge killed ten million people every decade but by early 2000s mass starvation had all but disappeared Today famines are resurgent driven by war blockade hostility to humanitarian principles and a volatile global economy In Mass Starvation world renowned expert on humanitarian crisis and response Alex de Waal provides an authoritative history of modern famines their causes dimensions and why they ended He analyses starvation as a crime and breaks new ground in examining forced starvation as an instrument of genocide and war Refuting the enduring but erroneous view that attributes famine to overpopulation and natural disaster he shows how political decision or political failing is an essential element in every famine while the spread of democracy and human rights and the ending of wars were major factors in the near ending of this devastating phenomenon Hard hitting and deeply informed Mass Starvation explains why man made famine and the political decisions that could end it for good must once again become a top priority for the international community
