Borrás Jr., Lyda Fernanda Forero, Ruth Hall, Wendy Wolford, Ben White, 2021-06-29 The rise of authoritarian nationalist forms of populism and the implications for rural actors and settings is one of the most crucial foci for critical agrarian studies today with many consequences for political action Authoritarian Populism and the Rural World reflects on the rural origins and consequences of the emergence of authoritarian and populist leaders across the world as well as on the rise of multi class mobilisation and resistance alongside wider counter movements and alternative practices which together confront authoritarianism and nationalist populism The book includes 20 chapters written by contributors to the Emancipatory Rural Politics Initiative ERPI a global network of academics and activists committed to both reflective analysis and political engagement Debates about populism nationalism authoritarianism and more have exploded recently but relatively little of this has focused on the rural dimensions Yet wherever one looks the rural aspects are key not just in electoral calculus but in understanding underlying drivers of authoritarianism and populism and potential counter movements to these Whether because of land grabs voracious extractivism infrastructural neglect or lack of services rural peoples disillusionment with the status quo has had deeply troubling consequences and occasionally hopeful ones as the chapters in this book show The chapters in this book were originally published in The Journal of Peasant Studies

Musicians' Mobilities and Music Migrations in Early Modern Europe Gesa zur Nieden, Berthold Over, 2016-10-15 During the 17th and 18th century musicians mobilities and migrations are essential for the European music history and the cultural exchange of music Adopting viewpoints that reflect different methodological approaches and diversified research cultures the book presents studies on central scopes strategies and artistic outcomes of mobile and migratory musicians as well as on the transfer of music By looking at elite and non elite musicians and their everyday mobilities to major and minor centers of music production and practice new biographical patterns and new stylistic paradigms in the European East West and South emerge      Easy Essays Peter Maurin, 2010-05-01 I first met Peter in December 1932 when George Shuster then editor of The Commonweal later president of Hunter College urged him to get into contact with me because our ideas were so similar both our criticism of the social order and our sense of personal responsibility in doing something about it It was not that the world was too much with us as we felt that God did not intend things to be as bad as they were We believed that in the Cross was joy of Spirit We knew that due to original sin all nature travailles and groaneth even until now but also believed as Juliana of Norwich said that the worst had already happened i e the Fall and that Christ had repaired that happy fault In other words we both accepted the paradox which is Christianity Peter s teaching was simple so simple as one can see from these phrased paragraphs these Easy Essays as we have come to call them that many disregarded them It was the sanctity of the man that made them dynamic Although he synopsized hundreds of books for all of us who were his students and that meant thousands of pages of phrased paragraphs these essays were his only original writings and even during his prime we used them in the paper just as he did in speaking over and over again He believed in repeating in driving his point home by constant repetition like the dropping of water on the stones which were our hearts Dorothy Day Market Failure, Government Failure, Leadership and Public Policy B. Dollery,J. Wallis,1999-07-19 A global wave of reform is fundamentally reshaping the role of the state in national economies This book provides a fresh and accessible perspective on the political economy of this megatrend It traces the theoretical roots of the reforms to developments in public economics which emphasize problems of government rather than market failure It then breaks new ground in developing an economic theory of leadership to explain how policy leadership networks can strive to influence the direction of reform processes the role of the various major players in the process including donors NGOs ex combatants and the central state authority It argues that reconstruction can only be successful if it takes into account the fundamental and irreversible transformations of society engendered by war and conflict which in the case of Sudan includes the massive rural to urban population flows experienced during the years of warfare It compares possible future scenarios for Sudan and considers how the obstacles to successful post conflict reconstruction might best be overcome Overall this book will not only be of interest to scholars of Sudan and regional specialists but to all social scientists interested in the dynamics of post conflict reconstruction and state building
