Verhagen, H. H. van Laar, 2007-11-29 Facing new challenges with respect to sustainable agriculture and rural development strategies for low income countries related to global environmental change and globalization of markets an interdisciplinary Wageningen University and Research Centre group set out to draw lessons from the DLO IC projects of the last eight years In discussing the way ahead and a future agenda a number of major research challenges as well as policy questions are outlined E-Agriculture and Rural Development: Global Innovations and Future Prospects Maumbe, Blessing, Patrikakis, Charalampos Z., 2012-12-31 This book is a comprehensive collection of research on the emerging trends and advances in the global application of information and communication technology use in agriculture and rural development Provided by publisher Rural Development Katar Singh, 1999-06-08 Policy relevant and up to date Rural Development deals systematically with all aspects of socioeconomic rural development using India as a case study The Second Edition includes an integrated treatment of the principles policies and management of rural development new research and statistical data illustrations and examples from current situations the latest measures of rural development and a new methodology for project monitoring and evaluation Rural Development and Management in India Manish Didwania, Nitin Kishore Saxena, Sanjeev Prashar, 2017 Today's socio economic scenario is highly volatile and risky To sustain the growth and development is a big challenge for various national economic entities After liberalisation privatisation and globalisation most of these entities including national and multinational firms targeted the urban population for growth It has been more than twenty five years and these urban markets are showing signs of maturation and saturation This resulted in agencies and organisations looking for new avenues in order to sustain themselves In such a scenario India's rural markets have emerged as a new hope for them The hinterlands in India consist of more than 650 000 villages which represent approximately 850 million consumers This number is roughly equal to 70% of the total population These rural consumers contribute to approximately half of the country's Gross Domestic Product GDP Since 2000 India's rural sector showed a tremendous growth in its per capita Gross Domestic Product GDP as compared to its urban counterpart 6.2% CAGR versus 4.7% By the end of 2018 rural GDP is estimated to reach US 20 billion and touch US 100 billion by 2025 According to McKinsey Global Institute the annual real income per household in rural India would rise to 3.6% by 2025 from the 2.8% over the last 20 years Normally it is assumed that urban consumers have more disposable income and their spending pattern is different from that of rural consumers But the last decade has witnessed a change in this trend with rural consumers exhibiting similar consumption patterns to that of their urban counterparts This change is the result of various government initiatives such as the Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Act MGNRA Swarnjayanti Gram Swarozgar Yojna and the National Social Assistance Program that have increased the purchasing power of rural India This has led to higher spending by rural consumers US 69 billion between 2009 and 2012 and this is significantly more than the US 55 billion spent by urban consumers Owing to a favourable changing consumption trend as well as the potential size of the market rural India provides a large and attractive opportunity for companies The rural market is highly vibrant in nature and the business organisations are performing both as the carrier and bearer of the results of this change which is happening at an accelerating pace In the initial years rural consumers were on the receiving end and now they are gradually getting into position to dictate the terms A significant rural market share can be achieved by focusing on execution excellence by implementing novel strategies to serve rural consumers and it must be drawn on a deep understanding of consumers cultures and needs Research related to rural development in India is almost non existent and this book provides a window into the challenges that are faced in rural India This book presents a window into the need for education in this subject at the same cotton for textiles and accounts for over a third of Pakistan's total export earnings. Equally important are nonfarm economic activities in rural areas such as retail sales in small village shops, transportation services, and education and health services in local schools and clinics. Rural nonfarm activities account for between 40 and 57 percent of total rural household income. Their large share of income means that the agricultural sector and the rural nonfarm economy have vital roles to play in promoting growth and reducing poverty in Pakistan.

Rural Development Paola de Salvo, Manuel Vaquero Pineiro, 2022-02-02 The book brings together a series of contributions with a common goal of reflecting the links between economic development and rural development. The scenario is dotted not only with old and new wounds but also with innovative strategies in an attempt to overcome existing delays. The chapters of the book are composed of scenarios full of case studies. The plans to be adopted to help the countries that have lagged behind fueled an intense debate since the obstacles to development as evidenced by the extensive scientific literature available now appeared to be the realities present in the socio-economic structures of a large number of villages. Although the data available are still few, it is assumed that the Covid-19 pandemic will make a landscape already full of criticalities even more fragile.

management for agriculture industry dr Rural Development in Punjab Autar S. Dhesi, Gurmail Singh, 2020-11-29 For many years agricultural development in Punjab symbolised one of the most successful experiments in rural development However this success story seems to be going astray The crux of the problem this volume suggests is that externally driven modernization to meet national food needs pushed Punjab into highly specialized production of wheat and rice resulting in over utilisation of natural resources with adverse environmental consequences that jeopardizing the long term viability and sustainability of the agrarian economy Stagnating productivity reduced farm size falling household incomes depleting groundwater resources are only a few of the problems that characterise Punjab s agriculture today The book establishes clearly that rural development implies more than transformation of traditional agriculture Apart from ensuring efficient use of limited resources to sustain agricultural production rural policy should encompass promotion of non farm activities investments in social and economic structure and civic amenities Agricultural Extension and Rural Development Ray Ison, Raymond L. Ison, David Russell, 2007-08-16 This 1999 book proposes an alternative approach to research and development based on the needs of the farming community Education for Rural Development David Atchoarena, Lavinia Gasperini, 2003 Rural Development Issues Arnold V. Burlingham, 2008 Rural development is a crucial issue throughout the world Key issues include farming and forestry land use and the management of natural resources In addition economic diversification in rural communities is at the centre of many programs across the globe Three Masquerades Marilyn Waring, 1997-01-01 Marilyn Waring probes the world behind the mask in these three remarkable essays on women in politics economics and work and human rights First she pulls away the masks that women who are elected to parliamentary office are forced to wear How do we women find ourselves trapped in the institution s games How does that affect our ability to make progress on issues of primary importance to us What does that do to our self image Can we even afford to be aware of this The second essay continues Waring s powerful writing on economics and the concept of work She updates the international situation described in her bestseller Counting for Nothing Based on her project experience with the United Nations she exposes the gap between rhetoric and consequence you wash your pig this is work you wash your child this is welfare it has no value The last essay unmasks the rhetoric of human rights Waring shows how nation states exploit United Nations conventions while also explaining the opportunities the conventions provide for political action
