Rural Rides:

Rural rides William Cobbett,1830      Rural Rides William Corbett,1957      Rural Rides William Cobbett,2018-09-20
Reproduction of the original Rural Rides by William Cobbett      Rural Rides ,1979      Rural Rides William Cobbett,1886
The Arnoldian ,1991      Landskipping Anna Pavord,2016-01-28 Landskipping is a ravishing celebration of landscape its iridescent beauty and its potential to comfort awe and mesmerise In spirit as Romantic as rational Anna Pavord explores the different ways in which we have throughout the ages responded to the land In the eighteenth century artists first started to paint English scenery and the Lakes as well as Snowdon began to attract a new kind of visitor the landscape tourist Early travel guides sought to capture the beauty and inspiration of waterfall lake and fell Sublime Picturesque they said as they laid down rules for correctly appreciating a view While painters painted and writers wrote an entirely different band of men the agricultural improvers also travelled the land and published a series of remarkable commentaries on the state of agricultural England They looked at the land in terms of its usefulness as well as its beauty and using their reports Anna Pavord explores the many different ways that land was managed and farmed showing that what is universal is a place s capacity to frame and define our experience Moving from the rolling hills of Dorset to the peaks of the Scottish Highlands this is an exquisite and compelling book written with zest passion and deep understanding      Back to the Shops Rachel Bowlby,2022-02-24 What will become of the shops More than ever the high street appears to be under mortal threat its shops boarded up as the sad bricks and mortar survivals of a pre online retail world But behind the bleak appearance there is more to see Back to the Shops offers a set of short and surprising chapters each one a window into a different shop type or mode of selling Old shopping streets are seen from new angles fast fashion shows up in eighteenth century edits Here are pedlars and pop ups mail order catalogues and mobile greengrocers shops Here too are food markets open till late on a Saturday night and tiny subscription libraries tucked away at the back of the sweet shop Over time shops have occupied radically different places in cultural arguments and in our everyday lives They are essential sources of daily provisions but they are also the visible evidence of consuming excess They are local community hubs and they are dreamlands of distraction Shops are inherently spaces of imagination as well as of practicality They belong with their own surrounding streets and town they bring back the times and places of our lives They linger in stories of all kinds whether far fetched or round the corner From butcher to baker and from markets to motor vans after reading this book you will want to go back to the shops      Rural Rides William Cobbett,2015-02-27 which has now come to pass and is coming to pass However I make no complaint on this score People disliking my politics neither picks my pocket nor breaks my leg as Jefferson said by the writings of the Atheists If they be pleased in disliking my politics I am pleased in liking them and so we are both enjoying ourselves If the country wants no assistance from me I am quite sure that I want none from it Nov 3 Saturday      Rural Rides of the Bristol Churchgoer Joseph Leech,1982      A History of English Georgic Writing Paddy Bullard,2022-12-15 The interconnected themes of land and labour were a common recourse for English literary writers between the sixteenth and twentieth centuries and in the twenty first they have become pressing again in the work of nature writers environmentalists poets novelists and dramatists Written by a team of sixteen subject specialists this volume surveys the literature of rural working lives and landscapes written in English between 1500 and the present day offering a range of scholarly perspectives on the georgic tradition with insights from literary criticism historical scholarship classics post colonial studies rural studies and ecocriticism Providing an overview of the current scholarship in georgic literature and criticism this collection argues that the work of people and animals in farming communities and the land as it is understood through that work has provided writers in English with one of their most complex and enduring themes

William Cobbett, Romanticism and the Enlightenment James Grande, 2015-10-06 Cobbett was one of the greatest journalists of his day Following a career in the British army he began writing as the loyalist Peter Porcupine in the United States defending all things British against the French Revolution and its supporters This is the first collection on Cobbett and contains essays by scholars from a variety of disciplines

Romantic Prose Fiction Gerald Ernest Paul Gillespie, Manfred Engel, Bernard Dieterle, 2008 In this volume a team of three dozen international experts presents a fresh picture of literary prose fiction in the Romantic age seen from cross cultural and interdisciplinary perspectives The work treats the appearance of major themes in characteristically Romantic versions the power of Romantic discourse to reshape imaginative writing and a series of crucial reactions to the impact of Romanticism on cultural life down to the present both in Europe and in the New World Through its combination of chapters on thematic generic and discursive features Romantic Prose Fiction achieves a unique theoretical stance by considering the opinions of primary Romantics and their successors not as guiding truths by which to define the permanent meaning of Romanticism but as data of cultural history that shed important light on an evolving civilization

SPECIAL OFFER 30% discount for a complete set order 5 vols The Romanticism series in the Comparative History of Literatures in European Languages is the result of a remarkable international collaboration The editorial team coordinated the efforts of over 100 experts from more than two dozen countries to produce five independently conceived yet interrelated volumes that show not only how Romanticism developed and spread in its principal European homelands and throughout the New World but also the ways in which the affected literatures in reaction to Romanticism have redefined themselves on into Modernism A glance at the index of each volume quickly reveals the extraordinary richness of the series total contents Romantic Irony sets the broader experimental parameters of comparison by concentrating on the myriad expressions of irony as one of the major impulses in the Romantic philosophical and artistic revolution and by combining cross cultural and interdisciplinary studies with special attention also to literatures in less widely diffused language streams Romantic Drama traces creative innovations that deeply altered the understanding of genre at large fed popular imagination through vehicles like the opera and laid the foundations for a modernist theater of the absurd Romantic Poetry demonstrates deep patterns and a sharing of crucial themes of the revolutionary age which underlie the lyrical expression that flourished in so many languages and environments Nonfictional Romantic Prose assists us in coping with the vast array of writings from the personal and intimate sphere to modes of public discourse including Romanticism's own self commentary in theoretical statements on the arts society life the sciences and more Nor are the discursive dimensions of imaginative literature neglected in the closing volume Romantic Prose Fiction where the basic Romantic themes and story types the romance novel novella short story and other narrative forms are considered throughout Europe and the New World This enormous realm is seen not just in terms of Romantic theorizing but in the light of the impact of Romantic ideas and narration on later generations As an aid to readers the introduction to Romantic Prose Fiction explains the relationships among the volumes in the series and carries a listing of their tables of contents in an appendix No other series exists comparable to these volumes which treat the entirety of Romanticism as a cultural happening across the whole breadth of the Old and New Worlds and thus render a complex picture of European spiritual strivings in the late eighteenth and the nineteenth centuries a heritage still very close to our age

Landscape and Englishness ,2006-01-01 In the papers collected in this the first volume of the Spatial Practices series Englishness is reflected in the spaces it occupies or dwells in Broadly influenced by a renewed and growing interest in questions of cultural identity its emergence in Victorian theories and fictions of nationality and the new cultural geography the papers cover a rich variety of spaces and places which have been appropriated for cultural meanings the rural countryside and farmland of the Home Counties in the early nineteenth century as Arcadian idyll in Cobbett as the land to die for in war propaganda and as nostalgia for a unified organic English culture in Lawrence Morton and Priestley's travel writing but also in the Shell Tourist Guides to motoring in rural England English moorland the sacred geographies of monuments in Hardy and others the traditional seaside deconstructed in Martin Parr's photography and the sea as English Victorian imperial territory and its symbolic breezes in Froude's travel writing The English landscape is also a paradigm for the description of other places in D H Lawrence's travel writing or for the colonial territory itself in Rushdie's writing India a displacement of other landscapes This collection of papers examines the assumption that constructions of rural England provide the basis for an understanding of Englishness Rural Rides William Cobbett,1953 Three Revolutions Daniel Sperling,2018-03 Front Cover About Island Press Subscribe Title Page Copyright Page Contents Preface Acknowledgments 1 Will the Transportation Revolutions Improve Our Lives or Make Them Worse 2 Electric Vehicles Approaching the Tipping Point 3 Shared Mobility The Potential of Ridehailing and Pooling 4 Vehicle Automation Our Best Shot at a Transportation Do Over 5 Upgrading Transit for the Twenty First Century 6 Bridging the Gap between Mobility Haves and Have Nots 7 Remaking the Auto Industry 8 The Dark Horse Will China Win the Electric Automated Shared Mobility Race Epilogue Notes About the Contributors Index IP Board of Directors Socialism, Radicalism, and Nostalgia William Stafford,1987-04-24 An account of the flowering of radical social criticism in Britain during the first industrial revolution The Life of William
