Home from Nowhere James Howard Kunstler, 1996 In Home from Nowhere Kunstler explores the growing movement across America to restore the physical dwelling place of our civilization Picking up where The Geography of Nowhere left off Kunstler describes precisely how the American Dream of a little cottage in a natural landscape mutated into today's sprawling automobile suburb in all its ghastliness and why we are going to run shrieking from it to a better world He locates in our national psychology the origin of Americans' traditional dislike for city life and what this implies about our ability to get along with one another Most important Home from Nowhere offers real hope for a nation yearning to live in authentic places worth caring about Kunstler calls for a wholehearted restoration of traditional architecture and town planning based on enduring principles of design He declares that the public realm matters and that it must be honored and embellished in order to make civic life possible He argues that the idea of beauty must be readmitted to intellectual respectability From Seaside on the Florida panhandle a bold experiment to create a radically better form of land development to the reclamation of inner city neighborhoods Kunstler documents the movement to revive American communities and a shared sense of place presenting the crisis of our landscape and townscape that is at the center of the debate about this nation's future BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Improvement Era, 1909
