John Ruskin and the Victorian Woman Writer Anne Longmuir, 2024-08-15 John Ruskin and the Victorian Woman Writer addresses the little considered personal and literary relationships of John Ruskin and four major Victorian women writers Elizabeth Barrett Browning George Eliot Elizabeth Gaskell and Christina Rossetti Drawing on new archival primary research the book provides detailed biographical contexts for each of these relationships before considering the interplay of each woman's writing with Ruskin's Focusing on literature art economics and gender it offers close readings of a selection of each woman's oeuvre alongside Ruskin's prose to demonstrate the affinities and the moments of disagreement between Ruskin and these writers Though primarily aimed at an academic audience the book will also be of interest to general readers with a developed interest in nineteenth century culture It advances readers' understandings of the complex web of influence that existed between Ruskin and women writers in the 1850s and 1860s establishing the opportunities that Ruskin's art theory offered women writers engaged with social questions and the apparent influence of these writers on Ruskin's own emerging political economy By analysing women writers' responses to Ruskin's work and his response to theirs this book complicates and challenges assumptions about Ruskin's supposedly troubled relationship with women

From an Antique Land Anne MacLeod, 2012-11-05 This book looks at visual images as an alternative and undervalued source of evidence for ideas about the Scottish Gaidhealtachd in the period 1700-1880 Illustrated with 100 plates it brings together many little known and previously unrelated images Addressing the textual bias inherent in Scottish historical studies the book examines a broad range of maps plans paintings drawings sketches and printed images arguing that the concept of antiquity was the single most powerful influence driving the visual representation of the Highlands and Islands from 1700 to 1880 and indeed beyond Successive chapters look at archaeological ethnological and geological motives for visualising the Highlands and at the bias in favour of antiquity which resulted from the spread of these intellectual influences into the fine arts The book concludes that the shadow of time which hallmarked visual representations of the region resulted in a preservationist mentality which has had powerful repercussions for approaches to Highland issues down to the present day The book will appeal to historians art historians cultural geographers and the general reader interested in Highland history and culture
