sees Her successes and her failures show just how hard it for an essayist to answer the question of why we should care why are personal essays something we might want to spend time on anyway Her best pieces answer this question we read them because of the richness of perspective they offer In them we see not only a small piece of the world but also the writer looking at the world and looking back at us asking us to spend some time gazing at it all right there with her Open Letters Monthly The light of Helen Garner s piercing observation shines on parents friends books time the weather and herself It s impossible not to trust these engrossing dispatches in their passion and honesty A lifetime of looking and taking note and the hard work of examining the significance of what is seen and felt make this a masterly collection of essays by our greatest non fiction writer Joan London The Books We Loved 2016 Sydney Morning Herald Everywhere I Look like everything in Garner s oeuvre brims with clear eyed insights and crystalline prose No other writer distils quite like she does Jacinta Halloran The Books We Loved 2016 Sydney Morning Herald There are times when Helen Garner is the only author I want to read Restlessly honest with a sharp eye for detail her style is by some rare art at once crystalline and conversational Everywhere I Look is a memorable essay collection Lisa Gorton The Books We Loved 2016 Sydney Morning Herald Reading this collection of essays is like having a long conversation with a clever funny big hearted magnificently acerbic friend It left me astonished all over again by Garner s deft handling of whatever subject she chooses There are pieces here that crackle and fizz with the pleasure she takes in her grandchildren reading a good martini and playing the ukulele Everywhere I Look made me laugh cry and think It is a book to return to again and again with gratitude Best Books of 2016 Radio National The no bullshit preamble rule is sparkingly employed Garner is a natural storyteller her unillusioned eye makes her clarity compulsive What gives the memoir its power as so often in Garner s writing is that she is unsparing in equal measure of her subject and of herself and that she so relishes complicated feelings Everywhere I Look is made singular by Garner s almost reckless honesty and brought alive by her mortal details James Wood New Yorker It s no wonder Garner won a major international award the US$150 000 Yale based Wyndham Campbell Prize for her non fiction writing this year You just have to read this collection of essays diary entries and true stories spanning the past 20 years to recognise her immense talent Best Books of 2016 Australian Financial Review Her writing is elegant and spare the kind of writing that leaves you wrecked at the end It s what makes me feel like I m peeking in her diary when I read the most personal entries in this collection Pop Edit Lit Spanning 15 years this varied collection of short non fiction pieces presents some of Helen Garner s best work Whether it s a dig into her own life or a broader look into societal whims and ills Helen Garner is one of our most skilled essayists Best Books of 2016 Sydney Morning Herald Helen Garner s Everywhere I Look is not quite a memoir but there is a keen personal element to this collection of short nonfiction pieces Garner has just received an outstanding general review from James Wood in the New Yorker It s long overdue Australian Whenever I see Garner I try to act normal but inside some part of me is always squealing IT S HELEN GARNER Her new book Everywhere I Look is masterful like everything she writes Leigh Sales ABC News This book brims with Garner's wit and wisdom Best Books of 2016 Sunday Life Helen Garner's Everywhere I Look is like having a backstage pass into the mind notebooks and creative process of one of Australia's very best writers Andy Griffiths Best Books of 2016 Guardian For years Garner has offered me a model for journalism a careful observer she also tells us how those observations change her as well as the subjects of her gaze Garner reveals her nervous system but also the dubious games and improvisations of journalism Everywhere I Look is a collection of Garner's essays and diary entries from the past 15 years She writes on friendship ageing film and literature In The Journey of the Stamp Animals she writes of rediscovering a children's book that many years earlier had seemed so stuffed with illicit magic Now an adult this long dreamt of book in her hands again she finds the pleasure of having her memory so often fickle and corruptible vindicated The book is as she remembered It's a measure of Garner's talent that this small obscure triumph carries the feeling of profundity Martine McKenzie Murray Best Books of 2016 Guardian If you are looking for a voice to speak to you frankly and with humour and warmth about important things here is the writer for you Well known in Australia as a novelist and screenwriter and reporter Garner is also one of the world's best essayists Here she is thinking about the indignities of how people treat the ageing the pleasures of a ukulele grandfathering and some of her best friends who she sketches with a master's economy of gesture Once you start reading Garner you will wonder what the huge space inside your head she occupies used to be there for John Freeman Best Books of 2016 Literary Hub A collection of essays and journal entries which include everything from a carefully observed portrait of Rosie Batty to The Insults of Age where she details the ways in which older women are disregarded and disrespected but with a confessional twist For me the best parts are the snippets from her diary and particularly her observations of being an irritated but besotted grandmother Garner is one of those generous women writers who is prepared to share with you her less redeeming moments in an act of intimacy and empathy with the reader You won't always agree with Garner's conclusions but how she approaches a question is always interesting Feminist Reading Picks of 2016 Age She covers topics that others are really afraid of that really penetrate the human condition which is something I admire and that has inspired me in my own work Virginia Haussegger Sydney Morning Herald There are very few writers whose personal essays seem to deepen and widen on a second or even a third or fourth read but Helen Garner is one of them Her style is inimitable for while its elegance is undeniable its essence is pre-verbal grounded in her intense and unique ways of looking and seeing Everywhere I Look seems the ideal title for her 2016 essay collection Kerryn Goldsworthy Best Books of 2016 Australian Book Review Pure delight It showcases Garner's distinctive voice and her take on the world around her Her view on things is unpredictable distinctive and original Mark Rubbo Best Books of 2016 Australian Book Review Garner's Everywhere I Look is a generous collection of pitch perfect sketches and reviews each one taking us with her as she looks really looks at the world around her and registers her response to it Susan Sheridan Best Books of 2016 Australian Book Review It made me cry and laugh and think Garner always reminds me of the power of noticing and the impact of sparse writing Leigh Sales This collection of essays by one of Australia's best known authors has the sharp steel edge characteristic of all of Garner's work Observations are cobbled together in an almost conversational way stopping and starting dealing in trivialities and family moments Woven amongst the everyday there are recollections of grief a father's death a friend's funeral the heartbreak of being in love with a married man Garner's gimlet eye is as revealing and clear as ever Sydney Scoop Garner shows us something precious and endangered the nexus of neighbourhoods and neighbourliness the simple weatherboard houses and the plain local shops in the suburbs of Fitzroy and Moonee Ponds In the most ordinary suburb as in the most extraordinary marine wilderness what lies beneath is as fascinating as life on the surface Times Literary Supplement Everywhere I Look is a book full of unexpected moments sudden shafts of light piercing intuition flashes of anger and incidental humour Perth Writers Festival Summer Reading Guide
