Russia's Geoeconomic Strategy for a Greater Eurasia Glenn Diesen, 2017-07-06 Moscow has progressively replaced geopolitics with geoeconomics as power is recognised to derive from the state's ability to establish a privileged position in strategic markets and transportation corridors The objective is to bridge the vast Eurasian continent to reposition Russia from the periphery of Europe and Asia to the centre of a new constellation Moscow's Greater Europe ambition of the previous decades produced a failed Western centric foreign policy culminating in excessive dependence on the West Instead of constructing Gorbachev's Common European Home the leaning to one side approach deprived Russia of the market value and leverage needed to negotiate a more favourable and inclusive Europe Eurasian integration offers Russia the opportunity to address this overreliance on the West by using the Russia's position as a Eurasian state to advance its influence in Europe Offering an account steeped in Russian economic statecraft and power politics this book offers a rare glimpse into the dominant narratives of Russian strategic culture It explains how the country's outlook adjusts to the ongoing realignment towards Asia while engaging in a parallel assessment of Russia's interactions with other significant actors The author offers discussion both on Russian responses and adaptations to the current power transition and the ways in which the economic initiatives promoted by Moscow in its project for a Greater Eurasia reflect the entrepreneurial foreign policy strategy of the country

The Decay of Western Civilisation and Resurgence of Russia Glenn Diesen, 2018-09-03 What explains the rise of populist movements across the West and their affinity towards Russia UKIP's Brexit victory Trump's triumph and the successive elections and referendums in Europe were united by a repudiation of the liberal international order These new political forces envision the struggle to reproduce and advance Western civilisation to be fought along a patriotism cosmopolitanism or nationalism globalism battlefield in which Russia becomes a partner rather than an adversary Armed with neomodernism and geoeconomics Russia has inadvertently taken on a central role in the decay of Western civilisation This book explores the cooperation and competition between Western and Russian civilisation and the rise of anti establishment political forces both contesting the international liberal order and expressing the desire for closer relations with Russia Diesen proposes that Western civilisation has reached a critical juncture as modern society gesellschaft has overwhelmed and exhausted the traditional community gemeinschaft and shows the causes for the decay of Western civilisation and the subsequent impact on cooperation and conflict with Russia The author also considers whether Russia s international conservatism is authentic and can negate the West s decadence or if it is merely a shrewd strategy by a rival civilisation also in decay This volume will be of interest to scholars of international relations political science security studies international political economy and Russian studies IMPERIAL RIVALS SARAH C.M.
