

Magic

Magic can be familiar and magic can be new,
it can be in knowing nothing else
than the love I have for you.

Magic is in your voice, your scent,
the beating of your heart.
Magic is how it whispered to mine
when everything was dark.

Magic isn't make-believe,
it's not in the unknown.
Magic is meeting someone new who has always been your home.

As If By Magic Paula Meehan, 2020-10 This Selected Poems gathers together work published between 1991 and 2016 from collections that have been lauded awarded and widely translated collections that have gained a large audience and a considerable reputation nationally and internationally for one of Ireland's foremost poets and most distinctive voices A great deal has changed in the world in the arc of time covered by these poems and those changes are noted and considered by poems that are remarkable for their clear-eyed witness Meehan's devotion to and mastery of her craft has always been one of the key signatures of her work as has been her immersion in her beloved native Dublin In her Selected Poems we see this and more her uncompromising engagement with the politics of gender and class her love of the natural world and her grief at what threatens it her holistic and visionary impulse to bless the creation to be grateful for her place in it The Magic My Body Becomes Jess Rizkallah, 2017-10-01 Winner 2017 Etel Adnan Poetry Prize In the magic my body becomes Jess Rizkallah seeks a vernacular for the inescapable middle ground of being Arab American a space that she finds at times to be too Arab for America and too American for her Lebanese elders The voice here freely asserts gender sexuality and religious beliefs while at the same time it respects a generational divide the younger's privilege gained by the sacrifice of the older the impossibility of separating what is wholly hers from what is hers second hand In exploring family history civil war trauma and Lebanon itself Rizkallah draws from the spirits of canonical Arab and Middle Eastern poets and the reader feels these spirits exorcising the grief of those who are still alive Throughout there is the body a reclamation and pushback against cultures that simultaneously sexualize and shame women And there is a softness as inherent as rage a resisting of stereotypes that too often speak louder than the complexities of a colonized yet resilient cultural identity Rizkallah's the magic my body becomes is an exciting new book from an exciting young poet a love letter to a people as well as a fist in the air It is the first book in the Etel Adnan Poetry Series publishing first or second books of poetry in English by writers of Arab heritage Useless Magic Florence Welch, 2018-07-05 The perfect gift for fans of Florence the Machine with additional lyrics poems and a new chapter of sermons Songs can be incredibly prophetic like subconscious warnings or messages to myself but I often don't know what I'm trying to say till years later Or a prediction comes true and I couldn't do anything to stop it so it seems like a kind of useless magic Pop's high priestess bares her soul in this candid collection of poems and lyrics Observer A treasure
