Trachtenberg,2012-10-08 Alongside the formal development of Judaism from the eleventh through the sixteenth centuries a robust Jewish folk religion flourished ideas and practices that never met with wholehearted approval by religious leaders yet enjoyed such wide popularity that they could not be altogether excluded from the religion According to Joshua Trachtenberg it is not possible truly to understand the experience and history of the Jewish people without attempting to recover their folklife and beliefs from centuries past Jewish Magic and Superstition is a masterful and utterly fascinating exploration of religious forms that have all but disappeared yet persist in the imagination The volume begins with legends of Jewish sorcery and proceeds to discuss beliefs about the evil eye spirits of the dead powers of good the famous legend of the golem procedures for casting spells the use of gems and amulets how to battle spirits the ritual of circumcision herbal folk remedies fortune telling astrology and the interpretation of dreams First published more than sixty years ago Trachtenberg s study remains the foundational scholarship on magical practices in the Jewish world and offers an understanding of folk beliefs that expressed most eloquently the everyday religion of the Jewish people The Arabian Nights, Volume I ,2015-08-04 Enjoy finish line at the 2018 Belmont Stakes and became just the 13th winner of horse racing's elusive Triple Crown. One of the most charismatic and talented runners in the history of the sport, Justify was also one of its most unlikely champions. The late-blooming chestnut colt made his competitive debut only 111 days prior to that legendary victory. In Justify: 111 Days to Triple Crown Glory, veteran scribe Lenny Shulman, BloodHorse magazine provides an insider account of this Thoroughbred's rise to greatness. Through extensive interviews and first-hand accounts, readers will discover the fascinatingly disparate cast of characters who were crucial to Justify's success, including trainer Bob Baffert, whose innate ability to identify equine talent also produced American Pharoah; Mike Smith, the 52-year-old jockey asserting himself in the miraculous third act of his career; and breeders John and Tanya Gunther, who believed in Justify's ability despite the developmental imperfections that drove buyers away. Packed with riveting action, keen insight, and behind-the-scenes perspectives on quieter figures like silent investors, international stakeholders, and unheralded training staff, Justify is an illuminating look at the modern Thoroughbred industry and an essential story for the ages.
