Mortal Subjects Christina Howells, 2011-12-12 This wide ranging and challenging book explores the relationship between subjectivity and mortality as it is understood by a number of twentieth century French philosophers including Sartre Lacan Levinas and Derrida Making intricate and sometimes unexpected connections Christina Howells draws together the work of prominent thinkers from the fields of phenomenology and existentialism religious thought psychoanalysis and deconstruction focussing in particular on the relations between body and soul love and death desire and passion From Aristotle through to contemporary analytic philosophy and neuroscience the relationship between mind and body psyche and soma consciousness and brain has been persistently recalcitrant to analysis and emotion or passion is the locus where the explanatory gap is most keenly identified This problematic forms the broad backdrop to the work s primary focus on contemporary French philosophy and its attempts to understand the intimate relationship between subjectivity and mortality in the light not only of the death of the classical subject but also of the very real frailty of the subject as it lives on finite desiring embodied open to alterity and always incomplete Ultimately Howells identifies this vulnerability and finitude as the paradoxical strength of the mortal subject and as what permits its transcendence Subtle beautifully written and cogently argued this book will be invaluable for students and scholars interested in contemporary theories of subjectivity as well as for readers intrigued by the perennial connections between love and death Magic White and Black. Copenhaver,2015-09-09 The story of the beliefs and practices called magic starts in ancient Iran Greece and Rome before entering its crucial Christian phase in the Middle Ages Centering on the Renaissance and Marsilio Ficino whose work on magic was the most influential account written in premodern times this groundbreaking book treats magic as a classical tradition with foundations that were distinctly philosophical Besides Ficino the premodern story of magic also features Plotinus Iamblichus Proclus Aquinas Agrippa Pomponazzi Porta Bruno Campanella Descartes Boyle Leibniz and Newton to name only a few of the prominent thinkers discussed in this book Because pictures play a key role in the story of magic this book is richly illustrated The life of Philippus Theophrastus Bombast of Hohenheim, known by the name of Paracelsus, and the substance of his teachings Franz Hartmann,1896
