Inclusive Educational Practice Teresa Grainger, Janet Tod, 2013-10-28 First Published in 2001 An inclusive education is one which seeks to respond to individual differences through an entitlement of all learners to common curricula Armstrong and Barton 2000 This book attempts to respond to this definition of inclusion by examining the principles of the literacy curriculum and a range of pedagogic practices The complex relationships between inclusion literacy and learning are acknowledged and it is argued that quality learning in language and literacy can work towards increased equity and involvement within the classroom community

Supporting Drama And Imaginative Play In The Early Years Hendy, Lesley, 2001-09-01 Written for the wide range of practitioners working with young children this book gives guidance on both the theory and the practical management of drama in the Early Years The relationship between pretend play and the cognitive and affective development of young children is emphasised having much to inform us about the children in our care Major themes are children's need to experience quality talk and their engagement in narrative through story making The authors have a wide range of experience in Early Years teaching and in teacher training Through their work they are aware of the importance of drama for the development of the young child Parents and practitioners are encouraged to explore drama activities and examples are given of fantasy play taken from pre school nursery and infant settings All those involved with Early Years can discover that engaging children in dramatic activity is both a natural form of behaviour and a powerful learning medium Mirror, Mirror J.
