Wolfgang Jacobsen, Werner Sudendorf

Magills Literary Annual 1995s Of 1994:

Diffusion of Innovations Everett M. Rogers, 2012 Getting an innovation adopted is difficult a common problem is increasing the rate of its diffusion Diffusion is the communication of an innovation through certain channels over time among members of a social system It is a communication whose messages are concerned with new ideas it is a process where participants create and share information to achieve a mutual understanding Initial chapters of the book discuss the history of diffusion research some major criticisms of diffusion research and the meta research procedures used in the book This text is the third edition of this well respected work The first edition was published in 1962 and the fifth edition in 2003 The book s theoretical framework relies on the concepts of information and uncertainty Uncertainty is the degree to which alternatives are perceived with respect to an event and the relative probabilities of these alternatives uncertainty implies a lack of predictability and motivates an individual to seek information A technological innovation embodies information thus reducing uncertainty Information affects uncertainty in a situation where a choice exists among alternatives information about a technological innovation can be software information or innovation evaluation information An innovation is an idea practice or object that is perceived as new by an individual or an other unit of adoption innovation presents an individual or organization with a new alternative s or new means of solving problems Whether new alternatives are superior is not precisely known by problem solvers Thus people seek new information Information about new ideas is exchanged through a process of convergence involving interpersonal networks Thus diffusion of innovations is a social process that communicates perceived information about a new idea it produces an alteration in the structure and function of a social system producing social consequences Diffusion has four elements 1 an innovation that is perceived as new 2 communication channels 3 time and 4 a social system members jointly solving to accomplish a common goal Diffusion systems can be centralized or decentralized The innovation development process has five steps passing from recognition of a need through R 2 persuasion to form an attitude 3 decision 4 implementation and 5 confirmation reinforcement or rejection Innovations can also be re invented changed or modified by the user The innovation decision period is the time required to pass through the innovation decision process Rates of adoption of an innovation depend on and can be predicted by how its characteristics are perceived in terms of relative advantage compatibility complexity trialability and observability The diffusion effect is the increasing cumulative pressure from interpersonal networks to adopt or reject an innovation Overadoption is an innovation s adoption when experts suggest its rejection Diffusion networks convey innovation evaluation information to decrease uncertainty about an idea s use The heart of the diffusion process is the modeling and imitation by potential adopters of their network partners who have adopted already Change agents influence innovation decisions in a direction deemed desirable Opinion leadership is the degree individuals influence others attitudes

Terrorists' Target Selection C. Drake, 1998-08-26 The author examines the factors which influence terrorists target selection In particular he looks at the influence of the ideologies strategies and tactics of terrorist groups and describes how these are restricted by the terrorists resources by protective and anti terrorist measures by the society within which the terrorists operate and by the nature of the terrorists and their supporters He concludes that terrorists target selection is often both explicable and logical

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
