Malaysian Foreign Policy in the Mahathir Era, 1981-2003 Karminder Singh Dhillon, 2009 Summary Malaysia's former Prime Minister Mahathir Mohamad is often seen as the sole author of the country's foreign policy. Malaysian Foreign Policy in the Mahathir Era shows that while Mahathir's personality leadership style, political ideology, and brand of nationalism unquestionably had a deep impact, so too did domestic issues and external forces associated with globalization. The book examines seven major foreign policy initiatives of the Mahathir period: Buy British, Last Anti Commonwealth Look East, Third World Spokesmanship, Regional Engagement, Islamic Posturing, and Commercial and Developmental Diplomacy. In discussing these topics, the author explains the significance for foreign policy of communal concerns, the regime's need to maintain its own authority in the face of political and social initiatives some rooted in Islam, and its desire to achieve national development. He also discusses external pressures including Japan's regional designs, Singapore's defense posture, and the growing importance of China for the region. The approach breaks away from the elitist decision-making styles and single factor models usually employed to explain the foreign policy of developing nations and establishes a direct link between domestic politics and foreign policy during the period studied, suggesting that the latter was truly an extension of the former. AsiaPacifiQueer Fran Martin, Peter Jackson, Mark McLelland, Audrey Yue, 2010-10-01 This interdisciplinary collection examines the shaping of local sexual cultures in the Asian Pacific region in order to move beyond definitions and understandings of sexuality that rely on Western assumptions. The diverse studies in AsiaPacifiQueer demonstrate convincingly that in the realm of sexualities, globalization results in creative and cultural admixture rather than a unilateral imposition of the western values and forms of sexual culture. These essays range across the Pacific Rim and encompass a variety of forms of social, cultural, and personal expression, examining sexuality through music, cinema, the media, shifts in popular rhetoric, comics, and magazines, and historical studies. By investigating complex processes of localization, interregional borrowing, and hybridization, the contributors underscore the mutual transformation of gender and sexuality in both Asian Pacific and Western cultures. Contributors are Ronald Baytan, J. Neil C. Garcia, Kam Yip Lo, Lucetta Song Hwee Lim, J. Darren Mackintosh, Claire Maree, Jin Hyung Park, Teri Silvio, Megan Sinnott, Yik Koon Teh, Carmen Ka Man Tong, James Welker, Heather Worth, and Audrey Yue.

The Malay Dilemma Revisited M. Bakri Musa, 1999-08-24 The Malay Dilemma Revisited is a critical and balanced analysis of Malaysia's preferential race policy and its impact on the nation's delicate race dynamics and economy. Unlike America's affirmative action, Malaysia's version is far more aggressive and pervasive and has been remarkably successful in creating a sizable and stable Bumiputera indigenous group middle class. The price tag is significant distortion of free-market dynamics and consequent inefficiency. Perversely, the policy impairs rather than strengthens Bumiputras' ability to compete. In contrast to quotas and other set-aside programs that are the hallmark of the current policy the writer presents an alternative strategy aimed primarily at enhancing Bumiputra competitiveness. The proposed approach would not negatively impact the economy nor interfere with the freemarket. Equally important it would not arouse resentment from other Malaysians. The first objective would be to modernize the nation's archaic educational system to emphasize English mathematics the sciences and technical training. Secondly the influences of religious and royal institutions must be curtailed and the rates of urbanization and population growth reduced. The primary objective is in enhancing competitiveness not on meeting arbitrarily picked numerical goals and targets.

Cultural Politics and Asian Values Michael D. Barr, 2012-11-12 Cultural Politics and Asian Values looks at the political cultural and religious background of East and Southeast Asian societies and those of the West with a view to seeing how they are affecting contemporary national and international politics democratization the international human rights discourse NGOs and globalization. The book surveys the political history and pre history of the Asian values debate taking it up to the era of Megawati Sukarnoputri Chen Shui bian and Kim Dae jung. In chapters on Confucianism Buddhism Islam Christianity and liberalism Barr explores the histories and conceptual essences of the world religions involved in or affected by the debate.

Middle Power Statecraft Jonathan H. Ping, 2017-11-30 Jonathan Ping's volume establishes a unifying theory for the concept of middle power. Middle powers are states which have an innate form of statecraft and perceived power as a result of their size. The book presents hybridization theory as a basis for analysis policy development and prediction of middle power statecraft and perceived power. A prerequisite to the founding of hybridization theory is the new statistical method of definition which identifies sixteen middle powers of Asia and the Pacific. The volume takes a comparative focus on Indonesia and Malaysia to inform and test hybridization theory as well as to provide a historical analysis of Southeast Asia from a statecraft and perceived power perspective. It offers researchers and scholars of international relations and international political economy a theory that can be applied to the practical study of all middle sized states while middle sized states can apply the same theory to enhance their own ability to re create their state.

Malaysia Cheah Boon Kheng, 2002 Focuses on Malaysia's four Prime Ministers as nation builders observing that each one of them when he became Prime Minister was transformed from being the head of the Malay party UMNO to that of the leader of a multi ethnic nation. Each began his political career as an exclusivist Malay nationalist but became an inclusivist.

Malaysia John Hilley, 2001-10 Malaysia is an increasingly important player. Prime Minister Dr Mahathir Mohamad is now Asia's longest serving leader. This work on Malaysian politics offers an analysis of the Mahathir project examining how Mahathir has over 20 years translated the basis of the ruling bloc's legitimacy from one of coercive domination and ethnic card playing into a more consensual form of hegemonic support. It argues that Mahathir has made considerable progress in building consent. Since the 1997 economic crisis and purging of Mahathir's former deputy Anwar Ibrahim new problems have appeared within the ruling Barisan Nasional coalition and its leading party the United Malays National Organization UMNO. As Mahathir seeks to rebuild ideological support other parties have mounted a counter hegemonic alternative to the prevailing project This book provides an understanding of these contending forces and the new engagement of ideas taking place within Malaysia's changing political landscape The Political Economy of the Asian Financial Crisis Stephan Haggard, 2010-10-01 The Asian crisis has sparked a thoroughgoing reappraisal of current international financial norms the policy prescriptions of the International Monetary Fund and the adequacy of the existing financial architecture To draw proper policy conclusions from the crisis it is necessary to understand exactly what happened and why from both a political and an economic perspective In this study renowned political scientist Stephan Haggard examines the political aspects of the crisis in the countries most affected Korea Thailand Malaysia and Indonesia Haggard focuses on the political economy of the crisis emphasizing the longer run problems of moral hazard and corruption as well as the politics of crisis management and the political fallout that ensued He looks at the degree to which each government has rewoven the social safety net and discusses corporate and financial restructuring and greater transparency in business government relations Professor Haggard provides a counterpoint to the analysis by examining why Singapore Taiwan and the Philippines escaped financial calamity Governance and Public Sector Reform in Asia Anthony Cheung, Ian Scott, 2003-08-29 Based on new field research this book assesses the current state of governance and public sector reforms in eleven Asian countries and jurisdictions especially in the wake of the recent regional financial crisis that seriously affected some of them It analyses reform efforts comparatively against a backdrop of governance problems and seeks to establish whether these efforts represent a substantive shift in attitudes towards reform or whether they serve simply to reinforce existing practices The authors explore a number of important themes that are central to governance and public sector reform issues These include the role of the state the success or failure of organizational reforms corruption the applicability of the new public management model in the Asian context and the governance values and reform models promoted by regional and international agencies Personalized Politics In-Won Hwang, 2003-10-13 This book is an innovative analysis of regime maintenance and transformation in Malaysia It goes beyond familiar approaches centred on communal politics or the corporate workings of Malaysia Inc to stress the importance of power maintenance tracing a path from consociational bargaining to authoritarian UMNO dominance to Dr Mahathir's personal dominance Development Models in Muslim Contexts Robert Springborg, 2009-09-30 Recent discussions of the Chinese economic development model the emergence of an alternative Muslim model over the past quarter century and the faltering globalisation of the Washington Consensus all point to the need to investigate more systematically the nature of these models and their competitive attractions This is especially the case in the Muslim world which both spans different economic and geographic categories and is itself the progenitor of a development model The Chinese model has attracted the greatest attention in step with that country's phenomenal growth and therefore provides the primary focus for this book This volume examines the characteristics of this model and its reception in two major regions of the world Africa and Latin America It also investigates the current competition over development models across Muslim contexts The question of which model or models if any will guide development in Muslim majority countries is vital not only for them but for the world as a whole This is the first political economy study to address this vital question as well as the closely related issue of the centrality of governance to development Malaysian Maverick B. Wain, 2009-11-30 Mahathir Mohamad turned Malaysia into one of the developing world's most successful economies He adopted pragmatic economic policies alongside repressive political measures and showed that Islam was compatible with representative government and modernization He emerged as a Third World champion and Islamic spokesman by standing up to the West Beyond Mahathir Khoo Boo Teik, 2003-11 The planned retirement in October 2003 of Dr Mahathir Mohamad Prime Minister of Malaysia since July 1981 has occasioned many instant assessments of the Mahathir legacy In contrast this book takes a hard look at the long term social transformation behind the dramatic politics of the Mahathir era It ranges over issues of political economy ideology interethnic relations the challenge of Islam and the complexities of leadership transition Khoo Boo Teik explains how the Mahathir regime's mid 1990s Asian values triumphalism was replaced by the turn of the millennium pessimism and the spectre of a second Malay dilemma He aims to bring to life Mahathir's predicaments the contradictions in Anwar Ibrahim's chequered career and the cultural imperatives behind the historic rise of the Alternative Front's rainbow coalition The result is an informed lay reader's guide to the momentous disturbing and even inspiring events which overturned easy assumptions about ethnic politics in Malaysia tested the regime's economic management revealed the vitality of cultural revolt and raised fundamental questions about the directions of the country post Mahathir From British to Bumiputera Rule Shamsul A B, 1986 Based on two years of intensive fieldwork this detailed community study breaks new ground Combining anthropological and historical disciplines it deals with village politics amongst rural Malays growing oil palm and rubber This study traces the continuing influence of the colonial and post colonial state policies on contemporary rural development It shows that village political cleavages are not just the result of modern electoral practices introduced after World War II but are responses to politico economic events at the national and even international levels It examines not only inter party rivalry between the United Malays National Organization UMNO and Parti Islam SeMalaysia PAS but also the intra party politics of both organizations at the local level Privatization in Malaysia Jeff Tan, 2007-10-02 This book explores privatization in Malaysia focusing in particular on how political constraints resulted in the failure of four major privatizations the national sewerage company IWK Kuala Lumpur Light Rail Transit LRT national airline MAS and national car company Proton Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Malaysia Meredith Weiss, 2014-10-17 The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Malaysia offers a broad analytical survey of Malaysia It provides a comprehensive survey of significant topics in Malaysian politics economy and society today focussing on issues institutions and trends It is divided into four thematic sections which are all introduced by the editor Domestic politics Economics Social policy and social development International relations and security The volume brings together an international team of experts an interdisciplinary mix of forty contributors from Malaysia and elsewhere including many of the leading specialists on Malaysian affairs The chapters included in the volume form an accessible and fascinating window onto contemporary Malaysia They each introduce a different aspect of the Malaysian polity economy or society offering both historical perspective and a current assessment or investigation Designed for general readers and specialists alike chapters may be read individually each stands on its own or conjointly Up to date interdisciplinary and academically rigorous the Handbook will be of interest to students academics policymakers and others in search of reliable information on Malaysian politics economics and society

Modern Malaysia in the Global Economy Colin

Barlow,2001-01-01 The authors review the direction of politics after Prime Minister Mahathir as well as exploring Malaysia s foreign education and labour policies They canvass the idea of a new Malay better adapted to modern society investigate the position of the Chinese examine the struggle for women s rights within the religious framework of Islam and discuss the contributions of Malaysian NGOs to ongoing changes They finally draw together crucial issues facing Malaysia in the 21st century
