40 Questions About the Historical Jesus C. Marvin Pate, 2015-04-27

Answers to critical questions regarding the study of the Jesus of history and the Christ of faith The conclusions of the quest for the historical Jesus which casts the majority of Christ's life as a myth are a stark contrast to the orthodox view of Christ as presented in the Bible Pate demonstrates that a critical analysis of the gospel text along with historical and cultural methods of investigation actually point toward an orthodox view of Christ This work argues that the canonical Gospels are the most trustworthy information we have about the gospel writers as well as the life and ministry of Jesus including his death visit to hades resurrection and ascension Readers will be encouraged by the reliability of the Gospel writers the reality of Jesus humanity and deity and the inferiority of the apocryphal gospels

Japanese Religions, 1995

The Oxford Handbook of New Religious Movements James R. Lewis, Inga Bårdsen Tøllefsen, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of New Religious Movements both covers the current state of the field and breaks new ground Its contributors drawn from both sociology and religious studies are leading figures in the study of NRMs

Japanese Religions and Globalization Ugo Dessì, 2013 This book analyzes the variety of ways through which Japanese religions Buddhism Shint and new religious movements contribute to the dynamics of accelerated globalization in recent decades It looks at how Japanese religions provide material to cultural global flows thus acting as carriers of globalization and how they respond to these flows by shaping new global identities The book highlights how paradoxically these processes of religious hybridization may be closely intertwined with the promotion of cultural chauvinism It shows how on the one hand religion in Japan is engaged in border negotiation with global subsystems such as politics secular education and science and how on the other hand it tries to find new legitimation by addressing pressing global problems such as war the environmental crisis and economic disparities left unsolved by the dominant subsystems A significant contribution to advancing an understanding of modern Japanese religious life this book is of interest to academics working in the fields of Japanese Studies Asian history and religion and the sociology of religion

Dismantling the East-West Dichotomy Joy Hendry, Heung Wah Wong, 2006-09-27 It has been customary in the appraisal of the different approaches to the study of Japan anthropology to invoke an East West dichotomy positing hegemonic Western systems of thought against a more authentic Eastern alternative Top scholars in the field of Japan anthropology examine challenge and attempt to move beyond the notion of an East West divide in the study of Japan anthropology They discuss specific fieldwork and ethnographic issues the place of the person within the context of the dichotomy and regional perspectives on the issue Articulating the influence of the East West divide in other disciplines including museum studies religion business and social ecology the book attempts to look towards a new anthropology that transcends the limitations of a simplistic East West opposition taking into account the wealth of regional and global perspectives that are exhibited by contemporary scholarship on Japan anthropology In concluding if the progress achieved in anthropological work on Japan can provide a model for good practice beyond this regional specialization this timely and important book provides a valuable examination of the current state of the academic study of Japan anthropology

Making Spirits Diana Espirito Santo, Nico Tassi, 2013-07-15 The analysis of religion has often placed an emphasis on beliefs and ideologies prioritizing these elements over those of the material world Through the ethnographic analysis of a variety of contemporary religious practices Making Spirits questions the presumed separation of spirit and matter and sheds light on the dynamics between spiritual and material domains By examining the cultural contexts in which material culture is central to the creation and experience of religion and belief this volume analyses the different ways in which the concepts of the material and spiritual worlds intersect interact and inform each other in the reproduction of religious rites Using examples such as spirit mediums fetishes and ritual objects across a variety of cultures such as Latin America Japan and Central Africa Nico Tassi and Diana Espirito Santo offer insights that challenge accepted categories in the study of religion making this book important for scholars of comparative religion anthropology and sociology
