Contemporary Germany and the Nazi Legacy C. Pearce, 2007-11-09 This book examines a range of public debates on the Nazi legacy in Germany since Schröder's SPD Green coalition came to power in 1998. A central theme is the dialectic of normality whereby references to Nazi past impact upon present normality. The book is a valuable resource for students of contemporary German politics, history and culture.

Kindertransport memory quilt Hanus J. Grosz, Kirsten Grosz, 2001 The Kindertransport Quilts are a form of folk art which allows multiple artists each with their own artistic expression to produce a work with a unifying theme. Each square expresses its creator's view of the Kindertransport experience, pictures of the past, fears and nightmares, memorials to lost family. They express traumatic childhood experiences as recalled with the perspective of maturity. We are grateful to Kirsten Grosz for having produced these quilts, touching and artistic reminders of the Holocaust.

Victims and Perpetrators: 1933-1945 Laurel Cohen-Pfister, Dagmar Wienroeder-Skinner, 2012-03-12 This volume examines the politics of history and memory in Germany today through a review and analysis of seminal developments in the current discourse on 1933-1945. An interdisciplinary work, this book examines questions of representing the past from the perspective of literary studies, social psychology, film studies, history and cultural studies. Themes include transgenerational memory and remembrance, the air war and German literature, commemoration and silences, transnational reconciliation and historical consciousness in the German present. The collected essays make clear that as the current discourse contributes toward an historically informed, differentiated understanding of individuals' roles in the Third Reich and World War Two, victim and perpetrator identities cannot be defined as exclusive from one another. The discourse emphasizes personal over collective experience and answers questions of responsibility and guilt on the individual level.

The Nazi Genocide of the Roma Anton Weiss-Wendt, 2013-06-01 Using the framework of genocide, this volume analyzes the patterns of persecution of the Roma in Nazi-dominated Europe. Detailed case studies of France, Austria, Romania, Croatia, Ukraine and Russia generate a critical mass of evidence that indicates criminal intent on the part of the Nazi regime to destroy the Roma as a distinct group. Other chapters examine the failure of the West German State to deliver justice, the Romani collective memory of the genocide and the current political and historical debates. As this revealing volume shows, however inconsistent or geographically limited over time, the mass murder acquired a systematic character and came to include ever larger segments of the Romani population regardless of the social status of individual members of the community.

The Queer Art of History Jennifer V. Evans, 2023-03-17 In The Queer Art of History, Jennifer V. Evans examines postwar and contemporary German history to broadly argue for a practice of queer history that moves beyond bounded concepts and narratives of identity. Drawing on Black feminism, queer of color critique and trans studies, Evans points out that although many rights for LGBTQI people have been gained in Germany, those rights have not been enjoyed equally. There remain fundamental struggles around whose bodies, behaviors and communities belong. Evans uses kinship as an analytic category to identify the fraught and productive ways that Germans have confronted race gender nonconformity and sexuality in social movements art and everyday life Evans shows how kinship illuminates the work of solidarity and intersectional organizing across difference and offers an openness to forms of contemporary and historical queerness that may escape the archive's confines Through forms of kinship queer and trans people test out new possibilities for citizenship love and public and family life in postwar Germany in ways that question claims about liberal democracy the social contract and the place of identity in rights based discourses Seelenarbeit an Deutschland, 2016-08-09 The last decade has undoubtedly been the most controversial in the long literary career of Martin Walser This volume presents a review of this career going far beyond short lived arguments to present an insightful overview of much of his work It considers not only major aspects of his writing covering both his literary beginnings and the most recent works but also different previously neglected features of his persona and his writing namely his activity as a university teacher and his art criticism In addition fruitful comparisons are made with other writers such as Proust Grass and Uwe Johnson At the same time recent controversies are also considered with major attention being paid to Walser's public speeches and those works of fiction which have been seen by some as demanding the end of German self recriminations over the Nazi past This volume is unique in that much space is devoted to both sides of the argument It will provide stimulating reading to all those interested in Germany and German literature Six Million Paper Clips Dagmar Schroeder-Hildebrand, 2004-01-01 The Making Of A Children's Holocaust Memorial General Jewish Interest Holocaust Memorial Berlin Hanno Rauterberg, Hlne Binet, Eisenman Architects, 2005 Re-presenting the Shoah for the 21st Century Ronit Lentin, 2004-02-01 Despite Adorno's famous dictum the memory of the Shoah features prominently in the cultural legacy of the 20th century and beyond It has led to a proliferation of works of representation and re memorialization which have brought in their wake concerns about a holocaust industry and banalization This volume sheds fresh light on some of the issues such as the question of silence and denial of the formation of contemporary identities German East European Jewish or Israeli the consequences of the legacy of the Shoah for survivors and for the second generation and the political ideological and professional implications of Shoah historiography One of the conclusions to be drawn from this volume is that the Auschwitz code invoked in relation to all unspeakable catastrophes has impoverished our vocabulary it does not help us remember the Shoah and its victims but rather erases that memory The New Berlin Karen E. Till, An innovative exploration of German memory national identity and modernity embodied in the public spaces of the new capital

Disputed Memory Tea Sindbæk Andersen, Barbara Törnquist-Plewa, 2016-06-20 The world wars genocides and extremist ideologies of the 20th century are remembered very differently across Central Eastern and Southeastern Europe resulting sometimes in fierce memory disputes This book investigates the complexity and contention of the layers of memory of the troubled 20th century in the region Written by an international group of scholars from a diversity of disciplines the chapters approach memory disputes in methodologically innovative ways studying representations and negotiations of disputed pasts in different media including monuments museum exhibitions individual and political discourse and electronic social media Analyzing memory disputes in various local national and transnational contexts the chapters demonstrate the political power and social impact of painful and disputed memories The book brings new insights into current memory disputes in Central Eastern and Southeastern Europe It contributes to the understanding of processes of memory transmission and negotiation across borders and cultures in Europe emphasizing the interconnectedness of memory with emotions mediation and politics

Memorials in Berlin and Buenos Aires Brigitte Sion, 2014-12-01 This book examines the conflicting performances that take place at the Holocaust Memorial in Berlin and the Memorial to the Victims of State Terror in Buenos Aires Sion offers an interdisciplinary model for analyzing sites of memory their purpose failure and success and their part in a transnational circuit of remembrance practices      Politics and Culture in Germany and Austria Today Frauke Matthes, Dora

Osborne, Katya Krylova, Myrto Aspioti, 2021 Examines the heightened role of politics in contemporary German and Austrian cultural productions and institutions and what it means for German Studies      Yad Vashem Moshe Safdie, Joan

Ockman, 2006-10-20 175 meters long the museum bores like a triangular beam through the Har Hazikaron or Mount of Remembrance It juts out from the hillside at either end allowing visitors to enter and look out This spectacular architecture is the setting for a lavish and impressive exhibition commemorating the Holocaust The structure is the culmination of Moshe Safdie's work in Israel The architect a student of Louis Kahn who began his career with the sensational residential complex Habitat 67 at the 1967 Montreal World's Fair maintains offices in Boston Toronto and Jerusalem The museum its architecture and its series of interior spaces with their carefully designed exhibition facilities are documented in an in-depth photo essay and illustrated with texts and plans      Spaces of Danger Heather Merrill, Lisa M. Hoffman, 2015-12-01 These twelve original essays by geographers and anthropologists offer a deep critical understanding of Allan Pred's pathbreaking and eclectic cultural Marxist approach with a focus on his concept of situated ignorance the production and reproduction of power and inequality by regimes of truth through strategically deployed misinformation diversions and silences As the essays expose the cultural and material circumstances in which situated ignorance persists they also add a previously underexplored spatial dimension to Walter Benjamin's idea of moments of danger The volume invokes the aftermath of the July 2011 attacks by far right activist Anders Breivik in Norway who ambushed a Labor Party youth gathering and bombed a government building killing and injuring many Breivik had publicly and forthrightly declared war against an array of liberal attitudes he saw threatening Western civilization However as politicians and journalists interpreted these events for mass consumption a narrative quickly emerged that painted Breivik as a lone madman and steered the discourse away from analysis of the resurgent right wing racism and nationalisms in which he was immersed The Breivik case is merely one of the most visible recent examples say editors Heather Merrill and Lisa Hoffman of the unchallenged production of knowledge in the public sphere In essays that range widely in topic and setting for example brownfield development in China a

Holocaust memorial in Germany an art gallery exhibit in South Africa this volume peels back layers of situated practices and their associated meaning and power relations Spaces of Danger offers analytical and conceptual tools of a Predian approach to interrogate the taken for granted and make visible and legible that which is silenced Pocket Rough Guide Berlin, 2012-04-12 The Pocket Rough Guide Berlin is your essential guide to one of Europe's most exciting cities covering all the key sights hotels restaurants shops and bars you need to know about The easy to use Pocket Rough Guide Berlin includes brand new itineraries and a Best of Berlin section picking out the highlights you won't want to miss plus detailed listings to guide you from Berlin's dynamic architecture and world famous clubs to cosy corner cafés and relaxed beer gardens Whether you have a few days or a week to fill The Pocket Rough Guide Berlin will help you make the most of your trip Now available in ePub format Iterationen Sabine Lucia Müller, Anja Schwarz, 2008 History, Memory and Public Life Anna Maerker, Simon Sleight, Adam Sutcliffe, 2018-07-06 History Memory and Public Life introduces readers to key themes in the study of historical memory and its significance by considering the role of historical expertise and understanding in contemporary public reflection on the past Divided into two parts the book addresses both the theoretical and applied aspects of historical memory studies Approaches to history and memory introduces key methodological and theoretical issues within the field such as postcolonialism sites of memory myths of national origins and questions raised by memorialisation and museum presentation Difficult pasts looks at history and memory in practice through a range of case studies on contested complex or traumatic memories including the Northern Ireland Troubles post apartheid South Africa and the Holocaust Examining the intersection between history and memory from a wide range of perspectives and supported by guidance on further reading and online resources this book is ideal for students of history as well as those working within the broad interdisciplinary field of memory studies Visitors to the House of Memory Victoria Bishop Kendzia, 2017-12-29 As one of the most visited museums in Germany's capital city the Jewish Museum Berlin is a key site for understanding not only German Jewish history but also German identity in an era of unprecedented ethnic and religious diversity Visitors to the House of Memory is an intimate exploration of how young Berliners experience the Museum How do modern students relate to the museum's evocative architecture its cultural political context and its narrative of Jewish history By accompanying a range of high school history students before during and after their visits to the museum this book offers an illuminating exploration of political education affect remembrance and belonging Sacred Places of a Lifetime National Geographic, 2008 A listing of five hundred sites new and old famous and unknown that have been used to connect humanity with its gods
