The Changeover Margaret Mahy, 2018-05-03 A brand new edition of the Carnegie Medal winning THE CHANGEOVER written by internationally bestselling author Margaret Mahy. A gorgeous, strange, unforgettable story I more than loved it. Laini Taylor author of Daughter of Smoke and Bone. A clammy hand pressed Laura down onto her knees beside Jacko's bed. It was the hand of terror, nothing less. It was a warning. Laura felt it when she looked in the mirror that morning. There had been others the day her father left home, the day she met Sorensen, the boy with the strange silver eyes. But nothing had prepared Laura for the horror of today. And now her little brother Jacko was fighting for his life after being sucked dry of his youth by the sinister Carmody Braque. Laura knows there is only one way to save Jacko: she must join Sorensen and use his supernatural powers to change over if there is to be any hope for her little brother. An unforgettable supernatural romance.

The Pain of Unbelonging Sheila Collingwood-Whittick, 2007 Beyond the obvious and enduring socio-economic ravages it unleashed on indigenous cultures, white settler colonization in Australasia also inflicted profound damage on the collective psyche of both of the communities that inhabited the contested space of the colonial world. The acute sense of alienation that colonization initially provoked in the colonized and colonizing populations of Australia and New Zealand has, recent studies indicate, developed into an endemic existential pathology. Evidence of the psychological fallout from the trauma of geographical deracination, cultural disorientation and ontological destabilization can be found not only in the state of anomie and self-destructive patterns of behaviour that now characterize the lives of indigenous Australian and Maori peoples but also in the perpetually faltering identity discourse and cultural rootlessness of the present descendants of the countries' Anglo-Celtic settlers. It is with the literary expression of this persistent condition of alienation that the essays gathered in the present volume are concerned. Covering a heterogeneous selection of contemporary Australasian literature, what these critical studies convincingly demonstrate is that more than two hundred years after the process of colonisation was set in motion, the experience that Germaine Greer has dubbed the pain of unbelonging continues unabated, constituting a dominant thematic concern in the writing produced today by Australian and New Zealand authors.

The Catalogue of the Universe Margaret Mahy, 2002 This stunning repackaging of an intense teen romance introduces confident Angela and intellectual Tycho, who seem an unlikely pair. They share a passion for deciphering the universe outside their own personal struggles. To Angela and Tycho, it seems the universe can be ordered; their own lives cannot. As their family struggles swirl around them they are suddenly desperate to discover where they fit in Breath and Smoke Jennifer Loughmiller-Cardinal, Keith Eppich, John E. Staller, 2019-11 Breath and Smoke explores the uses of tobacco among the Maya of Central America revealing tobacco as a key topic in pre Columbian art iconography and hieroglyphics New Zealand Books in Print ,1988 Hermetic Magic Stephen Flowers, 1995-01-15 The Egyptians worshipped their own gods with particular rituals This translation of The Magical Papyrus of Abaris shows modern seekers how to perform their own ritual celebrations of life Children's Books of the Year ,1987
