Main Economic Indicators ,2003 Reducing Inequalities Rémi Genevey,R. K. Pachauri,Laurence Tubiana,2013-01-01 The reduction of inequalities within and between countries stands as a policy goal and deserves to take centre stage in the design of the Sustainable Development Goals agreed during the Rio 20 Summit in 2012 The 2013 edition of A Planet for Life represents a unique international initiative grounded on conceptual and strategic thinking and most importantly empirical experiments conducted on five continents and touching on multiple realities This unprecedented collection of works proposes a solid empirical approach rather than an ideological one to inform future debate The case studies collected in this volume demonstrate the complexity of the new systems required to accommodate each country s specific economic political and cultural realities These systems combine technical financial legal fiscal and organizational elements with a great deal of applied expertise and are articulated within a clear well understood growth and job generating development strategy Inequality reduction does not occur by decree neither does it automatically arise through economic growth nor through policies that equalize incomes downward via ill conceived fiscal policies Inequality reduction involves a collaborative effort that must motivate all concerned parties one that constitutes a genuine political and social innovation and one that often runs counter to prevailing political and economic forces Sustainable Materials Management Making

Eddy Maloka, 1999 A substantial work on the question of unity of African states containing essays from twenty four scholars from universities throughout Africa The papers revolve around four main subjects The first examines the colonial origins of the African state neo colonial constraints on post colonial regimes and the nature of the post colonial political elite The second subject under discussion is regional integration as a vehicle for the realisation of the African Union Dani Wadaba Nabudere contributes an overview chapter on African unity in historical perspective and many contributors consider the complicating phenomenon of globalisation alongside regional integration The next part examines the extent to which problems of peace and security impact upon the integration project and the effectiveness of existing regional and continental conflict prevention and resolution mechanisms Xavier Renou analyses the present roles of France and America on the continent as an obstacle to peace and unity in a chapter entitled The New Franco American Cold War Finally three contributors address the need for an approach to African unity for development better grounded in civil society and to a lesser extent centred around the role of the state

Accounting for Culture Caroline Andrew, Monica Gattinger, M. Sharon Jeannotte, Will Straw, 2005-03-30 Many scholars practitioners and policy makers in the cultural sector argue that Canadian cultural policy is at a crossroads that the environment for cultural policy making has evolved substantially and that traditional rationales for state intervention no longer apply The concept of cultural citizenship is a relative newcomer to the cultural policy landscape and offers a potentially compelling alternative rationale for government intervention in the cultural sector Likewise the articulation and use of cultural indicators and of governance concepts are also new arrivals emerging as potentially powerful tools for policy and program development Accounting for Culture is a unique collection of essays from leading Canadian and international scholars that critically examines cultural citizenship cultural indicators and governance in the context of evolving cultural practices and cultural policy making It will be of great interest to scholars of cultural policy communications cultural studies and public administration alike

Data protection in the context of covid-19. A short (hi)story of tracing applications Elise Poillot, Gabriele Lenzini, Giorgio Resta, Vincenzo Zeno-Zencovich, 2021-11-13 The volume presents the results of a research project named Legafight funded by the Luxembourg Fond National de la Recherche in order to verify if and how digital tracing applications could be implemented in the Grand Duchy in order to counter and abate the Covid 19 pandemic This inevitably brought to a deep comparative overview of the various existing various models starting from that of the European Union and those put into practice by Belgium France Germany and Italy with attention also to some Anglo Saxon approaches the UK and Australia Not surprisingly the main issue which had to be tackled was that of the protection of the personal data collected through the tracing applications their use by public health authorities and the trust laid in tracing procedures by citizens Over the last 18 months tracing apps have registered a rise a fall and a sudden rebirth as mediums devoted not so much to collect data but rather to distribute real time information which should allow informed decisions and be used as repositories of health certifications DOI 10 13134 979 12 5977 055 4
