Chinese Grand Strategy in the 21st Century Thomas M. Kane, Noah Falkovich, 2023-10-20 This book examines the state of China's grand strategy in the 21st century including political military and economic factors Over the past two decades the People's Republic of China PRC has attained the second highest gross domestic product in the world taken a leadership role in East Asian regional organisations and substantially improved its military capabilities Each of these developments and many others like them have attracted attention from scholars journalists and policymakers Less frequently acknowledged but perhaps of greater significance is the impressive congruence of Beijing's accomplishments This book highlights how the PRC's successes support one another and pave the way for future accomplishments and how these successes seem to be achieved in an unusually coherent and purposeful way As Beijing's relations with the rest of the world continue to evolve with events ranging from the ongoing global economic crisis to the turbulence in China's own stock market which may bring the PRC's government under pressure to re order its priorities this book assesses China's grand strategy and long term approach to national policy It identifies the political military and economic instruments it is likely to use the key challenges which it will face and explores the implications for the global community This book will be of great interest to students of Chinese politics foreign policy strategic studies international security and IR in general The views expressed are those of the authors and do not reflect the official guidance or position of the U S Government the Department of Defense DoD the U S Air Force or the U

S Space Force The appearance of external hyperlinks does not constitute endorsement by the DoD of the linked websites or the information products or services contained therein The DoD does not exercise any editorial security or other control over the information you may find at these locations The Changing Dimensions of Security Dr. Suresh R,2015-10-01 The end of cold war and the on going globalization process along with the proliferation of non traditional threat to security of the nations led to multilateralism in international relations Though the great powers are not ready to accept the new developments the post cold war events such as threat from non state actors to the security of nation the global economic slowdown and global climate change compelled even the most militarily powerful nation to seek multilateral approach to address these trans border menaces The global movements towards democratization and protection and promotion of human rights supported by ICT once again brought individuals rights and security into focal point It appears that even if nations are secure people living there may not be secure The civil wars taken place in some nation states to protect the rights of multi ethnic groups or the demand for right to self determinations of people are examples of such a situation In this context security means people s security and international efforts are required to ensure people s security from any threat emanates from within or outside the nation states Thus human security assumes great significance in the post cold war era of profoundly interdependent global system There is a blurred boundary between national security and international security on the one hand and the national security and human security on the other hand The initiative taken by the new government at the federal level towards good neighbourhood and better relation with great powers along with focusing more on human security issues appears to be policy in the right direction Again the shift from a land centric security paradigm to maritime security and coastal security are also visible in recent times The book deals with the changing dimensions of security at the theoretical level and a wide spectrum of security issues that India is confronted with and also certain policy options In the theoretical section the strategic doctrine of India is well reviewed and policy options are also explored It covers areas such as biological perspective of security human security perspective energy security and maritime security In addition it also examines some of the bilateral security issues and concerns with neighbouring countries
