Mainstreaming Equality In The European Union:

Mainstreaming Equality in the European Union Teresa Rees, 2006-06-19 Mainstreaming Equality in the European Union provides a critical overview and evaluation of the potential role of the EU in perpetuating or breaking down gender segregation in the EU labour force Teresa Rees draws upon feminist theoretical frameworks in assessing Equal Opportunities policies and the role of training in the labour market The same economic imperatives which put women's training on the agenda have heightened interest in designing training which attracts women into mainstream provision Mainstreaming Equality in the European Union addresses the urgent need for academics education and training providers as well as policy makers to be aware of current thinking at EU level on training policy

Mainstreaming Equality in the European Union Teresa L. Rees, 1998 Focuses on attempts made at the European Union level to incorporate equal opportunities into training policies as a means to end gender segregation in the labour force In particular discusses the LEONARDO DA VINCI training programme

Racism and Equality in the European Union Mark Bell, 2008 Mark Bell explores the effect of anti racism policies in topical areas of EU law and policy including employment social inclusion immigration and the criminal law

Gender Mainstreaming in the EU Sonia Mazey, 2001 In 1996 the European Union formally adopted the equality strategy of gender mainstreaming This strategy seeks to achieve equality between men and women by integrating a gender perspective into all public policies in order to ensure that the often different needs of women and men are taken into account This dossier examines the impact of gender mainstreaming upon EU policy making procedures and key EU policies The discussion is divided into three parts Part One clarifies the concept of gender mainstreaming highlighting the theoretical justification for and policy making implications of this approach Part Two explains how and why gender mainstreaming came to be adopted by the EU Part Three evaluates the impact of gender mainstreaming upon the EU policy making process up to the time of publication

Mainstreaming Politics Carol Lee Bacchi, Carol Bacchi, Joan Eveline, 2010 This book offers an innovative rethinking of policy approaches to gender equality and of the process of social change It brings several new chapters together with a series of previously published articles to reflect on these topics A particular focus is gender mainstreaming a relatively recent development in equality policy in many industrialised and some industrialising countries as well as in large international organisations such as the World Bank the International Monetary Fund and the International Labour Organization The book draws upon poststructuralist organisation and policy theory to argue that it is impossible to script reform initiatives such as gender mainstreaming As an alternative it recommends thinking about such policy developments as fields of contestation shaped by on the ground political deliberations and practices including the discursive practices that produce specific ways of understanding the problem of gender inequality In addition to the new chapters the editors Bacchi and Eveline produce brief introductions for each chapter tracing the development of their ideas over four years Through these commentaries the book provides exciting insights into the complex processes of collaboration and theory generation Mainstreaming Politics is a rich resource for both practitioners in the field and for theorists In particular it will appeal to those interested in public policy public administration organisation studies sociology comparative politics and international studies Feminist Framing of Europeanisation Rahime Süleymanoğlu-Kürüm, F. Melis Cin, 2021-10-14 Bridging European and gender studies this volume deserves a great welcome to the literature It not only offers a feminist reading of Europeanisation in general but also discusses the process of Europeanisation and de Europeanisation of Turkey with regard to changes in gender policy The book demonstrates that the EU is the leading body to advocate gender equality and also proves that it is a firm gender actor compared to other international organisations However as the volume also shows the EU is not yet a normative gender actor due to the absence of a feminist rationale in promoting gender equality abroad The contributions offer significant insights into EU Turkey relations from a gender studies perspective Ayhan Kaya Professor of Politics and Jean Monnet Chair for European Politics of Interculturalism Istanbul Bilgi University Turkey S leymano lu K r m and Cin have curated a timely volume that applies a feminist lens to the well known Europeanisation framework Using the case of Turkey the book extends the focus of European studies scholarship that analyses the adaptation of non member states to EU policies and practices to setting a new feminist agenda in the adaptation to the EU Beyond the new insights offered on the Turkish case study the volume provides a powerful critique and highlights the limits of the EU s reach outside of its current border Toni Haastrup Senior Lecturer in International Politics University of Stirling UK This pioneering volume which extends feminist perspectives to the study of EU toward candidate countries is a must read for scholars of EU integration and gender studies Bahar Rumelili Professor and Jean Monnet Chair at the Department of International Relations Koc University Turkey This book explores the Europeanisation of gender policies and addresses some of the challenges of the debates surrounding the EU s impact on domestic politics Using Turkey as a case study it illustrates that Europeanisation needs a feminist agenda and perspective The first part of the book critically engages with the literature on Europeanisation the EU s gender policies and gender policymaking and the interaction between Europeanisation and gender policies to argue that the Europeanisation framework falls short in devising sustainable gender policies due to a lack of feminist rationale and theory Subsequently the book develops a feminist framework of Europeanisation by drawing on the work of key feminist philosophers Carole Pateman Onora O Neill Nancy Fraser Anne Phillips Iris Young and uses this framework to offer a critique of the Europeanisation of gender policies in various areas where the EU has prompted changes to domestic policies including in civil society political representation private sector violence against women education and asylum policy Women's Citizenship and Political Rights S. Hellsten, A. Holli, K. Daskalova, 2005-11-29 Combining research theory and practice pan European perspectives and the disciplines of human rights sociology and politics this book offers a rare insight into the multiplicity of issues surrounding women s equality citizenship and political rights in transitional Europe and an expanding European Union From policy making to civil rights domestic violence and education experienced authors present innovative research analysis and suggestions for the future of women as participants in an evolving Europe Towards Gendering Institutionalism Heather MacRae, Elaine Weiner, 2017-07-03 This book brings gender to the fore as a critical aspect of institutions and opens up new avenues to interrogate the dynamics of power and change Casting its empirical lens on the EU it interrogates attempts to bring about more gender just polities Gender Equality Norms in Regional Governance Anna van der Vleuten, Anouka van Eerdewijk, C. Roggeband, 2014-01-01 This book analyses the diffusion of norms concerning gender based violence and gender mainstreaming of aid and trade between the EU South America and Southern Africa Norm diffusion is conceptualized as a truly multidirectional and polycentric process shaped by regional governance and resulting in new geometries of transnational activism Mainstreaming Equality in European Union Law and Policymaking Jo Shaw, European Network against Racism, 2004 Varieties of Opposition to Gender Equality in Europe Mieke Verloo, 2018-03-09 In contrast to the wealth of studies on progress towards gender equality opposition to gender equality is rarely studied which makes it difficult to understand the positive and negative dynamics of gender equality as a political project The first of its kind this timely collection examines the potential and challenges of our current scholarship on understanding opposition to gender equality in Europe Divided into three parts Mieke Verloo and her team of international experts begin Varieties of Opposition to Gender Equality in Europe by theorizing the dynamics of opposition to gender equality policies in Europe Part Two highlights oppositional actors politicians governments citizens policy makers churches and political arenas parliament courts Internet as well as different and opposing visions of gender equality Part Three concludes with a framework for understanding oppositional dynamics on gender equality change Setting the agenda for future research this book will be useful for students of gender and politics social movements European integration and policy studies as well as for high level policymakers students and feminist activists alike It will be an inspiration to thinkers and doers and to scholars and political actors Actors, Institutions, and the Making of EU Gender Equality Programs Petra Ahrens, 2017-11-17 This book is an actor centred sociological study of the EU level processes that produce gender equality policy Based on interviews and documentary analysis the study unpacks the process of the Roadmap for Equality between Women and Men 2006 2010 to explain the different roles of actors in the making of EU gender equality policies By analysing policy processes inside institutions and among institutions the study focuses on the internal working logics in and between EU level institutions It highlights the shifting spaces openings and constraints for the development of gender equality policies Concentrating on EU policy programmes helps shed light on the invisible aspects of EU gender equality policy making and how this process changed regarding actors structure and content in the late 2000s This book will be of interest to students and scholars in the fields of EU politics gender politics and public policy as well as to institutional and non governmental actors in the area of gender politics in Europe and the working of EU politics The Europeanization of Gender Equality Policies Emanuela

Lombardo,Maxime Forest,2011-11-08 A discursive sociological approach to the Europeanization of gender and other equality policies Using largely unpublished empirical data covering twenty nine European countries this book adopts a pluralistic perspective to explore the complex and often divergent gender and other equality policy outputs of Europeanization

Making Gender Equality Happen Rosalind Cavaghan,2017-05-25 In theory the EU s Gender Mainstreaming policy should mark it out as a trail blazer in gender equality but gender equality activists in Europe confront a knotty problem most civil servants and policy makers can t understand how to mainstream gender Making Gender Equality Happen argues that we should take this problem seriously In this book Cavaghan uncovers the social processes that make gender appear irrelevant to so many policy makers using a new method gender knowledge contestation analysis Building on this new perspective Cavaghan identifies barriers to effective gender mainstreaming mechanisms of resistance to gender mainstreaming and the steps towards positive change which gender mainstreaming can yield even when results stop short of transformation These findings present fresh perspectives for policy makers and activists aiming to make gender equality happen Cavaghan s new method also opens fresh avenues in feminist EU studies which are particularly relevant in the wake of the financial crisis as the EU seems to be stepping away from its commitments to gender equality Women,

Universities, and Change M. Sagaria,2007-02-05 This volume analyzes how higher education responds to sociopolitical and economic influences affect gender equality at the nation state and university levels in the European Union and the United States The EU and the Proliferation of Integration Principles under the Lisbon Treaty Francesca Ippolito,Maria Eugenia Bartoloni,Massimo Condinanzi,2018-09-27 The entry into force of the Lisbon Treaty has brought about a proliferation of integration principles In addition to the environmental integration principle which has been part of the EU legal framework for some time the Lisbon Treaty introduced the principles of gender equality integration social policy integration non discrimination integration consumer protection integration as well as animal welfare integration Furthermore a general principle of integration policy objectives is contained in Article 7 TFEU requiring that the Union must ensure consistency between its policies and activities taking all relevant policy requirements listed under the TFEU into account in the adoption of any legislative measure These integration principles must be pursued or at least taken into account when decisions are being taken in almost any area of EU policy making However there is considerable uncertainty regarding the normative implications of the various integration principles as well as their legal value and practical relevance for EU policymaking This book addresses the implications of the proliferation of sectorial integration principles and the introduction of a universal requirement of policy consistency in terms of the division of competences between the Union and the Member States as well as the scope for judicial review of the EU legislative process In particular it explores whether the introduction of various integration principles has led to an extension of Union competences and whether it has limited the scope for judicial review by extending the discretionary power of the Union institutions Gender and the Economic Crisis in Europe Johanna Kantola, Emanuela Lombardo, 2017-02-22 This book is a unique exploration into the gendered politics of the economic crisis in Europe. It focuses firstly on the changes in the political and economic decision making institutions and processes of the EU and their consequences for gender equality policy. Secondly the book analyses the gendered impacts of austerity politics on member states gender equality policies institutions regimes and debates. Finally it addresses feminist and intersectional struggles and resistances against neoliberal conservative and racist politics across Europe. The authors consider the gendered politics of the economic crisis from a variety of feminist approaches shedding new light on the concept of the crisis and on questions of politics institutions and intersectionality. The case studies included refer to different parts of Europe from North to South and from East to West capturing the multifaceted gendered impacts of the crisis. The volume will be of interest to students and scholars of politics international relations gender studies economics law sociology social policy and European studies.

Inequality and the European Union Chloé Brière, Amandine Crespy, 2024-12-05 This book constitutes a timely and unique interdisciplinary endeavour in law and political science to investigate whether the European Union is living up to its ambitions to tackle inequalities between across and within European societies and states. By gathering cutting edge research by specialists of inequalities across Europe the volume pushes conceptual frontiers as to the EU's role in fighting or fuelling inequalities pertaining to antidiscrimination mobility and migrations and the European welfare model. It provides solid empirical insights on the EU policy tools and legal instruments and assesses whether they are effective. This book will be of key interests to scholars students and practitioners in EU policymaking EU law and more broadly in EU studies comparative politics and regionalism.
