Moser, Annika Tornqvist, Bernice van Bronkhorst, 1999 Extrait de l introduction This report presents the main findings of a recently completed desk study undertaken for the Social Development Family of the World Bank's Environmentally and Socially Sustainable Development ESSD Network The primary objectives of the review are to a identify the current rationale language and underlying policy approach to Gender and Development GAD adopted by the World Bank b evaluate the extent to which these are shared across the institutions and c make recommendations concerning future steps toward mainstreaming gender in the World Bank Although the origins of the review relate to needs specifically identified by ESSD the issues raised go beyond social development and are relevant to all Bank staff concerned with mainstreaming gender and development into World Bank lending and nonlending operations at the policy program and project level The Global Findex Database 2017 Asli

Demirguc-Kunt, Leora Klapper, Dorothe Singer, Saniya Ansar, Jake Hess, 2018-04-19 In 2011 the World Bank with funding from the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation launched the Global Findex database the world's most comprehensive data set on how adults save borrow make payments and manage risk Drawing on survey data collected in collaboration with Gallup Inc the Global Findex database covers more than 140 economies around the world The initial survey round was followed by a second one in 2014 and by a third in 2017 Compiled using nationally representative surveys of more than 150 000 adults age 15 and above in over 140 economies The Global Findex Database 2017 Measuring Financial Inclusion and the Fintech Revolution includes updated indicators on access to and use of formal and informal financial services It has additional data on the use of financial technology or fintech including the use of mobile phones and the Internet to conduct financial transactions The data reveal opportunities to expand access to financial services among people who do not have an account the unbanked as well as to promote greater use of digital financial services among those who do have an account The Global Findex database has become a mainstay of global efforts to promote financial inclusion In addition to being widely cited by scholars and development practitioners Global Findex data are used to track progress toward the World Bank goal of Universal Financial Access by 2020 and the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals The database the full text of the report and the underlying country level data for all figures along with the questionnaire the survey methodology and other relevant materials are available at www.worldbank.org/globalfindex Mainstreaming Gender in World Bank Lending Author,

Country Assistance Evaluation Retrospective World Bank, Kyle Peters, 2005-01-01 This report is a self evaluation of the Operations Evaluation Department's OED Country Assistance Evaluations CAEs CAEs examine World Bank performance in a particular country usually over the past four to five years and report on its conformity with the relevant Bank Country Assistance Strategy CAS and on the overall effectiveness of the specific CAS This Retrospective addresses the question What

Have We Learned by compiling lessons relevant for developing country assistance strategies from the most recent batch of CAEs Second it assesses revisions to the CAE process China, 2005 Since opening to the outside world and embarking on an economic reform programme in 1978 China has had one of the highest rates of sustained economic growth and poverty reduction in the world However during the 1990s several challenges emerged in relation to levels of inequality and environmental degradation This evaluative report on the relative effectiveness of World Bank assistance to China focuses on the period 1993 2002 although it includes some references to developments in earlier and more recent years also Findings include that the World Bank has made important contributions to economic reform poverty reduction infrastructure development and environmental protection but has fallen short of its objectives in promoting fiscal and financial reforms to reduce inequality and risk

Brazil, Forging a Strategic Partnership for Results, 2004-01-01 This title evaluates the World Bank assistance program to Brazil for the period 1990 2002

Economies in Transition Alice Galenson, 2004-01-01 The Latin American Development Forum promotes debate and disseminates knowledge and analysis on economic and social development issues in Latin America and the Caribbean The Institutional Sponsors of this series are the World Bank United Nations Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean ECLAC and Inter American Development Bank IADB The transition economies of the Europe and Central Asia Region faced unprecedented political economic and social change after the break up of the Soviet Union With assistance from the World Bank and other donors many countries quickly accomplished a number of reforms but progress in others has been slower Much has been achieved the private share of GDP in the transition countries is nearly 70 percent and 8 countries have joined the EU but much remains to be completed

IDA's Partnership for Poverty Reduction Catherine Gwin, 2002-01-01 During its 40 year history the International Development Association IDA has worked to improve global welfare by allocating resources to growth and poverty reduction programs In 1990 a new framework for IDA's poverty reduction efforts was created which resulted in significant structural change to its programs The focus of the programs became one of labor intensive growth and expanded access to social services and safety nets to improve incomes levels among the poor Additionally the IDA agenda was expanded to include gender the environment and governance as facets of the poverty reduction framework This report evaluates IDA's performance from 1994 through 2000 against the three specific replenishment commitments of the period While finding the performance level only partially satisfactory the review suggests ways to improve the effectiveness of IDA programs replenishment process and its ability to match corporate and country priorities

Information Infrastructure Alain Barbu, Rafael Dominguez, William H. Melody, 2001-01-01 This publication follows up on the 1993 review of the Bank's experience in telecommunications it assesses how their assistance from has influenced the development of information infrastructure in developing countries It finds that the recommendations from 1993 have generally been heeded with the adoption of a new private sector led agenda and increasing the share of IFC in total Bank Group funding commitments However the ability to play a global policy leadership role has been hampered by a benign neglect of the sector at both the strategic and country management level

Power for Development Fernando Reyes Manibog, Rafael Dominguez, Stephan Wegner, 2003-01-01 This publication evaluates the performance of the World Bank Group WBG during the 1990s in promoting private sector development in the electric power sector in 80 countries Main findings include that where countries showed a commitment to advancing reforms in promoting private sector development and where programmes were properly implemented the expected benefits were delivered However quality of outcomes depended on the objectives pursued and on types of assistance provided with most countries remaining in the early stages of reform

Putting Social Development to Work for the Poor, 2005 This publication examines the effectiveness of aid agency projects in relation to social development work which are based on four key concepts of social sectors safety nets inclusion equity and empowerment and social relations The report draws on recent and ongoing OED evaluations supplemented by other data including a portfolio review a literature review individual surveys and a review of country assistance strategies Four main recommendations are made to improve policy outcomes including the need to ensure that stated Bank or policy priorities receive adequate treatment across regions and countries with better strategic planning to address current skills and monitoring and evaluation gaps

Maintaining Momentum to 2015?, 2005-01-01 This report addresses the issue of what publicly supported programs and external assistance from the Bank and other agencies can do to accelerate attainment of targets such as reducing infant mortality by two thirds The evidence presented here relates to Bangladesh a country which has made spectacular progress but needs to maintain momentum in order to achieve its own poverty reduction goals The report addresses the following issues 1 What has happened to child health and nutrition outcomes and fertility in Bangladesh since 1990 Are the poor sharing in the progress which is being made

Tunisia Fareed M. A. Hassan, 2005-01-01 Annotation The Latin American Development Forum promotes debate and disseminates knowledge and analysis on economic and social development issues in Latin America and the Caribbean The Institutional Sponsors of this series are the World Bank United Nations Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean ECLAC and Inter American Development Bank IADB This book evaluates the effectiveness of Bank assistance to The Republic of Tunisia

2003 Annual Review of Development Effectiveness, 2004-01-01 ARDE 2003 examines the effectiveness of Bank support for developing country policy reform It finds that Bank support has contributed to reform in a number of cases But there are also cases where the Bank's support has not been associated with improvements in the policy environment

The CGIAR at 31, 2004 The Consultative Group on International Agricultural Research CGIAR was established in 1971 to support the Rockefeller and Ford Foundations in funding four international agricultural research centres in Colombia Mexico Nigeria and the Philippines As the first global programme to receive grants from the World Bank's net income the CGIAR now consists of 16 autonomous international centres with a membership of 62 countries including 24 developing and transition economies This report evaluates the work of CGIAR and makes several recommendations to address the future challenges it faces in promoting agricultural research

Annual Review of Development Effectiveness Soniya Carvalho, 2003 This is the sixth annual review which assesses the effectiveness of World Bank programmes in helping to achieve the Millennium Development Goals MDGs and related targets designed to address global poverty This year's review finds that the organisation's programmes are consistent with MDG themes but can be greatly enhanced by defining quantified time bound targets for poverty reduction and other development outcomes Areas needing further attention include helping clients to monitor and evaluate development outcomes working to establish cross sectoral strategies and clarifying the role and objectives of itself and other partners Above all the World Bank needs to fully assess MDG implications at the corporate country sector and global levels and to address the implications in its use of lending and administrative resources

India, the Challenges of Development Gianni Zanini, 2001-01-01 This Country Assistance Evaluation CAE reviews the development effectiveness of World Bank assistance to India during the 1990s It builds on evaluations of sector assistance programs projects and nonlending services to make these assessments This report uses the standard evaluation categories of outcome sustainability and institutional development

The Drive to Partnership John R. Eriksson, 2001-01-01 Results based conceptual frameworks Stakeholder views and related findings Country context and measuring aid coordination quality

2000 Annual Review of Development Effectiveness William Battaile, 2001-01-01 This Annual Review of Development Effectiveness ARDE builds on previous reviews i e the 1998 review released in a hostile environment of financial crisis concluded that improvements in project performance cannot be enough that improvements at a higher plane of program and country performance should also be present and the 1999 review inscribed within the Comprehensive Development Framework dilemmas and challenges identified practices for dealing with those challenges namely to be based on country commitments to poverty reduction and sustainable growth The ARDE 2000 finds that progress was solid on a broad front but that further progress is likely Portfolio performance is likely to exceed the Strategic Compact target of seventy five percent satisfactory outcomes and sustainability and institutional development ratings reflect improvements Though progress is commendable this review examines four tensions the Bank faces learning to reconcile client and corporate priorities adapting global prescriptions to local conditions balancing country performance and poverty incidence in allocating its resources and achieving efficiency selectivity seeking to implement a holistic vision of development Bank strategies should acknowledge client needs judicious adaptation to institutional social and political fronts should be pursued and an approach to poor performing countries should be addressed

Mainstreaming Gender In World Bank Lending An Update: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Mainstreaming Gender In World Bank Lending An Update : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
