Mainstreaming Men Into Gender And Development Debates Reflections And Experiences:

Mainstreaming Men Into Gender and Development Sylvia H. Chant, Matthew C. Gutmann, 2000 Based on research commissioned by the World Bank this book's primary focus is on incorporating men in gender and development interventions at the grass roots level. It draws attention to some of the key problems that have arisen from male exclusion as well as to the potential benefits of and obstacles to men's inclusion. Mainstreaming Gender in Development Fenella Porter, Caroline Sweetman, 2005 Articles discuss how gender mainstreaming has been understood in different organisations provide examples of good work which supports the empowerment of women and look beyond gender mainstreaming to what new possibilities exist for transformation. Senegal Robin Sharp, 1994 Up to date view of Senegal from the perspective of the poor

Mainstreaming Men Into Gender and Development Sylvia Chant, 2000 Gender Inclusive Adam Jones, 2008-12-02 Gender Inclusive offers a challenging and unconventional reinterpretation of gender and mass violence compiling two decades of writing on this theme by noted genocide scholar Adam Jones. Dignity and Daily Practice Monica Budowski, 2005 In recent debates over poverty and development notions of worth, dignity and human rights have come to the forefront. This publication addresses the link between the theoretical notion of dignity as a social primary good and its material expressions in daily life from comparative social anthropological and historical perspectives. The empirical analysis is based on over one hundred in depth interviews with lone mothers living in different cultural settings in Costa Rica. In addition a unique and innovative national social policy measure aimed at promoting dignity and self worth as a means to exit poverty and secure sustainable development is assessed. Men and Development, 2012-09-13 A wide ranging volume featuring contributions from some of today's leading thinkers and practitioners in the field of men, masculinities and development. Together contributors challenge the neglect of the structural dimensions of patriarchal power relations in current development policy and practice and the failure to adequately engage with the effects of inequitable sex and gender orders on both men's and women's lives. The book calls for renewed engagement in efforts to challenge and change stereotypes of men to dismantle the structural barriers to gender equality and to mobilize men to build new alliances with women's movements and other movements for social and gender justice. Social Capital Ed. K.R. Gupta, Prasenjit Maiti, 2008 Feminisms in Development Andrea Cornwall, Elizabeth Harrison, Ann Whitehead, 2013-07-04 This collection of essays by leading feminist thinkers from North and South constitutes a major new attempt to reposition feminism within development studies. Feminism's emphasis on social transformation makes it fundamental to development studies. Yet the relationship between the two disciplines has frequently been a troubled one. At present the way in which many development institutions function often undermines feminist intent through bureaucratic structures and unequal power quotients. Moreover the seeming intractability of inequalities and injustice in developing countries have presented feminists with some enormous challenges. Here emphasizing the importance of a plurality of approaches the authors argue for the importance of what feminisms have to say to development Confronting the enormous challenges for feminisms in development studies this book provides real hope for dialogue and exchange between feminisms and development

Women and Gender Equity in Development Theory and Practice Jane S. Jaquette, Gale Summerfield, 2006-03-27 Seeking to catalyze innovative thinking and practice within the field of women and gender in development editors Jane S Jaquette and Gale Summerfield have brought together scholars policymakers and development workers to reflect on where the field is today and where it is headed The contributors draw from their experiences and research in Latin America Asia and Africa to illuminate the connections between women s well being and globalization environmental conservation land rights access to information technology employment and poverty alleviation Highlighting key institutional issues contributors analyze the two approaches that dominate the field women in development WID and gender and development GAD They assess the results of gender mainstreaming the difficulties that development agencies have translating gender rhetoric into equity in practice and the conflicts between gender and the reassertion of indigenous cultural identities Focusing on resource allocation contributors explore the gendered effects of land privatization the need to challenge cultural traditions that impede women s ability to assert their legal rights and women s access to bureaucratic levers of power Several essays consider women s mobilizations including a project to provide Internet access and communications strategies to African NGOs run by women In the final essay Irene Tinker one of the field s founders reflects on the interactions between policy innovation and women s organizing over the three decades since women became a focus of development work Together the contributors bridge theory and practice to point toward productive new strategies for women and gender in development Contributors Maruja Barrig Sylvia Chant Louise Fortmann David Hirschmann Jane S Jaquette Diana Lee Smith Audrey Lustgarten Doe Mayer Faranak Miraftab Muadi Mukenge Barbara Pillsbury Amara Pongsapich Elisabeth Pr gl Kirk R Smith Kathleen Staudt Gale Summerfield Irene Tinker Catalina Hinchey Trujillo

Masculinities and Femininities in Latin America's Uneven Development Susan Paulson, 2015-08-20 This book forges a new approach to historical and geographical change by asking how gender arrangements and dynamics influence the evolution of institutions and environments This new theoretical approach is applied via mixed methods and a multi scale framework to bring together unusually diverse phenomena Regional trends demonstrated with quantitative data include the massive incorporation of women into paid work demographic masculinization of the countryside and feminization of cities rapidly increasing gaps that favor women over men in education and life expectancy and extraordinarily high levels of violence against men Case studies in Mexico Chile and Bolivia explore changes influenced by gender practices and expectations that involve men in different ways than women they also highlight dissimilarities and power relations between differently positioned masculine groups Ethnographic studies of culturally diverse arrangements together with particular attention to subordinate versus dominant masculinities complicate the gender binaries that circumscribe so much research and policy Drawing attention to imbalances and conflicts generated by inappropriate models and uneven developments the book points to opportunities for experimenting with and adapting the sociocultural institutions that govern relations among humans and between humans and their environment Engaging

Men and Boys in Violence Prevention Michael Flood, 2018-11-07 Across the globe violence prevention initiatives focused on men and boys are proliferating rapidly Engaging Men and Boys in Violence Prevention highlights effective and innovative strategies for the primary prevention of domestic violence sexual violence and other forms of harassment and abuse It combines research on gender masculinities and violence with case studies from a wide variety of countries and settings Through the cross disciplinary examination of these varied efforts this work will enable advocates educators and policy makers to understand assess and implement programs and strategies which involve men and boys in initiatives to prevent violence against women Mind the Gap Nazneen Kanji, 2003 Mainstreaming Politics Carol Lee Bacchi, Carol Bacchi, Joan Eveline, 2010 This book offers an innovative rethinking of policy approaches to gender equality and of the process of social change It brings several new chapters together with a series of previously published articles to reflect on these topics A particular focus is gender mainstreaming a relatively recent development in equality policy in many industrialised and some industrialising countries as well as in large international organisations such as the World Bank the International Monetary Fund and the International Labour Organization The book draws upon poststructuralist organisation and policy theory to argue that it is impossible to script reform initiatives such as gender mainstreaming As an alternative it recommends thinking about such policy developments as fields of contestation shaped by on the ground political deliberations and practices including the discursive practices that produce specific ways of understanding the problem of gender inequality In addition to the new chapters the editors Bacchi and Eveline produce brief introductions for each chapter tracing the development of their ideas over four years Through these commentaries the book provides exciting insights into the complex processes of collaboration and theory generation Mainstreaming Politics is a rich resource for both practitioners in the field and for theorists In particular it will appeal to those interested in public policy public administration organisation studies sociology comparative politics and international studies New Frontiers in Feminist Political Economy Shirin M.

Rai, Georgina Waylen, 2013-11-07 This volume brings together the work of outstanding feminist scholars who reflect on the achievements of feminist political economy and the challenges it faces in the 21st century The volume develops further some key areas of research in feminist political economy understanding economies as gendered structures and economic crises as crises in social reproduction as well as in finance and production assessing economic policies through the lens of women's rights analysing global transformations in women's work making visible the unpaid economy in which care is provided for family and communities and critiquing the ways in which policy makers are addressing or failing to address this unpaid economy Masculine Power and Gender Equality: Masculinities as Change Agents Russell Luyt, Kathleen thinking instead toward a transformation of gendered power structures and general equality. Representing a range of relevant areas, the expert chapter authors provide various methodological and theoretical approaches applied to shifting gender meanings in cultural, national and social contexts. Authors also represent a variety of cultures contributing to the multi-perspective debate about how best to achieve gender equality in the real world. Among the topics discussed: Reimagining masculinities, their everyday practice and practical interventions; Towards a feminist theory of male rape; Political implications of challenging men's everyday practices through domestic violence; primary prevention work; Men as allies; a case study of White Ribbon Australia; Masculine Power and Gender Equality; Masculinities as Change Agents provides valuable insight into strategies for re-imagining male dominated power structures and promoting gender equality.

Starck, 2020-03-03 This book explores how political institutions can challenge dominant and normative masculinities guiding

African Masculinities L. Ouzgane, R. Morrell, 2005-03-15 While masculinity studies enjoys considerable growth in the West, there is very little analysis of African masculinities. This volume explores what it means for an African to be masculine and how male identity is shaped by cultural forces. The editors believe that to tackle the important questions in Africa—the many forms of violence, wars, genocides, familial violence and crime and the AIDS pandemic—it is necessary to understand how a combination of a colonial past, patriarchal cultural structures and a variety of religious and knowledge systems creates masculine identities and sexualities. The work done in the book particularly bears in mind how vulnerability and marginalization produce complex forms of male identity. The book is interdisciplinary and is the first in-depth and comprehensive study of African men as a gendered category.

The Historiography of Genocide Anton Weiss-Wendt, Robert Krieken, Alfred A. Cave, Ben Kiernan, Doris Bergen, David Moshman, Victoria Sanford, John Docker, Robert Hitchcock, 2008-02-13 The Historiography of Genocide is an indispensable guide to the development of the emerging discipline of genocide studies and the only available assessment of the historical literature pertaining to genocides.

Cities, Slums and Gender in the Global South Sylvia Chant, Cathy McIlwaine, 2015-12-22 Developing regions are set to account for the vast majority of future urban growth and women and girls will become the majority inhabitants of these locations in the Global South. This is one of the first books to detail the challenges facing poorer segments of the female population who commonly reside in slums. It explores the variegated disadvantages of urban poverty and slum dwelling from a gender perspective. This book revolves around conceptualisation of the gender-urban-slum interface which explains key elements to understanding women's experiences in slum environments. It has a specific focus on the ways in which gender inequalities can be entrenched but also alleviated. Included is a review of the demographic factors which are increasingly making cities everywhere feminised spaces such as increased rural-urban migration among women, demographic ageing and rising proportions of female-headed households in urban areas. Discussions focus in particular on education, paid and unpaid work, access to land, property and urban services, violence, intra-urban mobility and political participation and representation. This book will be of use to researchers and professionals concerned with gender and development, urbanisation and rural-urban migration.

The Top Books of the Year Mainstreaming Men Into Gender And Development Debates Reflections And Experiences The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Mainstreaming Men Into Gender And Development Debates Reflections And Experiences : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Mainstreaming Men Into Gender And Development Debates Reflections And Experiences : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
