Geoffrion, 2005-11-14 In our postmodern experience oriented culture people are longing for greater authenticity integrity and depth in their pastors and leaders Board directors church members and staff alike are all eagerly seeking leaders who effectively integrate their spirituality and leadership Pastors and executives however often struggle with knowing how to integrate their spiritual values and practices into their leadership and management roles Designed for pastors executives administrators managers coordinators and all who see themselves as leaders and who want to fulfill their God given purpose The Spirit Led Leader addresses the critical fusion of spiritual life and leadership for those who not only want to see results but who also desire to care just as deeply about who they are and how they lead as they do about what they produce and accomplish Geoffrion creates a new vision for spiritual leadership as partly an art partly a result of careful planning and always a working of the

Trask,Wayde I. Goodall,2018-04-17 The fruit of the Spirit working through millions of believers by faith could literally change the world This is must reading for every sincere believer Dr Bill Bright founder and president of Campus Crusade for Christ International Would you like true joy Healthy relationships To live free from anxiety You actually can if you let God's Spirit grow His fruit in your heart Your witness for Christ is only as good as the fruit your relationship with Him produces The Fruit of the Spirit points you toward a lifestyle that makes the gospel you proclaim attractive to others because they can see its results in your everyday life emotions demeanor and actions Drawing from Biblical examples Trask and Goodall share insights that both challenge and encourage They offer true life examples of the difference you too can make when you let the Holy Spirit reproduce the character of Jesus within you Rising Ground Philip Marsden,2014-10-02 When Philip Marsden moved to a remote creekside farmhouse in Cornwall the intensity of his response took him aback It led him to wonder why we react so strongly to certain places and set him off on a journey on foot westwards to Land's End through one of the most myth rich regions of Europe From the Neolithic ritual landscape of Bodmin Moor to the Arthurian traditions at Tintagel from the mysterious china clay region to the granite tors and tombs of the far south west Marsden assembles a chronology of Britain's attitude to place In archives he uncovers the life and work of other enthusiasts before him medieval chroniclers and Tudor topographers eighteenth century antiquarians post industrial poets and abstract painters Drawing also on his travels from further afield Marsden reveals that the shape of the land lies not just at the heart of our own history but of man's perennial struggle to belong on this earth Place-Keeping Nicola Dempsey,Harry Smith,Mel Burton,2014-03-21 Place Keeping presents the latest research and practice on place keeping that is the long term management of public and private open spaces from around Europe and the rest of the world There has long been a focus in urban landscape planning and urban design on the creation of high quality public spaces or place making This is supported by a growing body of research which shows how high quality public spaces are economically and socially beneficial for local communities and contribute positively to residents quality of life and wellbeing However while large amounts of capital are spent on the creation of open spaces little thought is given to and insufficient resources made available for the long term maintenance and management of public spaces or place keeping Without place keeping public spaces can fall into a downward spiral of disrepair where anti social behaviour can emerge and residents may feel unsafe and choose to use other spaces The economic and social costs of restoring such spaces can therefore be considerable where place keeping does not occur Place Keeping also provides an accessible presentation of the outputs of a major European Union funded project MP4 Making Places Profitable Public and Private Open Spaces which further extends the knowledge and debate on long term management of public and private spaces It will be an invaluable resource for students academics and practitioners seeking critical but practical guidance on the long term management of public and private spaces in a range of contexts

Keeping the Church in Its Place Richard P. Thompson, 2006-11-15 Thompson's study offers a fresh reading of Acts that keeps the church within its literary place within that narrative His study uncovers descriptions of the church that emphasize certain characteristics presented in the opening scenes of the narrative the blessing and presence of God the unanimity of the believers the communal caring for one another and the proclamation of the gospel The progression of the Acts narrative presents an evolving image of the church that eventually includes both Jewish and non Jewish believers of the gospel with growing opposition from the Jewish people and even from the Jewish believers in Jerusalem This dynamic portrait of the church in the book of Acts contrasts three different views concerning the people of God the Jewish people as the historical people of God Jewish believers as represented by the Jerusalem church and the church that includes both Jews and Gentiles By offering such a dynamic narrative of these various groups of believers Acts encourages readers to define and identify the church or Christian community as the people who belong to God rather than those whose identity as God's people is based on historical or religious categories
