Designing the French Interior Anca I. Lasc, Georgina Downey, Mark Taylor, 2015-10-22 Designing the French Interior traces France's central role in the development of the modern domestic interior from the pre-revolutionary period to the 1970s and addresses the importance of various media including drawings, prints, pattern books, illustrated magazines, department store catalogs, photographs, guidebooks, and films in representing and promoting French interior design to a wider audience. Contributors to this original volume identify and historicize the singularity of the modern French domestic interior as a generator of reproducible images, a site for display of both highly crafted and mass-produced objects, and the direct result of widely circulated imagery in its own right. This important volume enables an invaluable new understanding of the relationship between architecture, interior spaces, material cultures, mass media, and modernity. La maison suspendue Paul Nelson, 1939 Your Private Sky Richard Buckminster Fuller, 2001 This title, which complements the volume Your Private Sky: The Art of Design Science (see page 44), gives an authentic insight into the development of Fuller's architectonic, technical, anthropological concepts. Fuller was the epitome of the poet as engineer, the thinker as designer, the artist as researcher. He left behind a voluminous quantity of writing, including texts of visionary importance, penetrating linguistic force, as well as of urgent topicality. The book documents various aspects of Fuller's widely respected texts. These testaments were intended to be shared with the whole world or, as Fuller coined it in 1950 with Spaceship Earth, 3 7643 6072 0.

The Modern Steel House Neil Jackson, 2016-03-23 This book provides a comprehensive survey of Modern Movement houses constructed with steel frames. Arranged chronologically and thematically, it traces the development over the last seventy years of steel houses in Europe, Australia, and the United States, with special reference to London, Paris, Sydney, and Los Angeles, and to the work elsewhere of Mies van der Rohe, Philip Johnson, and Jean Prouvé. Examples of steel houses from around the world demonstrate that steel structures can provide a better quality of life within a cleaner, lighter home environment.

La maison suspendue [braille] Michel Tremblay, 1990 Eileen Gray Jennifer Goff, 2014-11-28 The renowned and highly influential architect, furniture maker, interior designer, and photographer Eileen Gray was born in Ireland and remained throughout her life an Irishwoman at heart. An elusive figure, her interior world has never before been observed as closely as in this ground-breaking study of her work, philosophy, and inner circle of fellow artists. Jennifer Goff expertly blends art history and biography to create a stunning ensemble offering a clear beacon of light into truly understanding Gray the woman and the professional. Gray was a self-taught polymath, and her work was multi-functional, user-friendly, ready for mass production, yet succinctly unique, and her designs show great technical virtuosity. Her expertise in lacquer work and carpet design often overlooked is given due attention in this book as is her fascinating relationship with the architect Le Corbusier and many other compelling and complex relationships The book also offers rare insights into Gray's early years as an artist The primary source material for this book is drawn from the Eileen Gray collection at the National Museum of Ireland and its wealth of documentation correspondence personal archives photographs and oral history

Buried Astrolabe Craig S. Walker, 2001-03-29 Craig Walker devotes the main body of his work to critical readings of James Reaney Michael Cook Sharon Pollock Michel Tremblay George F Walker and Judith Thompson respecting the distinctive elements of the writer's voice while helping the reader appreciate the cultural context that informs each play He analyses the poetics or mythological underpinning of the works and investigates the cultural significance of the tropes that typify their works The Buried Astrolabe stakes the claim of Canadian playwrights to be considered among the most important in the contemporary world

Moving Target Carole-Ann Upton, 2014-07-22 Moving Target offers a rigorous exploration of the practice of translating for the theatre The twelve essays in the volume span a range of work from Eastern and Western Europe Canada and the United States For the first time this book draws together existing translation theory with contemporary practice to shed light on a hitherto neglected aspect of the production process How does the theatre translator mediate between source text performance text and target audience What happens when theatre is transposed from one culture to another What are the obstacles to theatre translation and what are the opportunities Central to the debate throughout is the role of the translator in creating not only a linguistic text but also a performance text as the contributors repeatedly demonstrate an illuminating sensibility to the demands and potential of theatre production Impacting upon areas of inter cultural theory as well as theatre studies and translation studies the result is a startling revelation of the joys as well as the frustrations of the dramatic art of the translator for performance Space and the Architect Herman

Hertzberger,2010 The work of Herman Hertzberger is the subject of wide international esteem 1991 first saw publication of Hertzberger s Lessons for Students in Architecture an elaborated version of lectures he had given since 1973 at Delft University of Technology This immensely successful book has gone through many reprints and has also been published in Japanese German Italian Portuguese Taiwanese Dutch Greek Polish Iranian Korean and Chinese Space and the Architect is the second book written by Hertzberger It charts the backgrounds to his work of recent years and the ideas informing it drawing on a wide spectrum of subjects and designs by artists precursors past masters and colleagues though with his own work persistently present as a reference Space is its principal theme physical space but also the mental or intellectual regions the architect calls upon during the process of designing Once again Hertzberger s broad practical experience his ideas and his seemingly inexhaustible library of images are a major source of inspiration for anyone whose concern is the design of space Code-Choice and Identity Construction on Stage Sirkku Aaltonen,2020-06-01 Code Choice and Identity Construction on Stage challenges the general assumption that language is only one of the codes employed in a theatrical performance Sirkku Aaltonen changes the perspective to the audience foregrounding the chosen language variety as a trigger for their reactions Theatre is the most public of arts closely interwoven with contemporary society and language is a crucial tool for establishing order In this book Aaltonen explores the ways in which chosen languages on stage can lead to rejection or tolerance in diglossic situations where one language is considered unequal to another Through a selection of carefully chosen case studies the socio political rather than artistic motivation behind code choice emerges By identifying common features of these contexts and the implications of theatre in the wider world this book sheds light on high versus low culture the role of translation and the significance of traditional and emerging theatrical conventions This intriguing study encompassing Ireland Scotland Quebec Finland and Egypt cleverly employs the perspective of familiarising the foreign and is invaluable reading for those interested in theatre and performance translation and the connection between language and society For the Gay Stage Drewey Wayne Gunn,2017-05-21 Previous surveys of the gay theatrical repertoire have concentrated on plays produced on Broadway or in London s West End This comprehensive guide goes well beyond these earlier studies by introducing productions from Off Broadway from regional theaters in the U S and U K and from Ireland

Canada Australia New Zealand and South Africa Also included are Puerto Rican Indian and Filipino plays written in English as well as translations from other languages Well over half of the works discussed here appear for the first time in such a study

Decolonizing Translation Kathryn Batchelor,2014-04-08 The linguistically innovative aspect of Francophone African literature has been recognized and studied from a variety of angles over recent decades yet little attention has been paid to what happens to such literature when it is translated into another language Taking as its corpus all sub Saharan Francophone African texts that have ever been published in English this book explores the ways in which translators approach innovative features such as African language borrowings neologisms and other deliberate manipulations of French depictions of sociolinguistic variation and a variety of types of wordplay The implications of their translation decisions are drawn out with reference to the broader significances that are often accorded to postcolonial literature and earlier critics calls for a decolonized translation practice are explored from both a practical and theoretical angle These findings are used to push towards a detailed investigation of the postcolonial turn in translation studies drawing on the work of key postcolonial theorists such as Homi K Bhabha and Gayatri Spivak This is a timely and incisive critical assessment of contemporary discourses on the ethics and politics of translation

Dramatic Licence Louise Ladouceur,2012-05 Navigating through two languages and cultures Ladouceur studies translation strategies in the world of theatre
