Maisons De Liminaire A La Rencontre Dunivers Insolites:

Les maisons de l'imaginaire Hervé Ronné, 2004 Cet album dresse le portrait de maisons insolites et de leurs propriétaires Victor Hugo Pierre Loti le facteur Cheval Paul S rusier Chop Bodan Litniansky Le Corbusier Story of the Eye Georges Bataille, 2013-09-26 Bataille's first novel published under the pseudonym Lord Auch is still his most notorious work In this explicit pornographic fantasy the young male narrator and his lovers Simone and Marcelle embark on a sexual quest involving sadism torture orgies madness and defilement culminating in a final act of transgression Shocking and sacrilegious Story of the Eye is the fullest expression of Bataille's obsession with the closeness of sex violence and death Yet it is also hallucinogenic in its power and is one of the erotic classics of the twentieth century The Deep Sea Diver's Syndrome Serge Brussolo, 2016 In The Deep Sea Diver's Syndrome lucid dreamers called mediums dive into their dreams to retrieve ectoplasms sticky blobs with curiously soothing properties that are the only form of art in the world David Sarella is a medium whose dream identity is a professional thief Only the dives require an extraordinary amount of physical effort and as David ages they become more difficult David decides to go down one final time in the deepest most extravagant dive ever attempted Cursed Pirate Girl Jeremy Bastian, 2016-04-05 Collects the first three issues with an all new epilogue

Kamouraska Anne Hébert, 2000-01-01 A classic of Canadian literature by the great Quebecoise writer Kamouraska is based on a real nineteenth century love triangle in rural Quebec It paints a poetic and terrifying tableau of the life of Elisabeth d'Aulnières her marriage to Antoine Tassy squire of Kamouraska his violent murder and her passion for George Nelson an American doctor Passionate and evocative Kamouraska is the timeless story of one woman's destructive commitment to an ideal love Translated into seven languages Kamouraska won the Paris book prize and was made into a landmark feature film by Claude Jutra This edition features a brilliant new introduction by Noah Richler Madame Bovary of the Suburbs Sophie Divry, 2017-07-27 The story of a woman's life from childhood to death somewhere in provincial France from the 1950s to just shy of 2025 She has doting parents does well at school finds a loving husband after one abortive attempt at passion buys a big house with a moonlit terrace makes decent money has children changes jobs retires grows old and dies All in the comfort that the middle classes have grown accustomed to But she's bored She takes up all sorts of outlets to try to make something happen in her life adultery charity work esotericism manic house cleaning motherhood and various hobbies each one abandoned faster than the last But no matter what she does her life remains unfocussed and unfulfilled Nothing truly satisfies her because deep down just like the town where she lives the landscape is non-descript flat horizontal Sophie Divry dramatises the philosophical conflict between freedom and comfort that marks women's lives in a materialistic world Our heroine is an endearing contemporary Emma Bovary and Divry's prose will remind readers of the best of Houellebecq the cold implacable historian who paints a precise portrait of an era and those who inhabit it and in doing so renders existence indelibly absurd Translated from the French by Alison Anderson Tocade 02 , The New Ecological

Order Luc Ferry, 1995-08-15 Is ecology in the process of becoming the object of our contemporary passions in the same way that Fascism was in the 30s or Communism under Stalin In The New Ecological Order Luc Ferry offers a penetrating critique of the ideological root of the Deep Ecology movement spreading throughout the United States Germany and France Traditional ecological movements or democratic ecology seek to protect the environment of human societies they are pragmatic and reformist But another movement has become the refuge both of nostalgic counterrevolutionaries and of leftist illusions This is deep ecology Its followers go beyond practical critique of human greed and waste they call into question the very possibility of human coexistence with nature Ferry launches his critique by examining early European legal cases concerning the status and rights of animals including a few notorious cases where animals were brought to trial found guilty and publicly hanged He then demonstrates that German Romanticism embraced certain key ideas of the deep ecology movement concerning the protection of animals and the environment Later adopted by the Nazis many of these ideas point to a profoundly antihumanistic component of deep ecology that is compatible with totalitarianism Ferry shows how deep ecology casts aside all the gains of human autonomy since the Enlightenment Far from denying our duty in relation to nature The New Ecological Order offers a bracing caution against the dangers of environmental claims and more important against the threat to democracy contained in the deep ecology doctrine when pushed to its extreme
