Magic Casements Marc Alexander, 1989      Magic Casements Arthur Shearly Cripps, 1913      Magic Casements, 1926      Magic Casements Kate Douglas Smith Wiggin, 2012-08-01 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy      Magic Casements Arthur Shearly Cripps, 1913

Magic Casements Kate Douglas Wiggin, Nora Archibald Smith, 1907      Songs of Ourselves Joan Shelley Rubin, 2010-03-30 Listen to a short interview with Joan Shelley Rubin Host Chris Gondek Producer Heron Crane In the years between 1880 and 1950 Americans recited poetry at family gatherings school assemblies church services camp outings and civic affairs As they did so they invested poems and the figure of the poet with the beliefs values and emotions that they experienced in those settings Reciting a poem together with others joined the individual to the community in a special and memorable way In a strikingly original and rich portrait of the uses of verse in America Joan Shelley Rubin shows how the sites and practices of reciting poetry influenced readers lives and helped them to find meaning in a poet s words Emphasizing the cultural circumstances that influenced the production and reception of poets and poetry in this country Rubin recovers the experiences of ordinary people reading poems in public places We see the recent immigrant seeking acceptance the schoolchild eager to be integrated into the class the mourner sharing grief at a funeral the grandparent trying to bridge the generation gap all instances of readers remaking texts to meet social and personal needs Preserving the moral romantic and sentimental legacies of the nineteenth century the act of reading poems offered cultural continuity spiritual comfort and pleasure Songs of Ourselves is a unique history of literary texts as lived experience By blurring the boundaries between high and popular poetry as well as between modern and traditional it creates a fuller more democratic way of studying our poetic language and ourselves      Magic Casements Nora Archibald Smith, Kate Douglas Smith Wiggin, 2016-05-08 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and
