CIRCLES

Serpent, with tail in mouth, you are a symbol strange
And profound.

Everything in the universe returns to its source,
Even sound.

Everything doubles back on its track;
All things are round.

The suns move in orbits, electric currents in circuits,
Space is a curve.

Life appears straight, birth to death, like a line,
Like a nerve.

But I'll wager that life is a circle, unending; any symbol
Will serve.

Life is a circle, life is a cage of eternal recurrence,
With no way out.

You may cry, you may rage, you may beat on the door,
You may shout;

But relentless, and vast, and unending, it circles about
And about.
