Magic Of The Senses A Guide For Personal Enrichment:

Magic of the Senses Jean Champagne, 2001-05-01      Creating Magic Lee Cockerell, 2008-10-14 It's not the magic that makes it work it's the way we work that makes it magic. The secret for creating magic in our careers, our organizations and our lives is simple: outstanding leadership, the kind that inspires, delights customers and achieves extraordinary business results. No one knows more about this kind of leadership than Lee Cockerell, the man who ran Walt Disney World Resort operations for over a decade. And in Creating Magic, he shares the leadership principles that not only guided his own journey from a poor farm boy in Oklahoma to the head of operations for a multibillion-dollar enterprise but that also soon came to form the cultural bedrock of the world's number one vacation destination. But as Lee demonstrates, great leadership isn't about mastering impossibly complex management theories. We can all become outstanding leaders by following the ten practical, common-sense strategies outlined in this remarkable book. As straightforward as they are profound, these leadership lessons include: Everyone is important. Make your people your brand. Burn the free fuel: appreciation, recognition and encouragement. Give people a purpose, not just a job. Combining surprising business wisdom with insightful and entertaining stories from Lee's four decades on the front lines of some of the world's best-run companies, Creating Magic shows all of us, from small business owners to managers at every level, how to become better leaders by infusing quality, character, courage, enthusiasm and integrity into our workplace and into our lives.

A History of the Senses Robert Jütte, 2005 This path-breaking book examines our attitudes to the senses from antiquity through to the present day. Robert Jütte explores a wealth of different traditions, images, metaphors and ideas that have survived through time and describes how sensual impressions change the way in which we experience the world. Throughout history, societies have been both intrigued or unsettled by the five senses. The author looks at the way in which the social world conditions our perception and traces the rediscovery of sensual pleasure in the twentieth century, paying attention to experiences as varied as fast food deodorization and extra-sensory perception. He concludes by exploring technological change and cyberspace, reflecting on how developments in these fields will affect our relationship with the senses in the future.
