the mid 19th century The author also reproduces rare texts on magic healing from the 14th and 15th centuries Revealing the vitality of these practices in the remoter areas of Eastern Europe Lecouteux shows how the influence of this pagan worldview is still detectable in the work of modern folk healers in France and Scandinavia He also shows how the condemnation of unorthodox methods of healing has not vanished from the contemporary world the medieval legislation against healing by wizards and bonesetters is echoed in modern health codes that challenge the authority of naturopaths and faith healers
