Magistracy Rediscovered:

The Magistracy Rediscovered Everett C. Goodwin, 1981 The "true Professional Ideal" in America Bruce A. Kimball, 1996 Bruce A. Kimball attacks the widely held assumption that the idea of American professionalism arose from the proliferation of urban professional positions during the late nineteenth century This first paperback edition of The True Professional Ideal in America argues that the professional ideal can be traced back to the colonial period This comprehensive intellectual history illuminates the profound relationships between the idea of a professional and broader changes in American social cultural and political history A Distinct Judicial Power Scott Douglas Gerber, 2011-01-10 A Distinct Judicial Power The Origins of an Independent Judiciary 1606-1787 by Scott Douglas Gerber provides the first comprehensive critical analysis of the origins of judicial independence in the United States Part I examines the political theory of an independent judiciary Gerber begins chapter 1 by tracing the intellectual origins of a distinct judicial power from Aristotle's theory of a mixed constitution to John Adams's modifications of Montesquieu Chapter 2 describes the debates during the framing and ratification of the federal Constitution regarding the independence of the federal judiciary Part II the bulk of the book chronicles how each of the original thirteen states and their colonial antecedents treated their respective judiciaries This portion presented in thirteen separate chapters brings together a wealth of information charters instructions statutes etc about the judicial power between 1606 and 1787 and sometimes beyond Part III the concluding segment explores the influence the colonial and early state experiences had on the federal model that followed and on the nature of the regime itself It explains how the political theory of an independent judiciary examined in Part I and the various experiences of the original thirteen states and their colonial antecedents chronicled in Part II culminated in Article III of the U S Constitution It also explains how the principle of judicial independence embodied by Article III made the doctrine of judicial review possible and committed that doctrine to the protection of individual rights A Speaking Aristocracy Christopher Grasso, 2012-12-01 As cultural authority was reconstituted in the Revolutionary era knowledge reconceived in the age of Enlightenment and the means of communication radically altered by the proliferation of print speakers and writers in eighteenth century America began to describe themselves and their world in new ways Drawing on hundreds of sermons essays speeches letters journals plays poems and newspaper articles Christopher Grasso explores how intellectuals preachers and polemicists transformed both the forms and the substance of public discussion in eighteenth century Connecticut In New England through the first half of the century only learned clergymen regularly addressed the public After midcentury however newspapers essays and eventually lay orations introduced new rhetorical strategies to persuade or instruct an audience With the rise of a print culture in the early Republic the intellectual elite had to compete with other voices and address multiple audiences By the end of the century concludes Grasso public discourse came to be understood not as the words of an authoritative few to the people but rather as a civic conversation of the people Rediscovering

Rhetoric Justin T. Gleeson, Ruth C. A. Higgins, 2008 Rhetoric is ubiquitous in modern discourse from arguments delivered in the High Court to advertisements disseminated in the high street For the legal and political advocate persuasion is also a professional technique that must be perfected properly to practise each art In contrast with the classical era and the middle ages in which grammar rhetoric and dialectic were basic features of all education modern curricula almost entirely neglect any theoretical study of the methods of rhetoric Rediscovering Rhetoric re introduces to modern practitioners and students a grasp of the speeches writings and methodologies of the great classical scholars of rhetoric Part 1 Law and Language in the Greco Roman Tradition provides a contextualised introduction to significant theorists of rhetoric in the classical period and consists of four chapters written by practising barristers and a current Justice of the Federal Court of Australia Part 2 The Practice of Persuasion comprises essays by practitioners distinguished in their pursuit of legal persuasion one former and two current Justices of the High Court of Australia illuminating their experiences of argument from the perspective of both bench and bar Part 3 The Politics of Persuasion performs a similar function to Part 2 in the related domain of politics It includes a chapter by Graham Freudenberg former speechwriter for Gough Whitlam and others Together the three parts provide a unique inter disciplinary perspective on the theory and practice of legal and political persuasion Published in association with the NSW Bar Association

The Long Argument Stephen Foster, 2012-12-01 In this wide ranging study Stephen Foster explores Puritanism in England and America from its roots in the Elizabethan era to the end of the seventeenth century Focusing on Puritanism as a cultural and political phenomenon as well as a religious movement Foster addresses parallel developments on both sides of the Atlantic and firmly embeds New England Puritanism within its English context He provides not only an elaborate critique of current interpretations of Puritan ideology but also an original and insightful portrayal of its dynamism According to Foster Puritanism represented a loose and incomplete alliance of progressive Protestants lay and clerical aristocratic and humble who never decided whether they were the vanguard or the remnant Indeed in Foster s analysis changes in New England Puritanism after the first decades of settlement did not indicate secularization and decline but instead were part of a pattern of change conflict and accomodation that had begun in England He views the Puritans own claims of declension as partisan propositions in an internal controversy as old as the Puritan movement itself The result of these stresses and adaptations he argues was continued vitality in American Puritanism during the second half of the seventeenth century Foster draws insights from a broad range of souces in England and America including sermons diaries spiritual autobiographies and colony town and court records Moreover his presentation of the history of the English and American Puritan movements in tandem brings out the fatal flaws of the former as well as the modest but essential strengths of the latter

Law Books in Action Angela Fernandez, Markus Dubber, 2012-04-02 Law Books in Action Essays on the Anglo American Legal Treatise explores the history of the legal treatise in the common law world Rather than looking at treatises as shortcuts from law in books to law in action the essays in this collection ask what treatises can tell us about what troubled legal professionals at a given time what motivated them to write what they did and what they hoped to achieve This book then is the first study of the legal treatise as a law book in action an active text produced by individuals with ideas about what they wanted the law to be not a mere stepping stone to codes and other forms of legal writing but a multifaceted genre of legal literature in its own right practical and fanciful dogmatic and ornamental in turn This book will be of interest to legal scholars lawyers and judges as well as to anyone else with a scholarly interest in law in general and legal history in particular

Calvin and the Consolidation of the Genevan Reformation William G. Naphy,2003-01-01 This book chronicles the history of the Protestant Reformation in sixteenth century Geneva under the leadership of John Calvin and is the best modern study of the

Genevan Reformation available The narrative of this work is enhanced by twenty seven tables of extensive statistical data and eleven prosopographical appendices drawn from the author s extensive studies in the Geneva archives His work shows the challenges faced by Calvin and his associates as they sought to proclaim and enact their Christian faith in a Genevan society that was facing severe problems with the influx of refugees from all over Europe The Christian guardian (and Church of England magazine). ,1823 Access to Justice in Magistrates' Courts Lucy Welsh,2022-01-27 This book examines access to justice in summary criminal proceedings by considering the ability of defendants to play an active and effective role in the process Access to justice refers not just to the availability of legally aided representation but also to the ability of defendants to understand and effectively participate in summary criminal proceedings more generally It remains a vital principle of justice that justice should not only be done but should also be seen to be done by all participants in the process The book is based on socio legal research The study is ethnographic based on observation conducted in four magistrates courts in South East England and interviews with both defence lawyers and Crown prosecutors Setting out an argument that defendants have always been marginalised through particular features of magistrates court proceedings such as courtroom layout and patterns of behaviour among the professional workgroups in court the political climate in relation to defendants and access to justice that has persisted since 2010 has further undermined the ability of defendants to play an active role in the process Ultimately this book argues that recent governments have demanded ever more efficiency and cost saving in criminal justice In that context principles that contribute to access to justice for defendants have been seriously undermined Rediscover Your Holiday Sparkle: 400+ Christmas Novels, Stories, Poems, Carols & Legends Selma Lagerlöf,Charles Dickens,Mark Twain,Harriet Beecher Stowe,Martin Luther,Robert Louis Stevenson,William Shakespeare,Henry Wadsworth Longfellow,Max Brand,William Wordsworth,Carolyn Wells,Sophie May,Louisa May Alcott,Henry Van Dyke,Walter Scott,Susan Anne Livingston Ridley Sedgwick,Anthony Trollope,Rudyard Kipling,Beatrix Potter,Emily Dickinson,Lucas Malet,Thomas Nelson Page,O.
