The Decisive Network Nadya Bair,2020 Since its founding in 1947 the legendary Magnum Photos agency has been telling its own story Its photographers were concerned witnesses to history and artists on the hunt for decisive moments their pictures were humanist documents of the postwar world Based in unprecedented archival research The Decisive Network peels back layers of the Magnum mythology to offer a new history of what it meant to shoot edit and sell news images after World War II Between the 1940s and 1960s Magnum expanded the human interest story about the everyday life of ordinary people to global dimensions while bringing the aesthetic of news pictures into new markets Its best known work started as humanitarian aid promotion travel campaigns corporate publicity and advertising Working with this range of clients Magnum made photojournalism integral to visual culture Yet Magnum s photographers could not have done this alone This book unpacks the collaborative nature of photojournalism as it transpired on a daily basis focusing on how picture editors sales agents spouses and publishers helped Magnum photographers succeed in their assignments and achieve fame The Decisive Network concludes in the late 1960s and early 1970s when amidst the decline of magazine publishing and the rise of an art market for photography Magnum turned to photo books and exhibitions to manage its growing picture archives and consolidate its brand In that moment Magnum s photojournalists became artists and their assignments turned into oeuvres Such ideas were necessary publicity and they also managed to shape discussions about photography for decades Bridging art history media studies cultural history and the history of communication this book transforms our understanding of the photographic profession and the global circulation of images in the pre digital world Contemporary Photography in France Olga Smith,2022-10-19 This compelling publication traces the broad arc of photography s development in France from the 1970s to the present day A decade by decade account reveals unexpected points of convergence between practices that are not usually considered in a comparative perspective These include photographic practices in contemporary art documentary photojournalism and fashion Author Olga Smith sets these practices in dialogue with French philosophy the writings of Roland Barthes Jean Baudrillard and Jacques Rancière to produce an innovative study of the intersections between the photographic image text practice and theory This analysis is guided by an understanding of photography as deeply engaged with historical cultural and intellectual events that defined French national experience in the contemporary period Landscape provides a particular focus to study issues of key significance including national identification colonial past legacies of modernization and environmental breakdown Conflicting Images Stuart Allan,Tom Allbeson,2024-05-31 In contrast with historical examinations centring the evolving role of the war correspondent Conflicting Images focuses on the contribution of photographers and photojournalists providing an evaluative appraisal of war photography in the news and its development from the nineteenth century to the twenty first century Stuart Allan and Tom Allbeson critically explore diverse genres of war photography across a broad historical sweep encompassing events from the Crimean War 1853-56 and the Civil War in the United States 1861-65 up to and including conflicts unfolding in Syria and Ukraine This book reflects on the relevance of different types of warfare to visual reporting from colonial conquest via trench warfare and aerial bombardment to the ideological dimensions of the Cold War and embedding and winning hearts and minds during the War on Terror and its aftermath In pinpointing illustrative examples the authors examine changing dynamics of production dissemination and public engagement Readers will come to understand how current efforts to rethink the future of war photography in a digital age can benefit from a close and careful consideration of war photography's origins early development and gradual uneven transformation over the years Conflicting Images aims to invigorate ongoing enquires and inspire new alternative trajectories for future research and practice This book is recommended reading for researchers and advanced students of visual journalism and conflict reporting

Women and War Bernard A. Cook, 2006-05-19 In this unique encyclopedia 120 leading scholars from around the world provide comprehensive treatment of the role of women in war from the first written history to the present This authoritative encyclopedia presents the work of leading scholars from all over the world to give the first detailed coverage of the role of women in wars throughout history Histories of war are typically histories of men great leaders and heroic fighters Yet the roles of women often receive only limited coverage Except for such notables as Joan of Arc traditional histories give short shrift to women as leaders and fighters Similarly the direct victimization particularly sexual abuse as a weapon of terror and domination and cultural dislocations women suffer in war float as background without detailed coverage This work represents a first devoted in its entirety to thorough examination of all aspects of women in war For the first time readers have a single source for information on the scope of women's role in war and war's effects on them

Photography, Curation, Criticism Liz Wells, 2023-07-31 This unique collection brings together the work of photography writer curator and lecturer Liz Wells reflecting on key themes of landscape place nationhood and environmental concerns A newly written introductory chapter contextualizes the collection This is followed by an in conversation with Martha Langford Concordia University Montreal that brings together two leading figures in the field to respond to Wells' thought and the themes that emerge in her writings The essays included in this anthology draw on work from a variety of sources including artists photobooks exhibition catalogues magazines academic books and journals Seventeen previously published articles organized thematically in relation to Curation and Residency Phenomena Place and Critical Reflections demonstrate Wells' critical and curatorial approach to research through photographic practices reflecting a core view of art at its best operating to convey the implications of what is being explored and to evoke responses that are simultaneously sensory and intellectual This collection will be essential reading for students and scholars of photography visual culture and art history especially those examining landscape and environmental photography
