Roger Grant,2014-04-17 Among the grand antebellum plans to build railroads to interconnect the vast American republic perhaps none was more ambitious than the Louisville Cincinnati Charleston The route was intended to link the cotton producing South and the grain and livestock growers of the Old Northwest with traders and markets in the East creating economic opportunities along its 700 mile length But then came the Panic of 1837 and the project came to a halt H Roger Grant tells the incredible story of this singular example of railroad fever and the remarkable visionaries whose hopes for connecting North and South would require more than half a century and one Civil War to reach fruition The Heart of a Great Pastor H. B. London, Neil B. Wiseman, 2006-09-05 The Heart of a Great Pastor salutes pastors everywhere those wanting to take a fresh look at their ministries as well as those just starting out As the baton is passed to the new breed of pastors there is a great need to help them count the cost of serving Christ and equip them with the tools wisdom and encouragement from those who have gone before them H B London Jr and Neil B Wiseman bring their experiences and heart to pastors for such a task To the new breed they ask Do you have a mentor Have you examined your unique call and place in society Do you have buy in from your spouse and children Do you spend as much time in the Word and study as you do in the entrepreneurial pursuits of your ministry Do you genuinely love people Do you really understand how invested God is in you and how important it is for you to make it Here is help for young pastors and their mentors to stay strong personally while taking churches to the edge of creative imaginative newness for Christ while remaining safely anchored to the abiding and adventuresome gospel Before Buddha Was Buddha Rafe Martin, 2018-03-20 Discover how ordinary beings a deer a robber a monkey a parrot and more make up the past lives of the Buddha before he was Buddha The jataka tales are ancient Buddhist stories found in both the Pali Canon and Sanskrit tradition recounting the many past lives and ongoing spiritual work of Shakyamuni Buddha on his way to his final birth as Siddhartha Gautama In them we find the Buddha facing difficulties making tough choices doing hard work falling down and getting back up the kind of continuing effort of spiritual practice that all beings face Before Buddha was Buddha focuses on a selection of particular jataka tales in which the Buddha in past lives faces temptations and struggles with self doubt as well as his own shortcomings In these tales he is not beyond life's messes its challenges and disasters but is down in the mix trudging through the mud with the rest of us Each story presented in brief is followed by a commentary pointing to its relevance to our lives and practice realization today Half a Look of Cain William Goyen, 1998-09 I was twenty when I followed away from my town a trapeze family aerialists a group of beautiful winged people mother father son and daughter They were the Ishbels Chris whose leg is injured and his lover Stella with whom he lives in a ruined abandoned house Chris's male nurse Marvello the circus aerialist a lighthouse keeper a flagpole sitter in small town America these are the creatures of William Goyen's visionary fable of love lust and loneliness Half a Look of Cain A Fantastical Narrative was written in the 1950s and early 1960s and is now being published for the first time Part fable and part rhapsodic exploration of desire and loss Half a Look of Cain bears Goyen's unmistakable artistic signature on every page Too far ahead of its time in its swirling visionary structure this novel was rejected by Goyen's first publisher as not sufficiently commercial and remained unpublished despite extensive revisions The novel is shaped as a group of medallions a series of related episodes It dreams of defying mortality as if living in the air like the aerialists or the flagpole sitter and of finding perfect companionship in lover and friend The novel is both a rediscovered cry against the conformity and suppressed emotions of the 1950s and a celebration of passion Reginald Gibbons has edited the novel from the author s multiple manuscripts and has contributed an illuminating afterword The Manifesting Manual! Congress,1964 Memorial addresses in the Congress of the United States and tributes in eulogy of John Fitzgerald Kennedy late a President of the United States All That I Am, I Think! Peter Britt,2007-07-26 I attempted in my book to relay who I am through my writing and expressing my innermost feelings in regards to many different aspects of life Not life as some might try to reveal its secrets but life as what it is As merely a man who thinks and loves A man who hurts and laughs and sings to the world to give of who he is in the hopes that some may understand what his words mean what he truly is inside To be known for who I truly am Yes it is that important No different from my music It was necessary to say it and for all to hear What I see every day what I feel To love and to be loved love is everything These things and more I poured of myself into my book to reveal myself fully to you To allow you to see what I feel in regards to many things and to possibly agree or to at least think about what you ve read To do this to me is true success To make even a small difference He was a Man Rose Wilder Lane,1925 The Sermon Bible: Isaiah to Malachi ,1900
