Magnificent Obsess:

The Magnificent Obsession Anne Graham Lotz, 2009 When Anne Graham Lotz studied the life of Abraham in depth it changed her view of her own life forever This book is the result of that life transforming study which drew her into a deeper friendship with God and set her on a journey of being a blessing to others Combining a reflective study of the biblical account of Abraham the founder of the Jewish and Christian faiths with challenging meditations on the reality of being a disciple this book is an invitation to all who long to live the God filled life Magnificent Obsession Helen Rappaport, 2011-11-03

Rappaport uses new sources to give a vivid account of Albert's death a valuable and insightful book which will change our view of Queen Victoria Spectator When Queen Victoria's husband Prince Albert died in December 1861 the nation was paralysed with grief His death was a catastrophe for Victoria who not only adored her husband but had through twenty one years of marriage utterly relied on him as companion father of their children friend confidant and unofficial private secretary Without Albert to guide and support her the Queen retreated into a state of pathological grief which nobody could penetrate and few understood Drawing widely on contemporary letters diaries and memoirs Rappaport brings new light to bear on the causes of Albert's death and tracks Victoria's mission to commemorate her husband in perpetuity Richly compelling this is the story of a magnificent obsession that even death could not sever A Magnificent Obsession Danielle Green

PhD, 2019-01-14 Perhaps every soul enters the world knowing that it is unalterably corded to an invisible realm but in adapting to physical form forgets until the veil is momentarily lifted and reveals a mystical call that beckons us to awaken to the real story of existence our unseen bond to this larger reality and the personal destiny imprinted on the soul In a deeply personal and probing exploration of communications with the spiritual world Dr Danielle Green relies on personal experiences gained from her own messages as well as findings from over thirty years of research and documentation of mystical calls to carefully examine messages from beyond and guide others to understanding their own communications with the invisible realm Dr Green explores what it means to receive a mystical call how one follows or refuses the call and how such experiences impact one's perceptions beliefs attitudes physiology and ultimately destiny A Magnificent Obsession is the most documented report of mystical calls from around the world and offers a historical religious spiritual evolutionary and psychological perspective to understand this life determining phenomenon My Omaha Obsession Miss Cassette, 2020-11
