"His Royal Highness." Natal Witness,1925      Debates of the Senate (Union of South Africa). South Africa. Parliament. Senate,1958      The Laziness Myth Christine Jeske,2020-12-15 When people cannot find good work can they still find good lives By investigating this question in the context of South Africa where only 43 percent of adults are employed Christine Jeske invites readers to examine their own assumptions about how work and the good life do or do not coincide The Laziness Myth challenges the widespread premise that hard work determines success by tracing the titular laziness myth a persistent narrative that disguises the systems and structures that produce inequalities while blaming unemployment and other social ills on the so called laziness of particular class racial and ethnic groups Jeske offers evidence of the laziness myth s harsh consequences as well as insights into how to challenge it with other South African narratives of a good life In contexts as diverse as rapping in a library manufacturing leather shoes weed whacking neighbors yards negotiating marriage plans and sharing water taps the people described in this book will stimulate discussion on creative possibilities for seeking the good life in and out of employment in South Africa and elsewhere Country Life Illustrated ,1900 Southern Africa Today ,1990-08 Washed with Sun Jeremy A. Foster,2008 Looking mainly at the years following the British victory in the second Boer War from 1902 to 1930 Foster examines the influence of painting writing architecture and photography on the construction of a shared romanticized landscape subjectivity that was perceived as inseparable from being South African and thus helped forge the imagined community of white South Africa The Architect ,1925
