Magruder's American Government William A. McClenaghan, 1986 Parenting Matters National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Board on Children, Youth, and Families, Committee on Supporting the Parents of Young Children, 2016-11-21 Decades of research have demonstrated that the parent child dyad and the environment of the family which includes all primary caregivers are at the foundation of children's well being and healthy development From birth children are learning and rely on parents and the other caregivers in their lives to protect and care for them The impact of parents may never be greater than during the earliest years of life when a child's brain is rapidly developing and when nearly all of her or his experiences are created and shaped by parents and the family environment Parents help children build and refine their knowledge and skills charting a trajectory for their health and well being during childhood and beyond The experience of parenting also impacts parents themselves For instance parenting can enrich and give focus to parents lives generate stress or calm and create any number of emotions including feelings of happiness sadness fulfillment and anger Parenting of young children today takes place in the context of significant ongoing developments These include a rapidly growing body of science on early childhood increases in funding for programs and services for families changing demographics of the U S population and greater diversity of family structure Additionally parenting is increasingly being shaped by technology and increased access to information about parenting Parenting Matters identifies parenting knowledge attitudes and practices associated with positive developmental outcomes in children ages 0-8 universal preventive and targeted strategies used in a variety of settings that have been effective with parents of young children and that support the identified knowledge attitudes and practices and barriers to and facilitators for parents use of practices that lead to healthy child outcomes as well as their participation in effective programs and services This report makes recommendations directed at an array of stakeholders for promoting the wide scale adoption of effective programs and services for parents and on areas that warrant further research to inform policy and practice It is meant to serve as a roadmap for the future of parenting policy research and practice in the United States A History of the Rectangular Survey System C. Albert White, 1983 The Eagle's Talons - the American Experience at War Col Dennis M Drew, Dennis Drew, Donald Snow, 2012-08-01 Americans have traditionally viewed war as an aberration in the normal course of events Although paying lip service to the Clausewitzian dictum that war and politics are two parts of a tightly knit whole we have traditionally waged wars as great crusades divorced from political realities Thus we have been nonplussed in the last half of the twentieth century by our involvement in limited wars waged for limited objectives America s responsibilities as a superpower with worldwide interests forced upon us the unpleasant notion of using our armed forces as practical instruments of political policy The reality of this notion has been difficult for many Americans to understand and accept Col Dennis M Drew and Dr Donald M Snow have performed a significant service by producing a volume that places the American experience at war in its proper political context Going further they have also placed the American experience in a technological context and analyzed how political and technological factors influenced the conduct of American wars In addition they have combined all of these factors and analyzed their influences on the outcomes of our wars what Sir Basil Liddell Hart called the better state of peace which is the fundamental objective of warfare One can find a number of military political and technological histories that address the American experience at war However I know of no other single volume that addresses all of these aspects in such a concise and readable fashion But Eagle s Talons is much more than just a history of the American experience If gaining insights about where we are going requires an understanding of where we have been Colonel Drew and Dr Snow provide a key to understanding how and why the United States might employ its military power in the future

Placer Gold Deposits of Nevada (Classic Reprint) Maureen G. Johnson,2017-11-18 Excerpt from Placer Gold Deposits of Nevada Following the discovery of placers at Gold Canyon placer discoveries in Nevada were broadly in three periods the 1860 s to 1880 s when many small deposits throughout the State were discovered and sporadically worked and several large placers were discovered and extensively worked the short period between 1906 and 1910 when very rich placers were discovered at Lynn Battle Mountain Manhattan and Round Mountain the early 1930 s when economic conditions created by the depression caused a renewed interest in placer mining and many individuals sought and a few discovered new placer areas throughout the State The location of the placers described in this report is shown on plate 1 Very little factual information can be found about the early periods of placer mining in Nevada For many placers the only reports available are hearsay estimates of production and speculations about the extent of the placer ground based on remnants of placer pits shafts and other workings Many of the placers said to have had a high production between 1860 and 1890 were worked by Chinese miners who came to Nevada during the building of the railroads and stayed on to work at mining and other activities The Chinese were reputed to be secretive with their earnings from the placers and did not ship the gold to the mint by Wells Fargo or other shippers They worked the gravels very thoroughly in areas where American miners did not wish to expend great labor to win the gold The placers in the Sierra and Spring Valley districts Pershing County were worked by Chinese miners they have a very high estimated production before 1900 and a comparatively low known production since that time About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      Operational Design Jeffrey M.
