Bibliography of Asian Studies ,1994 Asiaweek ,1982 三民主義 ,2006 Three Faces of Populism in Asia Shiru Wang,2024-04-23 Drawing on evidence from eight case studies from across three Asian subregions this volume highlights the distinctive features of Asian populism in comparison with Western experiences In contrast to the latter populist practices in Asia tend to exhibit an ambiguous nature often characterized by ad hoc and mixed ideological add ons The case studies shed light on the cultural dimension of populism an aspect that has been largely overlooked in Western contexts Empirical evidence shows that political culture and identity politics exert an influence on populist practices in Asia In the meantime populist attitudes towards the role of politicians the popular will and the relationship between the elite and the people can serve as an explanatory variable for political outcomes The relationship between populism and democracy in Asia is observed to be more intricate than that in Western contexts Populism is not necessarily endogenous to democracy and thus its emergence may not solely be a response to the crisis of democracy The book presents a valuable resource for scholars and students of Asian politics and those looking at the phenomenon of populism through a comparative lens Ketuanan politik Melayu Ker Pong Thock,2005 Historical movement and role of Chinese organizations in Malaysian politics and their responses to the challenge of Malay political hegemony from 1969 to 1999 Southeast Asian Responses to Globalization Francis Kok-Wah Loh,Joakim Öjendal,2005 Focuses on the globalization democratization nexus and shows how governance is being restructured and democracy sometimes deepened in this new global era Malaysian Politics Under Mahathir Diane K. Mauzy,R. S. Milne,2002-01-22 A hard hitting and readable book which examines Mahathir s character his ideas and policies and relates them to the social economic and political setting inside Malaysia Up until recently high rates of economic growth and a striking reduction in poverty have been the hallmarks of this vibrant Tiger economy Mahathir s success has now been placed in jeopardy by the recent economic crisis and his rule is coming under hostile scrutiny As one of the most controversial political figures in South east Asia Mahathir s success at managing ethnic tensions policies of industrialization modernization and foreign policy are explored as are his grandiose projects his human rights record and approach to corruption Milne and Mauzy leading authors in this field assess Mahathir's rule within this context as well as the abrupt dismissal from office arrest and trial of Anwar Ibrahim Mahathir's deputy in late 1998

Southeast Asia's Misunderstood Miracle Jomo K.S., 2019-06-04 The debate on the major factors contributing to Southeast Asian industrialization continues unabated As might be expected there is much at stake in this debate The debate is largely ideological in nature and partly centers on the role and contribution of state interventions and other institutions in market processes in the context of late industrialization At the risk of caricaturing the debate on the one hand one finds the dominant and more influential position held by those who blame the state for all that has gone wrong and credit the market for all that has turned out right on the other hand the minority statist extreme position basically credits most major economic achievements in East Asia to appropriate interventions by developmentalist states While very few people would actually fully identify with either of these caricatured extremes much of the discussion actually gravitates around either of these poles
