Maid In Manhattan:

Made in Manhattan Lauren Layne,2022-01-18 From the New York Times bestselling author of To Sir With Love and the Central Park Pact series comes a reverse My Fair Lady tale about a pampered Manhattan socialite who must teach an unpolished drifter from the Louisiana Bayou how to fit in with New York City s upper crust Somewhere between antagonistic dinner parties and tortured tux fittings this pair of polar opposites slowly find a begrudging respect for one another and perhaps even something more as they adventure through the city that never sleeps

How to Fall in Love with Anyone Mandy Len Catron,2017-06-27 A beautifully written and well researched cultural criticism as well as an honest memoir Los Angeles Review of Books from the author of the popular New York Times essay To Fall in Love with Anyone Do This explores the romantic myths we create and explains how they limit our ability to achieve and sustain intimacy What really makes love last Does love ever work the way we say it does in movies and books and Facebook posts Or does obsessing over those love stories hurt our real life relationships When her parents divorced after a twenty eight year marriage and her own ten year relationship ended those were the questions that Mandy Len Catron wanted to answer In a series of candid vulnerable and wise essays that takes a closer look at what it means to love someone be loved and how we present our love to the world Catron melds science and emotion beautifully into a thoughtful and thought provoking meditation Bookpage She delves back to 1944 when her grandparents met in a coal mining town in Appalachia to her own dating life as a professor in Vancouver She uses biologists research into dopamine triggers to ask whether the need to love is an innate human drive She uses literary theory to show why we prefer certain kinds of love stories She urges us to question the unwritten scripts we follow in relationships and looks into where those scripts come from And she tells the story of how she decided to test an experiment that she d read about where the goal was to create intimacy between strangers using a list of thirty six questions and ended up in the surreal situation of having millions of people following her brand new relationship Perfect fodder for the romantic and the cynic in all of us Booklist How to Fall in Love with Anyone flips the script on love Clear eyed and full of heart it is mandatory reading for anyone coping with or curious about the challenges of contemporary courtship The Toronto Star

cinema Through a combination of cultural and industry analysis Hilary Radner's Neo Feminist Cinema: Girly Films, Chick Flicks, and Consumer Culture shows how the needs of conglomerate Hollywood have encouraged an emphasis on consumer culture within films made for women. By exploring a number of representative girly films including Pretty Woman, Legally Blonde, Maid in Manhattan, The Devil Wears Prada, and Sex and the City, the movie Radner proposes that rather than being post feminist as is usually assumed, such films are better described as neo feminist. Examining their narrative format as it revolves around the story of an ambitious unmarried woman who defines herself through consumer culture as much as through work or romance, Radner argues that these films exemplify neo liberalist values rather than those of feminism. As such, Neo Feminist Cinema offers a new explanation as to why feminist oriented scholars and audiences who are seeking more than labels and love from their film experience have viewed recent girly films as a betrayal of second wave feminism and why, on the other hand, such films have proven to be so successful at the box office. Supreme City Donald L. Miller, 2015-05-19 An award winning historian surveys the astonishing cast of characters who helped turn Manhattan into the world capital of commerce, communication, and entertainment. The Red Address Book Sofia Lundberg, 2019-01-08 The global fiction sensation published in thirty two countries. A warm and tender story about life, memories, and the power of love and friendship. Katarina Bivald, New York Times bestselling author. Meet Doris, a ninety six year old woman living alone in her Stockholm apartment. She has few visitors, but her weekly Skype calls with Jenny, her American grandniece, and her only relative give her great joy and remind her of her own youth. When Doris was a girl, she was given an address book by her father, and ever since, she has carefully documented everyone she met and loved throughout the years. Looking through the little book now, Doris sees the many crossed out names of people long gone and is struck by the urge to put pen to paper. In writing down the stories of her colorful past—working as a maid in Sweden, modelling in Paris during the 30s, fleeing to Manhattan at the dawn of the Second World War—can she help Jenny, haunted by a difficult childhood, unlock the secrets of their family and finally look to the future? And whatever became of Allan, the love of Doris's life? A charming novel that prompts reflection on the stories we all should carry to the next generation and the surprises in life that can await even the oldest among us. The Red Address Book introduces Sofia Lundberg as a wise and irresistible storyteller. Written with love, told with joy. Very easy to enjoy. Fredrik Backman, 1 New York Times bestselling author of A Man Called Ove. I Was Told There'd Be Cake Sloane Crosley, 2008-04-01 Hailed by David Sedaris as perfectly relentlessly funny and by Colson Whitehead as sardonic without being cruel, tender without being sentimental, from the author of the new collection Look Alive Out There. Wry, hilarious, and profoundly genuine, this debut collection of literary essays is a celebration of fallibility and haplessness in all their glory. From despoiling an exhibit at the Natural History Museum to provoking the ire of her first boss to siccing the cops on her mysterious neighbor, Crosley can do no right despite the best of intentions or perhaps because of them. Together, these essays create a startlingly funny and revealing portrait of a complex and utterly recognizable character who aims for the

John Hughes and Eighties Cinema Thomas A. Christie, 2012
JOHN HUGHES AND EIGHTIES CINEMA John Hughes is the acclaimed writer and director of Ferris Bueller's Day Off The Breakfast Club Weird Science Pretty In Pink and many other classic movies of the 1980s This book is the first full length analysis of all of John Hughes's films throughout the 1980s not only the features that he directed but also those for which he provided the screenplay By analysing these pictures and discussing their social and cultural significance in the wider context of the decade Hughes's importance as a filmmaker will be considered and his prominent contribution to cinema assessed The book concludes with a detailed analysis of Ferris Bueller's Day Off a film which is considered to be among Hughes's most critically successful works and also one of his most structurally refined REVIEW ON AMAZON If like me you were fortunate enough to live through and grow up during the 80's and early 90's you'll remember just how rich comedy was back then This book on its own puts most comedies of the modern era to shame as it is a homage to one of the most talented minds in the game I am of course speaking of none other than the late great John Hughes This is a great book for getting into the details of how a master of his art came about and created such cinematic gems Hughes will be sorely missed which is why books like this keep his spirit and work alive I d say this book is for people who are nostalgic 20 somethings or cinema buffs but all round a good book for just about anyone who would like to know what made one of the funniest minds of Hollywood tick

EXTRACT FROM THE INTRODUCTION Today John Hughes is just as well known for the scripts he created for hugely popular family films throughout the 1990s including Chris Columbus s blockbuster Home Alone 1990 Brian Levant s Beethoven 1992 and Nick Castle s Dennis the Menace 1993 written under his pen name of Edmond Dantes But even these accomplishments couldn t compare to the artistic diversity of his output throughout the eighties Although it is easy to remember Hughes for his meteorically successful teen movies right the way through the including The Breakfast Club 1985 and Ferris Bueller s Day 1986 he was every bit as adroit in his handling of suburban satires such as Mr Mom 1983 and Uncle Buck 1989 his wry observations of the great American holiday in National Lampoon s Vacation 1983 and The Great Outdoors 1988 the trials of an exasperated everyman commuter in Planes Trains and Automobiles 1987 and the expectation of anxious new parents in She s Having a Baby 1988 Throughout the course of Hughes s career there has rarely been a lack of variety in his choice of subject matter
