Maid To Order In Hong Kong An Ethnography Of Filipina Workers:

Maid to Order in Hong Kong Nicole Constable, 1997 The forms of discipline range from physical abuse to intrusive regulations including restrictions on hair length and the prohibition of lipstick Maid to Order in Hong Kong Nicole Constable, 2017-12-15 Middle class Chinese women in the global city of Hong Kong have entered the workforce in unprecedented numbers over the past three decades and the demand for foreign domestic workers has soared A decade ago some foretold the decline in foreign workers and the influx of mainland workers But today over 120 000 women from the Philippines over 90 000 from Indonesia and thousands more from other parts of South and Southeast Asia serve as maids on two year contracts in Hong Kong sending much needed remittances to their families abroad Nicole Constable tells their story by updating Maid to Order in Hong Kong with a focus on the major changes that have taken place since Hong Kong's reunification with mainland China in 1997 the Asian financial crisis of the late 1990s and the outbreak of SARS in 2002 2003 Interweaving her analysis with the women's individual stories she shows how power is expressed in the day to day lives of Filipina domestic workers and more recent Indonesian arrivals Born Out of Place Nicole Constable, 2014-03-14 Hong Kong is a meeting place for migrant domestic workers traders refugees asylum seekers tourists businessmen and local residents In Born Out of Place Nicole Constable looks at the experiences of Indonesian and Filipina women in this Asian world city Giving voice to the stories of these migrant mothers their South Asian African Chinese and Western expatriate partners and their Hong Kong born babies Constable raises a serious question Do we regard migrants as people or just as temporary workers This accessible ethnography provides insight into global problems of mobility family and citizenship and points to the consequences creative responses melodramas and tragedies of labor and migration policies Filipino

Crosscurrents Kale Bantigue Fajardo, How migrant Filipino seamen navigate alternative masculinities in the global shipping industry Revolutionizing Feminism Anne E. Lacsamana, 2015-11-17 Revolutionizing Feminism offers the first feminist analysis of the human rights crisis in the Philippines during the Arroyo presidency 2001 2010 and the declaration of the country as the second front in the US led war on terror During this period over 1 000 activists including peasants journalists and lawyers were murdered Lacsamana situates Filipino women within the international division of labour showing the connection between the super exploitation of their labour power at home and their migration abroad as domestic workers nurses nannies entertainers and mail order brides In contrast to the cultural turn in feminist theorising that has retreated from the concepts of class and class exploitation Revolutionizing Feminism seeks to reorient feminist scholarship in order to better understand the material realities of those living in an increasingly unstable and impoverished global south

Globalization and International Political Economy Mark Rupert, M. Scott Solomon, 2006 The politics of globalization include nation states pursuing power multinational firms seeking profits for their shareholders coalitions and networks attempting to promote particular visions of future possible worlds resistance groups ranging from the non violent to the murderous and ordinary people struggling to feed their families and secure their futures in a rapidly changing world Globalization and International Political Economy examines processes of globalizing capitalism and the complex politics which are emerging from it processes and struggles which will determine the shape of our world in the 21st century

Uneasy Reunions Nicole DeJong Newendorp,2008 This book is about the migrations for family reunion that have taken place in post 1997 Hong Kong between mothers and children living in mainland China and their long absent husbands and fathers residents of Hong Kong

Life Interrupted Denise Brennan,2014-03-18 Having spent nearly a decade following the lives of formerly trafficked men and women Denise Brennan recounts in close detail their flight from their abusers and their courageous efforts to rebuild their lives Life Interrupted is a riveting account of life in and after trafficking and a forceful call for meaningful immigration and labor reform

Decentering Citizenship Hae Yeon Choo,2016-06-08 Decentering Citizenship follows three groups of Filipina migrants struggles to belong in South Korea factory workers claiming rights as workers wives of South Korean men claiming rights as mothers and hostesses at American military clubs who are excluded from claims unless they claim to be victims of trafficking Moving beyond laws and policies Hae Yeon Choo examines how rights are enacted translated and challenged in daily life and ultimately interrogates the concept of citizenship Choo reveals citizenship as a language of social and personal transformation within the pursuit of dignity security and mobility Her vivid ethnography of both migrants and their South Korean advocates illuminates how social inequalities of gender race class and nation operate in defining citizenship Decentering Citizenship argues that citizenship emerges from negotiations about rights and belonging between South Koreans and migrants As the promise of equal rights and full membership in a polity erodes in the face of global inequalities this decentering illuminates important contestation at the margins of citizenship

As Normal As Possible Ching Yau,2010-02-01 These essays showcase emerging and established scholars working in sociology ethnography public health cultural activism and film studies The book poses new and exciting challenges to queer studies and other disciplines It also demonstrates that the study of Chinese sexuality is an emergent field and highlights the ways that different individuals and communities including male sex workers transsexual subjects lesbians and Asian migrants negotiate modernity and power structures in many Chinese contexts Yau Ching teaches cultural studies at Lingnan University in Hong Kong She is the author of five books in Chinese and one in English This is the first sustained collection of writings by established and young scholars on how sexualities are negotiated in Hong Kong and China It is innovative and exciting providing grounded empirical fieldwork as well as critical applications from the wider fields of literary historical studies public health cultural and film studies It demonstrates the study of Chinese sexuality and queer modernity in Asia as emergent fields emanating from many disciplines

Sex Work in Southeast Asia Lisa Law,2012-10-12 Southeast Asian sex workers are stereotypically understood as passive victims of the political economy and submissive to western men The advent of HIV AIDS only compounds this image Sex Work in Southeast Asia is a cultural critique of HIV

AIDS prevention programmes targetting sex tourism industries in Southeast Asia      Racism and Cultural Studies Epifanio San Juan, 2002-03-26

DIVA historical critique of practices in multiculturalism and cultural studies div      Proletarian and Gendered Mass Migrations, 2013-05-02

Proletarian and Gendered Mass Migrations connects the 19th and 20th century labor migrations and migration systems in global transcultural perspective It emphasizes macro regional internal continuities or discontinuities and interactions between and within macro regions The essays look at migrant workers experiences in constraining frames and the options they seize or constraints they circumvent It traces the development from 19th century proletarian migrations to industries and plantations across the globe to 20th and 21st century domestics and caregiver migrations It integrates male and female migration and shows how women have always been present in mass migrations Studies on historical development over time are supplemented by case studies on present migrations in Asia and from Asia A systems approach is combined with human agency perspectives Contributors include Rochelle Ball Shelly Chan Dennis D Cordell Michael Douglass Christiane Harzig Dirk Hoerder Muhamad Nadratuzzaman Hosen Hass ne Kassar Kamel Kateb Amarjit Kaur Kiranjit Kaur Gijs Kessler Akram Khater Elizabeth A Kuznesof Vera Mackie Adam McKeown Tomoko Nakamatsu Ooi Keat Gin Aswatini Raharto Marlou Schrover and Patcharawalai Wongboonsin      Romance on a Global Stage Nicole Constable, 2003-09-18

By the year 2000 more than 350 Internet agencies were plying the email order marriage trade and the business of matching up mostly Western men with women from Asia Eastern Europe and Latin America had become an example of globalization writ large This provocative work opens a window onto the complex motivations and experiences of the people behind the stereotypes and misconceptions that have exploded along with the practice of transnational courtship and marriage Combining extensive Internet ethnography and face to face fieldwork Romance on a Global Stage looks at the intimate realities of Filipinas Chinese women and U S men corresponding in hopes of finding a suitable marriage partner Through the experiences of those engaged in pen pal relationships their stories of love romance migration and long distance dating this book conveys the richness and dignity of women s and men s choices without reducing these correspondents to calculating opportunists or naive romantics Attentive to the structural cultural and personal factors that prompt women and men to seek marriage partners abroad Romance on a Global Stage questions the dichotomies so frequently drawn between structure and agency and between global and local levels of analysis      White Love and Other Events in Filipino History Vicente L. Rafael, 2014-06-18

In this wide ranging cultural and political history of Filipinos and the Philippines Vicente L Rafael examines the period from the onset of U S colonialism in 1898 to the emergence of a Filipino diaspora in the 1990s Self consciously adopting the essay form as a method with which to disrupt epic conceptions of Filipino history Rafael treats in a condensed and concise manner clusters of historical detail and reflections that do not easily fit into a larger whole White Love and Other Events in Filipino History is thus a view of nationalism as an unstable production as Rafael reveals how under what circumstances and with what effects the concept of the nation has been produced and deployed in the Philippines With a focus on the contradictions and ironies that suffuse Filipino history Rafael delineates the multiple ways that colonialism has both inhabited and enabled the nationalist discourse of the present His topics range from the colonial census of 1903 1905 in which a racialized imperial order imposed by the United States came into contact with an emergent revolutionary nationalism to the pleasures and anxieties of nationalist identification as evinced in the rise of the Marcos regime Other essays examine aspects of colonial domesticity through the writings of white women during the first decade of U S rule the uses of photography in ethnology war and portraiture the circulation of rumor during the Japanese occupation of Manila the reproduction of a hierarchy of languages in popular culture and the spectral presence of diasporic Filipino communities within the nation state A critique of both U S imperialism and Filipino nationalism White Love and Other Events in Filipino History creates a sense of epistemological vertigo in the face of former attempts to comprehend and master Filipino identity This volume should become a valuable work for those interested in Southeast Asian studies Asian American studies postcolonial studies and cultural studies

The SAGE Handbook of Globalization Manfred Steger,Paul Battersby,Joseph Siracusa,2014-05-22 Global studies is a fresh and dynamic discipline area that promises to reinvigorate undergraduate and postgraduate education in the social sciences and humanities In the Australian context the interdisciplinary pedagogy that defines global studies is gaining wider acceptance as a coherent and necessary approach to the study of global change Through the Global Studies Consortium GSC this new discipline is forming around an impressive body of international scholars who define their expertise in global terms The GSC paves the way for the expansion of global studies programs internationally and for the development of teaching and research collaboration on a global scale Mark Juergensmeyer and Helmut Anheier s forthcoming Encyclopaedia of Global Studies with SAGE is evidence of this growing international collaboration while the work of Professor Manfred Steger exemplifies the flourishing academic literature on globalization RMIT University s Global Cities Institute represents a substantial institutional investment in interdisciplinary research into the social and environmental implications of globalization in which it leads the way internationally Given these developments the time is right for a book series that draws together diverse scholarship in global studies This Handbook allows for extended treatment of critical issues that are of major interest to researchers and students in this emerging field The topics covered speak to an interdisciplinary approach to the study of global issues that reaches well beyond the confines of international relations and political science to encompass sociology anthropology history media and cultural studies economics and governance environmental sustainability international law and criminal justice Specially commissioned chapters explore diverse subjects from a global vantage point and all deliberately cohere around core global concerns of narrative praxis space and place This integrated approach sets the Handbook apart from its competitors and distinguishes Global Studies as the most equipped academic discipline with which to address the scope and pace of global change in the 21st century

Anthropology and Sexual Morality Carles Salazar,2006 The history of sexual morality in Ireland has been

traditionally associated with repression In the last two decades however repression seems to have given way to its exact opposite But where did this repression originate And how can we account for this sudden and sweeping transformation in sexual mores Based on solid ethnographic and historical analysis of sexual morality in rural Ireland augmented by comparative data from Papua New Guinea and being informed by Freud s emblematic concept of repression the author draws new conclusions that not only apply to the specific case of his Irish material but shed new light on the specific nature of an anthropological approach to the study of human societies Frontiers ,2007 Caring for a Living Francesca Degiuli,2016-05-06 Today s world is aging at a great speed and although increased longevity represents one of the greatest achievements of the last century the extension of life expectancy does not necessarily correspond to an extension of healthy lives Aging populations particularly those with a high percentage of the oldest old are often burdened with chronic conditions that require extended long term care Deciding who provides said care and in what forms are key problems that will soon affect a growing number of post industrial high and mid income countries Caring for a Living contributes to this debate by exploring the organization of long term care in Italy a country already in the midst of an eldercare crisis There the answer to this problem has taken the shape of home eldercare assistance an arrangement whereby long term care services are bought in the market in the form of private and individualized assistance by families sometimes with economic support provided by the State The providers of these services commonly known as badanti minders are for the most part im migrant women coming from different areas of the world Caring for a Living analyzes the emergence and development of this arrangement and the role that the state Italian families and workers themselves play in shaping and in defining it The author provides timely insights on the nature of long term care and its requirements the specific needs of families facing this issue the changing role of the neoliberal State and the ways in which global political and economic processes influence and shape an apparently individually based solution to long term care This book is ideal for graduate courses in sociology and anthropology specifically in courses related to gender and migration work and women social inequality and immigration studies

Research Handbook on the Sociology of Migration Giuseppe Sciortino,Martina Cvajner,Peter J. Kivisto,2024-01-18 Adeptly navigating one of the most pressing issues on the current global agenda this topical Research Handbook provides a comprehensive and research based exploration of the sociology of migration As well as highlighting the field s achievements and current challenges it explores key concepts used in current research methods employed and the spheres and contexts in which migrants participate
