Maidens Meal And Money Capitalism And The Domestic Community:

Maidens, Meal and Money Claude Meillassoux, 1981-03-05 For years Matthew Greene and Daniel Rosen have enjoyed a quiet domestic life together in Northampton Massachusetts Opposites in many ways they have grown together and made their relationship work But when they learn that Daniel s twin brother and sister in law have been killed in a bombing in Jerusalem their lives are suddenly utterly transformed In dealing with their families and the need to make a decision about who will raise the deceased couple s two children both Matthew and Daniel are confronted with challenges that strike at the very heart of their relationship What is Matthew s place in an extended family that does not completely accept him or the commitment he and Daniel have made How do Daniel s questions about his identity as a Jewish man affect his life as a gay American Tensions only intensify when they learn that the deceased parents wanted Matthew and Daniel to adopt the children six year old Gal and baby Noam The impact this instant new family has on Matthew Daniel and their relationship is subtle and heartbreaking yet not without glimmers of hope They must learn to reinvent and redefine their bond in profound sometimes painful ways What kind of parents can these two men really be How does a family become strong enough to stay together and endure And are there limits to honesty or commitment or love Maidens, Meal, and Money ,1991

Family and Gender in the Pacific Margaret Jolly, 1989-11-24 A 1989 examination of the effect of mission evangelism and colonial intervention on the family life of Pacific peoples Anthropology and Economy Stephen Gudeman, 2016-01-05 Comparative and critical Anthropology and Economy offers a uniquely cross cultural view of economy Using examples from market and non market situations the book shows how economies are built on five increasingly abstract spheres from the house to community commerce finance and meta finance Across these spheres economy incorporates a tension between self interested rationality and the mutuality of social relationships Even when rational processes predominate as in markets economies rely on sociability and ritual to operate whether as cronyism pleas to divinities or the magical persuasions of advertising Drawing on data and concepts from anthropology and economics the book addresses wealth inequality resource depletion and environmental devastation especially in capitalism providing an understanding of their persistence and ideas for controlling them Given the recent financial crash Gudeman offers a different understanding of the crisis and suggestions for achieving greater economic stability Historical Anthropology of the Family Martine Segalen, 1986-11-28 Over the past decade or so the social scientific sociological analysis of the family has been obliged to reconsider its traditional view that industrialisation triggered a shift within society from the large family which fulfilled all social functions from socialising the children to caring for the sick and the old to the modern nuclear family which was regarded solely as being the locus for emotional relationships Historians have shown that in the past there was a variety of family structures within a range of varying demographic economic and cultural frameworks distinctive for each society At the same time the interaction between sociology and social anthropology has led to a clearer conceptual analysis of that vague polysemic term family and notions of dwelling place descent marriage the relative roles of husband and wife and parent child relations as well as the more general relations between generations have in a variety of past and present social contexts been taken apart and analysed In this book the author synthesises European and North American historical and social anthropological material on the family that shows the reversal of the frequently held view of the family as an institution in decline showing it instead to be both dynamic and resistant

How the World Works Paul Cockshott,2020-01-21 A sweeping history of the full range of human labor Few authors are able to write cogently in both the scientific and the economic spheres Even fewer possess the intellectual scope needed to address science and economics at a macro as well as a micro level But Paul Cockshott using the dual lenses of Marxist economics and technological advance has managed to pull off a stunningly acute critical perspective of human history from pre agricultural societies to the present In How the World Works Cockshott connects scientific economic and societal strands to produce a sweeping and detailed work of historical analysis This book will astound readers of all backgrounds and ages it will also will engage scholars of history science and economics for years to come The Wealth of the Commons David Bollier,Silke Helfrich,2014-05-23 We are poised between an old world that no longer works and a new one struggling to be born Surrounded by centralized hierarchies on the one hand and predatory markets on the other people around the world are searching for alternatives The Wealth of the Commons explains how millions of commoners have organized to defend their forests and fisheries reinvent local food systems organize productive online communities reclaim public spaces improve environmental stewardship and re imagine the very meaning of progress and governance In short how they ve built their commons In 73 timely essays by a remarkable international roster of activists academics and project leaders this book chronicles ongoing struggles against the private commoditization of shared resources often known as market enclosures while documenting the immense generative power of the commons The Wealth of the Commons is about history political change public policy and cultural transformation on a global scale but most of all it s about individual commoners taking charge of their lives and their endangered resources This fine collection makes clear that the idea of the Commons is fully international and increasingly fully worked out If you find yourself wondering what Occupy wants or if some other world is possible this pragmatic down to earth and unsentimental book will provide many of the answers Bill McKibben author of Deep Economy The Wealth of Communities and The Durable Future

The Anthropology of Slavery Claude Meillassoux,1991-01-01 This study of the institution and system of slavery was first published in France in 1986 Drawing upon his knowledge of African society Professor Meillassoux provides an analysis of the reproduction of the social order in societies relying heavily on slavery within tribes marauding bands and nations and between the classes and sexes He also examines the rivalry between military and aristocratic groupings and the merchant classes who conducted the slave trade

Mexican-Origin Foods, Foodways, and Social Movements Devon Peña,Luz Calvo,Pancho McFarland,Gabriel R. Valle,2017-09-01 This collection of new essays offers groundbreaking perspectives on the ways that food and foodways serve as an element of decolonization in Mexican origin communities The writers here take us from multigenerational acequia farmers who trace their ancestry to Indigenous families in place well before the O ate Entrada of 1598 to tomorrow s transborder travelers who will be negotiating entry into the United States Throughout we witness the shifting mosaic of Mexican origin foods and foodways from Chiapas to Alaska Global food systems are also considered from a critical agroecological perspective which takes into account the ways colonialism affects native biocultural diversity ecosystem resilience and equality across species and generations Mexican Origin Foods Foodways and Social Movements is a major contribution to the understanding of the ways that Mexican origin peoples have resisted and transformed food systems through daily lived acts of producing and sharing food knowledge and seeds in both place based and displaced communities It will animate scholarship on global food studies for years to come Page 4 of cover

A Companion to the Anthropology of Africa Roy Richard Grinker, Stephen C. Lubkemann, Christopher B. Steiner, Euclides Gonçalves, 2019-02-06 An essential collection of scholarly essays on the anthropology of Africa offering a thorough introduction to the most important topics in this evolving and diverse field of study The study of the cultures of Africa has been central to the methodological and theoretical development of anthropology as a discipline since the late 19th century As the anthropology of Africa has emerged as a distinct field of study anthropologists working in this tradition have strived to build a disciplinary conversation that recognizes the diversity and complexity of modern and ancient African cultures while acknowledging the effects of historical anthropology on the present and future of the field of study A Companion to the Anthropology of Africa is a collection of insightful essays covering the key questions and subjects in the contemporary anthropology of Africa with a key focus on addressing the topics that define the contemporary discipline Written and edited by a team of leading cultural anthropologists it is an ideal introduction to the most important topics in the field both those that have consistently been a part of the critical dialogue and those that have emerged as the central questions of the discipline s future Beginning with essays on the enduring topics in the study of African cultures A Companion to the Anthropology of Africa provides a foundation in the contemporary critical approach to subjects of longstanding interest With these subjects as a groundwork later essays address decolonization the postcolonial experience and questions of modern identity and definition providing representation of the diverse thinking and scholarship in the modern anthropology of Africa

Sure Road? Nationalisms in Angola, Guinea-Bissau and Mozambique Eric Morier-Genoud, 2012-04-19 This book brings together new research on the subject of nations and nationalisms in Angola Guinea Bissau and Mozambique It explores the history and politics of diverse nationalist discourses and ideologies and it revisits the formation and contemporary developments of national imagined communities in Portuguese speaking Africa It does so by drawing on several disciplines and by exploring themes as diverse as Frelimo s liberation literature UNITA s moral economy and the disaggregation of Guinea Bissau The authors provide novel insights in the hope of contributing to the academic and public debate on the subject not least in those countries where in the face of liberalisation ruling parties and their opponents have been arguing intensively over and have sometime struggled to re invent a sense of national community Through their engagement with the subject authors also make a contribution to the general discussion of the concepts of nations and nationalism      Beyond the Impasse Frans J Schuurman,1993 Development theory in the past decade has met with increasingly heavy criticism Dependency theories as well as modes of production and world system approaches have come to be considered as internally inconsistent and inadequate for explaining the increasing diversity and unevenness of the Third World This book confronts the theoretical impasse which many feel has been reached Development scholars from various disciplines review recent changes in research priorities procedures and orientations and detect the emergence of new and diverse lines of theoretical development in the field In particular they deal with the important meta theoretical political cultural and ethical questions that have come to the fore      Fertility and Household Labour in Tanzania : Demography, Economy, and Society in Rufiji District, c.1870-1986 Matthew Lockwood,1998-03-12 This book is an interdisciplinary study of the way in which human reproduction interweaves with the reproduction of society and economy in coastal Tanzania Combining demography history and sociology and with a breadth of theoretical discussion and empirical detail it offers a new methodology for the study of African fertility and the role of household demography in agrarian economies Part I provides a political economy of changing fertility Demographic patterns are situated within the wider social and economic context in particular the transformation of marriage in relation to kinship and local political structures and child spacing dynamics rooted in the moral economy of gender In Part II the author examines the implications of demographic patterns for people s work loads and economic fortunes at the individual and household level Based on extensive field work in a Tanzanian village the analysis shows the importance of women s involvement in rice cultivation and the fluidity of life cycles      Tradition, Revolution, and Market Economy in a North Vietnamese Village, 1925-2006 Hy Van Luong,2010-08-15 Tradition Revolution and Market Economy in a North Vietnamese Village examines both continuity and change over eight decades in a small rural village deep in the North Vietnamese countryside Son Duong a community near the Red River experienced firsthand the ravages of French colonialism and the American war as well as the socialist revolution and Vietnam s recent reintegration into the global market economy In this revised and expanded edition of his 1992 book Revolution in the Village Hy V Luong draws on newly available archival documents in Hanoi narratives by villagers and three field seasons from the late 1980s to 2006 He situates his finely drawn village portrait within the historical framework of the Vietnamese revolution and the recent reforms in Vietnam The richness of the oral testimony of surviving villagers enables the author to follow them throughout political and economic upheavals compiling a wealth of original data as they actively restructure their daily lives In his analysis of the implications of these data for theoretical models of agrarian transformation Luong argues that local traditions have played a major role in shaping villagers responses to colonialism socialist policies and the global market economy His work spanning eight decades of sociocultural change will interest students and scholars of the Vietnamese revolution agrarian politics peasant societies French colonialism and socialist transformation

Accumulating Capital Today Marlène Benquet,Théo Bourgeron,2021-01-30 This book explores the renewal of forms of capital accumulation and the institutions that shape it It focuses on three main sources of accumulation the extraction of profit through labor and the commodification of nature financial speculation and the ways in which profit is converted into wealth It thus offers a new understanding of the economic and political logics of capital accumulation within capitalism in the 21st century It shows the recomposition of the sources of profit from the traditional mechanisms of labor exploitation to the contemporary logics of speculation and dispossession Bringing together the work of scholars who study the social fabric of capitalist accumulation Accumulating Capital Today goes beyond disciplinary frontiers to describe how capital is accumulating in a world threatened by social and environmental collapse This book heralds the emergence of accumulation studies and will be of interest to researchers in sociology anthropology politics political economy geography and economics

Towards an Anthropology of Wealth Theodoros Rakopoulos,Knut Rio,2020-06-04 Aiming to redefine the concept of wealth which has too often been reduced to merely accumulated assets this book views wealth primarily as a question of reproduction relational flows and life vitality The authors therefore outline wealth as a triangular phenomenon between capital the commons and power Viewing wealth as firstly a product of relational capacities the book explores the processes wherein it is constantly being pulled at from forces that demand appropriation be that finance community or state The chapters tackle perceptions and practices of wealth in the commons in mythical narrative immaterial substance aristocratic orders antimafia money real and imagined and conspiracy theory with contributions from Melanesia Italy Greece India and Mongolia The comparative perspective lies at the heart of the book bringing together instances of commonwealth and the commons as well as hierarchical relational and substantial understandings of wealth As the first collection in recent decades to address the anthropology of wealth openly in a comparative perspective this book will spark discussions of the concept in anthropology not least at the back of a renewed debate over it due to Piketty's legacy This book was originally published as a special issue of History Anthropology

Global Capital and Peripheral Labour Ravi Raman,2010-01-21 This book presents a historical account of plantations in India in the context of the modern world economy It brings history up to the present thereby showing how history can assist in explaining contemporary conditions and trends The author focuses on labour and economic development problems and uses the World Systems theory so as to demonstrate the practical utility of the theory and its limitations as a guide to historical research Based on extensive archival research the book interprets the dynamics of plantation capitalism by focusing on the work life and struggle of the dalits on plantations in colonial and post colonial South India as they evolved from the mid 19th century It argues that these elements of the plantation life world were fashioned by the specific characteristics of the workers location within the capitalist world economy the then prevailing local social structure and the scheme of disciplining to which the workers were subjected to Treating the relations among various social forces the planting communities the oppressed communities dalits in India the regional and national state and the Imperial regime this book fills a gap in academic literature on capitalism economic development and globalization      Social Change Christopher Chase-Dunn, Bruce Lerro, 2016-01-08 From the Stone Age to the Internet Age this book tells the story of human sociocultural evolution It describes the conditions under which hunter gatherers horticulturalists agricultural states and industrial capitalist societies formed flourished and declined Drawing evidence from archaeology ethnography linguistics historical documents statistics and survey research the authors trace the growth of human societies and their complexity and they probe the conflicts in hierarchies both within and among societies They also explain the macro micro links that connect cultural evolution and history with the development of the individual self thinking processes and perceptions Key features of the text Designed for undergraduate and graduate social science classes on social change and globalization topics in sociology world history cultural geography anthropology and international studies Describes the evolution of the modern capitalist world system since the fourteenth century BCE with coverage of the rise and fall of system leaders the Dutch in the seventeenth century the British in the nineteenth century and the United States in the twentieth century Provides a framework for analyzing patterns of social change Includes numerous tables figures and illustrations throughout the text Supplemented by framing part introductions suggested readings at the end of each chapter an end of text glossary and a comprehensive bibliography Offers a web based auxiliary chapter on Indigenous North American World Systems and a companion website with excel data sets and additional web links for students      The Marketing Era Kalman Applbaum, 2004-06-01 Marketing has situated itself as an indispensable tool in today s business world an unavoidable step in the process from production to consumption This book is the first of its kind to map out the organizing principles and cultural logic of marketing and trace the profession s ascent to global domination Applbaum argues that marketing can be seen as a particular set of cultural practices that surfaced in reaction to the affluence of Western society and not the answer to the call of inherent human needs and wants In order to understand globalization transnational corporations and the spread of consumer culture one must understand the logic of marketing      War in the Mountains Neil MacMaster, 2020 This book studies the peasantry during the Algerian War of Independence to uncover the long term ability of this community to sustain an autonomous political culture
