it as a reaction to shifting gender relations in Western society. Simenon's compelling narratives capture the anxieties of men whose patriarchal position was under threat in an era of insurgent feminist movements. These concerns are also evident in Simenon's pervasive preoccupation with sexuality as well as his political stance that stems from his petit bourgeois upbringing. This groundbreaking study includes interwoven commentary on all 191 novels Simenon published under his own name including several that have never been translated into English as well as a number of short stories and several pseudonymous works.

The Babel Guide to French Fiction in English Translation Ray Keenoy, Laurence Laluyaux, Gareth Stanton, 1996. The Babel guide has 150 original reviews of books by over 100 authors from France, Quebec, North and West Africa, Belgium and Switzerland. Each review provides a kind of trailer for the work and is followed by an excerpt as a taster. It introduces big names of French literature such as Sartre, Camus, Colette and Duras and a collection of less familiar writers such as Driss Chraïbi and Madeline Bourdouxhe. It includes a database of French fiction translated in the UK since 1950 with original titles and current prices. This is the third in a series of accessible and illustrated guides to world fiction available in English translation aimed at journalists, academics, teachers and the ordinary reader. The reviews let potential readers have a idea as to whether a work might suit them.
