Maine's Historic Places Frank A. Beard, Bette A. Smith, 1982 Preservation Plan Lowell Historic Preservation Commission (U.S.), 1980 An 8 year plan to preserve Lowell's historic and cultural resources in order to tell the story of the Industrial Revolution in the 19th century included in the plan are mills institutions residences commercial buildings and canals describes the areas covered discusses preservation standards public improvements financing related programs etc provides architectural information dates of construction history plans for building reuse etc of specific structures in the Lowell National Historic Park and Lowell Heritage State Park Restoring Your Historic House Scott T Hanson, 2023-06 How to accommodate contemporary life in a historic house This book does not repeat basic information that is readily available in many standard DIY books about carpentry wiring and plumbing Rather it shows how to adapt those DIY skills to the specialized needs of a historic house Maine's Visible Black History Harriet H. Price, Gerald E. Talbot, 2006 MAINE'S VISIBLE BLACK HISTORY by H H Price and Gerald Talbot explores how Black men and women have been integral parts of Maine culture and society since the beginning of the colonial era Indeed Mainers of African descent served in every American conflict from the King Philip's War to the present However the many contributions of blacks in shaping Maine and the nation have for a number of reasons gone largely unacknowledged Maine's Visible Black History now uncovers and reveals a rich and long neglected strata of state history and proves a very real connection to regional and national events Bigfoot in Maine Michelle Souliere, 2021 The dark woods of Maine have been the setting for many eerie and unexplained events none more captivating than sightings of a giant hominid known as Bigfoot But what makes this corner of New England such a perfect place for this cryptid to live Learn about the ecology and geography that support the legend and meet the people forever changed by close encounters with it From previously unpublished eyewitness accounts to modern day media portrayals author and illustrator Michelle Souliere presents this detailed history of the phenomenon and folklore that has lurked in shadows for generations The Country of the Pointed Firs Sarah Orne Jewett, 1910 National Register of Historic Places, 1966 to 1994, 1994 Historic Maine Homes Christopher Glass, 2009 Architectural historian Glass and renowned architectural photographer Brink bring their well honed skills to bear on celebrating historic Maine homes both public and private Maine's Hunting Past Donald A. Wilson, 2001 Maine has long been a well known and frequently visited hunting region Long ago moose and caribou were abundant and as time passed trappers have been able to earn a decent living pursuing choice and prized fur bearing animals Small game and waterfowl populations remained fairly stable over the years and have continued to increase in popularity However as large areas of habitat were cleared for timber larger animals began to disappear and populations dwindled Trapping has since become a less favorable mode of producing income because of the low prices offered for native and raw fur Maine's Hunting Past captures the pursuit of wild animals through a century of documentation Since about 1850 animals have been taken for sport for food and for their hides Hunting has long been not only a sport but also an industry resulting in the increase and growth of sporting camps and an expanding number of guides Maine s Hunting Past highlights favorite regions featuring famous sporting camps and well known guides Big game small game upland birds waterfowl furbearers and numerous photographs of trophy animals and large bag limits are all included
