Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996 This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people institutions organizations publications art literature languages and history It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities These large divisions are then broken down by subject genre type of document and province or territory Titles of national provincial territorial or regional interest are included in every subject area when available The contents of the book are indexed four ways by name title French subject and English subject And to facilitate browsing the major reference books those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region are also cross referenced Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages Entries for unilingual works include citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content arrangements and indexing of works the availability of non print formats previous editions and title changes and related works Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers Rivals and Conspirators Fae Brauer, 2014-07-08 Once the State run Salon in Paris closed an array of independent Salons mushroomed starting with the French Artists Salon and Women's Salon in 1881 followed by the Independent Artists Salon National Salon of Fine Arts and Autumn Salon Offering an unparalleled choice of art identities and alliances together with undreamed of opportunities for sales commissions prizes and art criticism these great Salons guaranteed the centripetal and centrifugal power of Paris as the modern art centre Lured by the prospect of being exhibited annually in Salons the size of Biennales today a huge number and national diversity of artists from the Australian Rupert Bunny to the Spaniards Pablo Picasso and Juan Gris flocked to Paris Yet by no means were these Salons equal in power nor did they work consensually to forge this modern art centre Formed on the basis of their different cultural politics constantly they rivalled one another for State acquisitions and commissions exhibition places and spaces awards and every other means of enhancing their legitimacy By no means were the avant garde salons those that most succeeded Instead as this cultural political history demonstrates the French Artists and National Fine Art Salons were the most successful with the genderist French Artists Salon being the most powerful and official Despite the renown today of Neo Impressionism Art Nouveau Fauvism Cubism and Orphism the most powerful artists in this modern art centre were not Sonia Delaunay mile Gall Paul Signac Henri Matisse or even Picasso but such Academicians as L on Bonnat William Bouguereau Fernand Cormon Edouard Detaille Gabriel Ferrier Jean Paul Laurens Luc Oliver Merson and Aim Morot who exhibited at the official Salon supported by the machinery of the State In its exposure of the rivalry conflict and struggle between the Salons and their artists this is an unprecedented history of dissension It also exposes how just below the welcoming internationalist veneer of this modern art centre intense persecutionist paranoia lay festering Whenever France s civilizing mission seemed culturally commercially or colonially threatened it erupted in waves of nationalist xenophobia turning artistic rivalry into bitter enmity In exposing how rivals became transmuted into conspirators ultimately this book reveals a paradox resonant in histories that celebrate the international triumph of French modern art that this magnetic centre which began by welcoming international modernists ended by attacking them for undermining its cultural supremacy contaminating its civilizing mission and politically persecuting the very modernist culture for which it has received historical renown

Artists' Things Katie Scott,Hannah Williams,2024-01-09 Histories of artists personal possessions shed new light on the lives of their owners Artists are makers of things Yet it is a measure of the disembodied manner in which we generally think about artists that we rarely consider the everyday items they own This innovative book looks at objects that once belonged to artists revealing not only the fabric of the eighteenth century art world in France but also unfamiliar and sometimes unexpected insights into the individuals who populated it including Jean Antoine Watteau Fran ois Boucher Jean Baptiste Greuze and Elisabeth Vig e LeBrun From the curious to the mundane from the useful to the symbolic these items have one thing in common they have all been eclipsed from historical view Some of the objects still exist like Jean Honor Fragonard s color box and Jacques Louis David s table Others survive only in paintings such as JeanSim on Chardin s cistern in his Copper Drinking Fountain or in documents like Fran ois Lemoyne s sword the instrument of his suicide Several were literally lost including pastelist Jean Baptiste Perronneau s pencil case In this fascinating book the authors engage with fundamental historical debates about production consumption and sociability through the lens of material goods owned by artists The free online edition of this open access publication is at www.getty.edu/publications/artists-things and includes zoomable illustrations Free PDF and EPUB downloads of the book are also available

The Artist and His Critic Stripped Bare Paul B. Franklin, 2016-06-01 Robert Lebel French art critic and collector was instrumental in rendering Marcel Duchamp's often hermetic life art and ideas accessible to a wider public across Europe and the United States principally with his 1959 publication Sur Marcel Duchamp the first monograph and catalogue raisonné devoted to the artist Duchamp was a willing partner in the book's creation In fact his active participation in both its conception and layout was so substantial that the book is considered part of the artist's oeuvre But the project took six years to complete The trials tribulations quarrels and machinations that plagued the production publication and publicity of Sur Marcel Duchamp are the focus of this correspondence between two lifelong friends Translated and printed in full together for the first time and including the original French texts these letters postcards and telegrams from the collection of the Getty Research Institute offer uncensored access to the evolution of the relationship between Lebel and Duchamp from December 1946 to April 1967 They provide valuable information about their daily activities as well as those of friends and colleagues vital details concerning their various collective projects and illuminating insights into their thinking about art and life These documents witty and sincere bear witness to the art of friendship and a friendship in art
