J. Hatch, 1983    The Publishers Weekly, 1987    Campsite Charlie Hailey, 2008-06-01 Camping is perhaps the quintessential American activity We camp to escape to retreat to find ourselves The camp serves as a home away from home where we might rethink a deliberate life We also camp to find a new collective space where family and society converge Many of us attended summer camps and the legacies of these childhood havens form part of American culture In Campsite Charlie Hailey provides a highly original and artfully composed interpretation of the cultural significance and inherently paradoxical nature of camps and camping in contemporary American society Offering a new understanding of the complex relationship between place time and architecture in an increasingly mobile culture Hailey explores campsites as places that necessitate a unique combination of contrasting qualities such as locality and foreignness mobility and fixity temporality and permanence and public domesticity Camping methods reflect the rigid flexibility of the process leaving home arriving at a site clearing an area making and then finally breaking camp The phases of this sequence are both separate and indistinct To understand this paradox Hailey emphasizes the role of process He constructs a philosophical framework to elucidate the placefulness or sense of place of such temporary constructions and provides alternative understandings of how we think of the home and of public versus private dwelling spaces Historically camps have been used as places for scouting out future towns for clearing provisional spaces and for making semipermanent homes away from home To understand how cultures of camping develop and accommodate this dynamic mix of permanence and flexibility Hailey looks at three basic qualities of the camp as a site for place making as a populist precursor for modern built environments and as a method Hailey's creative and philosophical approach to camps and camping allows him to construct links between such diverse projects as the philosophers camps of the mid nineteenth century the idiosyncratic camping clubs that arose with the automobile culture in the early 1920s and more recent uses of campsites as temporary housing for those displaced by Hurricane Katrina In Campsite Hailey makes a singular and significant contribution to current studies of place and vernacular architecture while also reconfiguring methods of research in cultural studies architectural theory and geography

Masters Theses in the Pure and Applied Sciences Wade H. Shafer, 1976 Masters Theses in the Pure and Applied Sciences was first conceived published and disseminated by the Center for Information and Numerical Data Analysis and Synthesis CINDAS at Purdue University in 1957 starting its coverage of theses with the academic year 1955 Beginning with Volume 13 the printing and dissemination phases of the activity were transferred to University Microfilms Xerox of Ann Arbor Michigan with the thought that such an arrangement would be more beneficial to the academic and general scientific and technical community After five years of this joint undertaking we had concluded that it was in the interest of all concerned if the printing and distribution of the volume were handled by an international publishing house to assure improved service and broader dissemination Hence starting with Volume 18 Masters Theses in the Pure and Applied Sciences has been disseminated on a worldwide basis by Plenum Publishing Corporation of New York and in the same year the coverage was broadened to include Canadian universities All back issues can also be ordered from Plenum We have reported in Volume 20 thesis year 1975 a total of 10 374 theses titles from 28 Canadian and 239 United States universities We are sure that this broader base for theses titles reported will greatly enhance the value of this important annual reference work The organization of Volume 20 is identical to that of past years It consists of theses titles arranged by discipline and by university within each discipline      The Second was First Charles W.
