William Alwyn Ian Johnson, 2005 Ian Johnson's evaluation of Alwyn's film music places his achievement in the context of wider movements within the film industry William Alwyn was a leading composer of British film music in the 1940s and 50s a time when the British film industry was at its peak His scores ranged from documentaries to almost 80 full length feature films including classics such as Fires Were Started Desert Victory Odd Man Out The Fallen Idol and The History of Mr Polly he was adept at any musical genre from classical to cartoon slapstick and in the process worked with legendary directors including Carol Reed David Lean Humphrey Jennings and Anthony Asquith Alone with Vaughan Williams he was granted the distinction of a separate title credit columnists mentioned him alongside Bliss Bax and Walton However as the reputation of the British film industry declined in the 1950s so musical snobbery against those who were its leading lights became unpleasantly raw In recent years however with sensitive performances of his film and concert music available on CD this most appealing of composers has enjoyed something of a renaissance In this long overdue reassessment Alwyn's films are analysed and put into the context of his biography the film industry and of society at large the author shows in particular this remarkably versatile composer developed a hitherto unrecognised grammar of film music which enhanced every film on which he worked He also examines his work for war propaganda radio and the concert hall The volume is enhanced by the most complete filmography discography and bibliography of the composer's works yet published as well as listings of his concert and radio music

Ireland and the Problem of Information Damien Keane, 2015-06-10 Though the work of Irish writers has been paramount in conventional accounts of literary modernism Ireland itself only rarely occupies a meaningful position in accounts of modernism's historical trajectory With an itinerary moving not simply among Dublin Belfast and London but also Paris New York Addis Ababa Rome Berlin Geneva and the world's radio receivers Ireland and the Problem of Information examines the pivotal mediations through which social knowledge was produced in the mid twentieth century Organized as a series of cross fading case studies the book argues that an expanded sphere of Irish cultural production should be read as much for what it indicates about practices of intermedial circulation and their consequences as for what it reveals about Irish writing around the time of the Second World War In this way it positions the problem of information as first and foremost an international predicament but one with particular national implications for the Irish field

The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Poetry Fran Brearton, Alan Gillis, 2012-10-25 The Oxford Handbook of Modern Irish Poetry consists of 40 essays by leading scholars and new researchers in the field Beginning with W B Yeats the figure who towers over the century's poetry it includes chapters on the major poets to have emerged in Ireland over the last 100 years
