voice back into print Barbara Howes has perfected a personal style that had little to do with the fashionable currents of her time Dana Gioia has said of her One sees Howes very clearly as a woman writing in one of the oddest but most important traditions of American poetry She stands with Marianne Moore Elizabeth Bishop and ultimately Emily Dickinson in a lineage of women writers passionately committed to the independence and singularity of the poetic imagination Collected poems 1945-1990 contains the lifework of one of America's irreplaceable poets Forty years ago in The New Yorker Louise Bogan wrote Barbara Howes is the most accomplished women poet of the younger writing generation one who has found her own voice chosen her own material and worked out her own form Miss Howes is daring with language but she is also accurate Her originality stands in constant close reference to the material in hand and although much of that material is fantastic or exotic it is never so simply for its own sake Drawing from seven previous books this collection confirms and consolidates the reputation of Barbara Howes as a timeless poet whose fine voice and surprising insights will continue to delight all lovers of language

May Sarton Margot Peters, 2011-05-04 The first biography of May Sarton a brilliant revelation of the life and work of a literary figure who influenced her thousands of readers not only by her novels and poetry but by her life and her writings about it May Sarton's career stretched from 1930 early sonnets published in Poetry magazine to 1995 her journal At Eighty Two She wrote more than twenty novels and twenty five books of poems and journals The acclaimed biographer Margot Peters was given full access to Sarton's letters journals and notes and during five years of research came to know Sarton herself the complex woman and artist She gives us a compelling portrait of Sarton the actress the poet the novelist the feminist the writer who struggled for literary acceptance She shows us beneath Sarton's exhilarating irresistible spirit the needy courtier and seducer the woman whose creativity was propelled by the psychic drama she created in others We watch young May at age two as she is abruptly uprooted from her native Belgium by World War I a child ignored both by her mother who was intent on her own artistic vision and reluctant to cope with a child and by her father obsessed with his academic research We see Sarton as a young girl in America and then later at nineteen choosing a life in the theatre landing a job in Eva Le Gallienne's Civic Repertory and gathering what would become a tight knit coterie of friends and lovers Sarton beginning to write poetry and novels Sarton making friends with Elizabeth Bowen and Julian Huxley Erika and Klaus Mann Virginia Woolf the poet H D charming and enlisting them with her work her vitality her hunger for love driven by her need to conquer among her conquests Bowen Huxley and later his wife Juliette We see her intense friendships with literary pals including Muriel Rukeyser her lover and Louise Bogan Sarton's literary sibling who at once encouraged her and excluded her from a world in which Bogan was a central figure We see Sarton begin to create in the spiritual journals that inspired the devotion of readers the image of a strong independent woman who lived peacefully with solitude an image that contradicted the reality of her neediness loneliness and isolation as she pushed away loved ones with her demands and betrayals A fascinating portrait of one of our major literary figures a book that for the first time reveals the life that she herself kept hidden
