Everyday Life Annie-B Parson, 2022-10-11 A renowned choreographer explores the dance of everyday life and reveals that art making is as natural as walking down the street In this sparkling innovative fully illustrated work world renowned choreographer Annie B Parson translates the components of dance time proximity space motion and tone into text As we follow Parson through her days at home reading and on her walks down the street and in and out of conversations on everything from Homer's Odyssey to feminist art to social protest she helps us see how everyday movement creates the wider world Dance it turns out is everything and everywhere With the insight and verve of a soloist Parson shows us how art making is a part of our everyday lives and our political life as we move together and apart through space Surrealists in New York Charles Darwent, 2023-04-25 In 1957 the American artist Robert Motherwell made an unexpected claim I have only known two painting milieus well the Parisian Surrealists with whom I began painting seriously in New York in 1940 and the native movement that has come to be known as abstract expressionism but which genetically would have been more properly called abstract surrealism Motherwell's bold assertion that Abstract Expressionism was neither new nor local but born of a brief liaison between America and France verged on the controversial Surrealists in New York tells the story of this liaison and the European exiles who brought Surrealism with them an artistic exchange between the Old World and the New centring on taciturn printmaker Stanley William Hayter and the legendary Atelier 17 print studio he founded Here artists' experiments literally pushed the boundaries of modern art It was in Hayter's studio that Jackson Pollock found the balance of freedom and control that would culminate in his distinctive drip paintings The impact of Max Ernst Andr Masson Louise Bourgeois and other noted migrants on the work of Motherwell Pollock Mark Rothko and the American avant garde has for too long been quietly written out of art history Drawing on first hand documents interviews and archive materials Charles Darwent brings to life the events and personalities from this crucial encounter In so doing he reveals a fascinating new perspective on the history of the art of the twentieth century Art and the Home Imogen Racz, 2015-01-26 Our homes contain us but they are also within us They can represent places to be ourselves to recollect childhood memories or to withdraw into adult spaces of intimacy they can be sites for developing rituals family relationships and acting out cultural expectations Like the personal social and cultural elements out of which they are constructed homes can be not only comforting but threatening too The home is a rich theme running through post war western art and it continues to engage contemporary artists today yet it has been the subject of relatively little critical writing Art and the Home Comfort Alienation and the Everyday is the first single authored up to date book on the subject Imogen Racz provides a theme led discussion about how the physical experience of the dwelling space and the psychological complexities of the domestic are manifested in art focusing mainly on sculpture installation and object based practice discussing the work and ideas of artists as diverse as Louise Bourgeois Gordon Matta Clark George Segal and Cornelia Parker within their artistic and cultural contexts The Aesthetic Clinic Fernanda Negrete, 2020-10-01 In The Aesthetic Clinic Fernanda Negrete brings together contemporary women writers and artists well known for their formal experimentation Louise Bourgeois Sophie Calle Lygia Clark Marguerite Duras Roni Horn and Clarice Lispector to argue that the aesthetic experiences afforded by their work are underwritten by a tenacious and uniquely feminine ethics of desire To elaborate this ethics Negrete looks to notions of sublimation and feminine sexuality developed by Freud Baudelaire Mallarmé and Nietzsche and their reinvention with and after Jacques Lacan including in the schizoanalysis of Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari But she also highlights how psychoanalytic theory draws on writing and other creative practices to conceive of unconscious processes and the transformation sought through analysis Thus the aesthetic clinic of the book's title a term Negrete adopts from Deleuze is not an applied psychoanalysis or schizoanalysis Rather The Aesthetic Clinic privileges the call and constraints issued by each woman's individual work Engaging an artwork here is less about retrieving a hidden meaning through interpretation than about receiving a precise transmission of sensation a jouissance irreducible to meaning Not only do art and literature serve an urgent clinical function in Negrete's reading but sublimation itself requires an embrace of femininity
