Louise Lawler And Others:

Louise Lawler and Others Louise Lawler, 2004 Louise Lawler subjects the concept of art to critical analysis by re photographing her own drawings paintings and sculptures and incorporating aspects of their immediate surrounding into these copies Viewed with a certain detachment her demystified reproductions also reveal the contextual and situational connotations of her artworks which recede to a certain extent into the background Lawler also applies these methods to the work of other artists photographing their art pieces particularly as they are mounted in private collections These contextualizing photographs retain fragments of their surroundings thus clarifying how the presentation and interpretation of artwork is never free of value judgment or environmental influence This publication offers the first retrospective overview of the artistic accomplishments of Louise Lawler over the past 20 years Included are a number of very recent works some of them created especially for this book Twice Untitled and Other Pictures (looking Back) Louise Lawler, 2006-09-15 For the past 20 years Louise Lawler has been taking photographs of art in situ This work explores such themes in Lawler s practice as her relationship to sculpture her history of collaborative projects her production of ephemera the steady political dimension of her work An Arrangement of Pictures Louise Lawler, Johannes Meinhardt, 2000 For the past 20 years Louise Lawler has photographed art as it is presented in private homes museums galleries auction houses public buildings and museum and gallery storage areas From an exhibition of Degas masterpieces to an Andy Warhol installation this book invites you to discover Lawler s unique vision of modern and contemporary art She is fascinated by what happens to the art object after it leaves the artist s studio where it goes how it s displayed how it s valued and what it means Lawler shows how the environment that surrounds a piece of art affects our perception of it and how that perception in turn affects all aspects of the environment Louise Lawler Roxana Marcoci, 2017 Published in conjunction with a major survey of the artist Louise Lawler this catalogue charts the creative practice of one of the most influential artists working in the fields of picture making and institutional critique Since the 1970s Lawler has expanded from a feminist position upon the legacy of institutional critique initiated by an earlier generation of Conceptual artists including Marcel Broodthaers Daniel Buren and Michael Asher and methods of appropriation in parallel with certain artists of her generation such as Sherrie Levine Cindy Sherman Sarah Charlesworth and Richard Prince Engaging a variety of art world positions including that of artist curator fact checker publicist and photo editor Lawler has distinguished herself as one of the most creative artists of our age Presenting Lawler s multifaceted practice across mediums photography sound work film objects and mural scale installations this book offers new critical perspectives through eight essays by renowned scholars that unpack her tight witty thought provoking work The rich selection of plates comprehensively records the artist s practice to date and underscores the radical inventiveness of Lawler s practice The performative nature of Lawler s practice is mirrored in the design of the book s dust jacket when turned inside out it features a signature Lawler picture as an adjusted to fit poster The book is an indispensable resource for anyone interested in late 20th and early 21st century art

On the Museum's Ruins Douglas Crimp, 1993 What determines the significance of a work of art Does it abide eternally within the work Or is it continually constructed and reconstructed from the outside through the work's presentation The historical shift from autonomous modernist object to postmodernist critique of institutions from artwork to discursive context is the subject of Douglas Crimp's essays and Louise Lawler's photographs in On the Museum's Ruins Taking the museum as paradigmatic institution of artistic modernism Crimp surveys its historical origins and current transformations The new paradigm of postmodernism is elaborated through analyses of art practices broadly conceived not only the practices of artists but also those of critics and curators of international exhibitions and of new or refurbished museums back cover
