Louise Nevelson Louise Nevelson, 2004-06-01 The Sculpture of Louise Nevelson Louise Nevelson, Arthur C. Danto, Harriet F. Senie, Jewish Museum (New York, N.Y.), Gabriel de Guzman, Michael Stanislawski, 2007-01-01 Presents a catalog of an exhibition showcasing the works of the American sculptor and artist Louise Nevelson Robert Indiana, Anthony Haden-Guest, 2012 Louise Nevelson 1899 1988 is one of the most important sculptors of the last century famous for her large scale monochromatic wood assemblages and outdoor works Nevelson was born in Czarist Russia immigrating to the US with her family at the age of three and had her first solo exhibition at the prestigious Nierendorf Gallery in 1941 This extensively illustrated publication with 157 images in color is the first to focus on her collage work Made throughout her career and every bit as important as her parallel work of the time Nevelson's collages have been out of the public eye for three decades With never before published documentary images alongside personal essays by Robert Indiana and Bill Katz this long overdue publication repositions these treasures of art history as well as the reputation of their creator for today's audience Louise Nevelson Laurie Lisle, 2016-03-08 Louise Nevelson one of the most important American sculptors of the twentieth century was a beautiful woman who lived so audacious a life that by the time of her death she was a legend both inside and outside the art world Born Leah Berliawsky in Czarist Russia in 1899 she grew up in Maine ostracized as a Jew and a foreigner At twenty she escaped to Manhattan as Mrs Charles Nevelson eventually leaving her husband for a life devoted to art She lived and loved with lusty abandon often in poverty and obscurity until she finally achieved fame and fortune at sixty This biography of a monstre sacre is a tale of hard tacks heroism and heedless swipes at those who dared to love her said Interview magazine Nevelson found inspiration in cubism primitive art and her own unconscious creating a rich iconography of images With black white or gold paint and perfect placement she transformed old pieces of wood picked up on the street into powerful sculptures In later years she appeared in mink eyelashes and flamboyant costumes all the while going to her studio every day before dawn to add to the astonishing body of work now in collections of museums around the world Laurie Lisle interviewed Nevelson before the artist's death in 1988 as well as her lovers family members artist friends and many others This biography provides fascinating insights and information discovered in archives and public records letters and diaries and the artist's own prose and poetry Now in a revised e book edition Louise Nevelson A Passionate Life is the only biography of this important American sculptor It is impressive in its thoroughness which nonetheless results in good reading by virtue of its interweaving of personal and professional information its eclectic introduction of psychological analysis and a phraseology that appreciates both the pain and the joy surrounding Nevelson's eccentric behavior according to Woman's Art Journal In Defiance of Painting Christine Poggi, 1992-01-01 The invention of collage by Picasso and Braque in 1912 proved to be a dramatic turning point in the development of Cubism and Futurism and ultimately one of the most significant innovations in twentieth century art Collage

has traditionally been viewed as a new expression of modernism one allied with modernism's search for purity of means anti illusionism unity and autonomy of form This book the first comprehensive study of collage and its relation to modernism challenges this view Christine Poggi argues that collage did not become a new language of modernism but a new language with which to critique modernism She focuses on the ways Cubist collage and the Futurist multimedia work that was inspired by it undermined prevailing notions of material and stylistic unity subverted the role of the frame and pictorial ground and brought the languages of high and low culture into a new relationship of exchange

Revolution in the Making Emily Rothrum, Elizabeth A. T. Smith, Anne Wagner, 2016 Half the World traces the ways in which women artists deftly transformed the language of sculpture to invent radically new forms and processes that privileged studio practice tactility and the artist's hand The volume seeks to identify the multiple strains of proto feminist practices characterized by abstraction and repetition which rejected the singularity of the masterwork and rearranged sculptural form to be contingent upon the way the body moved around it in space The catalogue begins in the immediate post war era with the first section spanning the late 1950s through the 1950s Featuring historically important predecessors including Ruth Asawa Lee Bontecou Louise Bourgeois Claire Falkenstein and Louise Nevelson this section examines abstraction based on the human figure and the influence of the unconscious The second section covers the decades of the 1960s and 1970s and includes Magdalena Abakanowicz Lynda Benglis Heidi Bucher Gego Fran ois Grossen Eva Hesse Sheila Hicks Marisa Merz Mira Schendel Michelle Stuart Hannah Wilke and Jackie Winsor a generation of post minimalist artists who ignited a revolution in their use of process oriented materials and methods In the 1980s and 1990s the period explored in the third section artists Phyllida Barlow Isa Genzken Cristina Iglesias Liz Larner Anna Maria Maiolino Senga Nengudi and Ursula von Rydingsvard moved beyond singular three dimensional objects toward architectonic works characterized by repetition structure and design The final section is comprised of post 2000 works by artists Karla Black Abigail DeVille Sonia Gomes Rachel Khedoori Lara Schnitger Shinique Smith and Jessica Stockholder artists who create installation based environments embracing domestic materials and craft as an embedded discourse

Passages in Modern Sculpture Rosalind E. Krauss, 1981-02-26 Studies major works by important sculptors since Rodin in the light of different approaches to general sculptural issues to reveal the logical progressions from nineteenth century figurative works to the conceptual work of the present
